COMMISSIONERS IN ACCOUNT WITH THE COUNTY OF MONROE.

Dr. To Check No. 23, exonerated Andrew Storm of bad money,	$25 00
Cr. By part of said money passed by Jacob Bush and accounted for above,	$10 00
$5 00 bill on the Schuylkill Bank, received by Andrew Storm, Treasurer, good and depreciated in value while in said Storm's hands,	5 00—15 00
Overpaid James Rafferty, for printing Trial, Argument and Jury lists for 1841,	25
Balance due the County,	$15 25

We the subscribers, Auditors for the county of Monroe, having carefully examined the accounts of the County Treasurer, and other County Officers, and all books, papers, vouchers, &c. relating thereto, do certify that we find the same correct as above stated, and that the balance due to Jacob Bush, late Treasurer, from the county of Monroe, is two hundred and six dollars and eighty-one cents.
Witness our hands at Stroudsburg, this twenty-seventh day of January, A. D. 1842.
JEREMY MACKEY, Jr.
R. S. STAPLES,
Auditors.

The subscriber, one of the Auditors of the County of Monroe, having examined the above account, begs leave to inform the public that he cannot give his assent thereto, but must dissent from the opinion of the other two Auditors for the following reasons:
The Commissioners of Monroe County have allowed the following exorbitant and illegal charges in his opinion.
1st. Amount allowed to James H. Walton, for acting as Auditors Clerk at last settlement is considered illegal. $15 00
It was the duty of Mr. Walton to be in attendance there as Deputy Treasurer and Commissioners Clerk, under his annual salary, without extra pay.
2d. Amount paid to J. Rafferty for county printing for 1841, is considered too exorbitant by $60 00
3d. Amount allowed Andrew Storm for bad money is considered illegal. 25 00
4th. The Commissioners in the last year in the erection or repairing of a bridge (over a creek, which the subscriber understands is called McMichael Creek, and the bridge, Jacksonville bridge,) near Stroudsburg, under their superintendence have paid out of the County funds the sum of $236 67 without an order of inspection view as required by the Act of Assembly, which the subscriber considers illegal. 286 67

The subscriber is also opposed to the manner in which the other two Auditors have lengthened out the account, enumerating some items in an unusual and very lengthy manner, which in the opinion of the subscriber would cost the County an enormous sum if paid for at the same rate paid for last years printing. JOHN MERWINE, Auditor. Stroudsburg, Monroe Co., January 27, 1842.

JEFFERSONIAN REPUBLICAN
Stroudsburg, February 9, 1842.

Terms, $2.00 in advance; $2.25, half yearly; and $2.50 if not paid before the end of the year.

Financial Meeting.

At a public meeting of the citizens of Monroe county, convened pursuant to previous public notice at the Court-house in the Borough of Stroudsburg, on Tuesday evening, the 8th inst. to take into consideration matters relative to the finances of Monroe county.
On motion Col. John Huston, was called to the Chair; Isaac Transue, Esq. John Yetter and Sam'l Gunsauls, were appointed V. Presidents, and Sydenham Walton and Chas. Boys, Secretaries. On motion John Merwine, was called on to address the meeting, who pointed out various matters of mismanagement of the County Commissioners since the organization of this County, such as their neglect to take good security under Bond from the Collectors of County Taxes, therefore subjecting the County to a chance of loss to a great extent, as in numerous instances since it has been organized. Duplicates have been handed to collectors without even making them sign a bond, consequently they are merely charged for the amount on book, which appears that the Law has been utterly neglected. The Law requires the Commissioners to take a bond with sufficient security for the payment and performance of Collectors of the various townships. Mr. Merwine also argued against the Commissioners paying such enormous and exorbitant prices to James Rafferty for printing the various items for the County, some of which were paid in direct violation of law. He also stated that monies had been paid by the Commissioners for building and repairing bridges, without the work first being inspected by a Committee appointed by the Court for that purpose, which he contended was in violation of the act of assembly. He mentioned several other instances of mismanagement in the Commissioners, such as paying fees to a Clerk to assist the Auditors in making a statement of the finances in the former settlement, and their allowing to Ex-treasurers payment of the amount of spurious monies received by them, which is unprecedented and not legal by any means whatever. The whole tenor of his argument went to show that mismanagement had heretofore existed in the affairs of our County and that it was high time a retrenchment was effected. James H. Walton attempted to reply to Mr. Merwine, but the main portion of his argument amounted to nothing more than blackguardism and personal insinuations. From the appearance and actions of the fellow, some very sore spots must have been touched with true remarks by the preceding speaker, and indeed it appeared that old daddy and all his little ones were afraid of having something developed that might injure one of the dear sonnies. Any impartial listener would have supposed that the speaker wished to make wrong right, and to whitewash the misdeeds of some Officials and make the public believe them legal and honorable proceedings, or in other words, to advocate the course pursued by former Boards of Commissioners—but the public will and have fully shown that this young scion has missed his aim and caught himself in his own trap. Poor little fellow, he stood in his own light.

Longevity.

A colored female, died at Troy, N. Y. on the 22d ult., at the great age of 135 years. She was a native of Africa, and was kidnapped and brought to this country one hundred and twenty years ago.

MITCHELL AT LARGE.—Charles F. Mitchell is again at large. He is said to look much emaciated.

The Banks of Ohio must by law resume on the 4th of March next.

More than eight hundred Revolutionary Pensioners have died during the last year.

The Ladies' Companion.
The February number of this valuable periodical has been received. As usual, it is rich, various and entertaining. The frontispiece is a beautiful steel plate, a miniature of Utica, N. Y., and "the Fashions" are unusually fine. Among the writers we observe the names of Benjamin, Ingraham, Fay, Willis, Mrs. Sigourney, and others of great literary fame. The publisher is Wm. W. SNOWDEN, 109 Fulton st. N. Y. Terms—$3, per annum in advance.

DEPRECIATING.—The price of wheat in Alton Ill., is eighty cents per bushel, with every prospect of a farther decline. Indian corn is selling at the same place at 20 cents the bushel.

CURIOUS LAW.—It is said that there is a law among the Arabs which permits a man to divorce any of the four wives allowed him, who do not make good bread. Fortunate for some of the fashionables of the present day, there is no such law in this country.

The Hon. Mr. Plumer, a Representative in Congress from this State, is confined to his lodgings in Washington by indisposition.

HARD TIMES.—A lot of ready made coffins and cooling-boards, were disposed of a few days since at auction, in Baltimore, to satisfy a distraint for rent. The former brought 15 cents a piece, and the latter one cent. It is a strange world this that we live in.

The Harrisburg Reporter contains a rumor, that the Towanda and West Branch Banks have closed.

NEW COUNTERFEIT.—Princeton Bank, Princeton—$5's spurious, letter C; vignette, Perry's Victory, which is not on the genuine bills.—[Bicknell's Reporter.

Appointments by the Governor.

Calvin Blythe to be President Judge of the 12th Judicial District, in the room of A. V. Parsons, appointed Secretary of the Commonwealth.
Ovid F. Johnson, Esq., Attorney General of the Commonwealth, for the next three years.
John F. Smith, Inspector of Flour for the city and county of Philadelphia,
Joseph Yeager, regulator of weights and measures for Philadelphia.
Peter Rambo, Health officer for the port of Philadelphia.

The time for the presentment of the bills of the Farmers & Mechanics' Bank of New Brunswick has been extended to three months from the 26th ult., after which time they will not be paid by the Receivers. Those having bills on that Bank would do well to present them immediately. The Receivers are Peter Spader and John Van Dyke.

Mild Winters.—The Lancaster Intelligencer notices the coincidence, that mild winters have happened at a regular periodical distance of twenty-six years, as follows:—1686, 1712, 1738, 1764, 1790, 1916, 1842.

DISGRACEFUL.—In the Ohio Legislature on the 22d ult., a petition for divorce was presented, when a "Mr. Byington inquired if it would be in order to move that the petition be sent to HELL!! Mr. McNulty moved that the gentleman from Pike be appointed the special messenger for its despatch!!"

MAIL ROBBERY.—The Cincinnati republican says that the mail from Lexington to that city, that left on the morning of 22d, was robbed at Florence, Ky., by the Postmaster at that place, William Hunter.

Philadelphia Banks.

The Philadelphia Banks (the Girard and Pennsylvania) have agreed upon the following arrangements in order the more effectually to meet the present pressure--

1. The Banks to issue their own notes exclusively of the denomination of $20 and upwards.
2. The Banks to make daily exchanges with each other.
3. Balances to be settled weekly, or oftener, at the option of the creditor; bank; to be paid in specie, or up to the 1st of March, in commercial bills, not having more than 45 days to run;—after the 1st of March, not exceeding 30 days to run; to be approved by the creditor bank, and guaranteed by the debtor bank.
4. A safety fund is also to be created:—the banks of largest capital are to deposit $100,000 each, and those of a smaller capital, $50,000 each, in the hands of Trustees, each Bank to choose one trustee, and the whole to form a board. The above sums to be in specie, Treasury notes, or equally satisfactory. On the default of any bank the Trustees to have power to convert the securities to such an extent as to pay the defalcation; and the defalcating bank to be hereafter excluded from the arrangement.
5. To resume specie payment on the 1st of August.

After the adoption of a few further resolutions, not of general interest, the delegates adjourned.

The receipts of the American Board of Missions during the month of December, were $28,296. Total from August 1 to December 31st, $144,084.

Bankrupt Law Anticipated.
On Wednesday, 200 insolvents are said to have passed our insolvent court, and by their discharge, it is estimated that on an average each cancelled debts to the amount of $1000, making an aggregate of $200,000.—[Phil. Ledger.

The damage done by the fire at East Boston is estimated to amount to $17,000.

For the first time since its erection the White House at Washington has been this year the scene of a funeral and a wedding.

Rather Mysterious.
The New York Tribune says, that on the 16th of August last, a Mr. Newberry; Practical Phrenologist, leased and moved into the room in the granite building directly over that occupied by John C. Golt. He had been there but a few days, when a gentleman, whose name he does not know, but whom he thinks he should recognize, called at his room, examined several skulls, and in the course of a conversation on kindred subjects, inquired very particularly as to the precise part of the human head where a blow would be most effective in producing instant death. Mr. N. told him that it was just behind and above the ear. It is now regarded as note-worthy that the skull of Samuel Adams was found to be pierced at that very spot.

PARDONED.—Two Germans in the interior of Pennsylvania named Abraham and Willam Kromer, were in 1836 sentenced to the State Prison for mail robbery. Their term expired in December last, but they were kept in Prison for costs until recently, when they were pardoned by President Tyler. Though they had been in the same prison for the whole term; they had never seen each other's face. Their meeting was extremely affecting; they rushed into each other's arms and wept bitterly. During their imprisonment they became attached to their Bibles, and have both resolved, in the strength of Christian principle, to lead lives of virtue. They had scarcely got out of prison when they accidentally met a cousin; to whom they made known their feelings and resolutions. After satisfying himself as to their sincerity, he gave each of them a farm near his own in Indiana, and enabled them to become useful to their families and the community. N. Y. Tribune.

Report of the Canal Commissioners'
We have at length received this document, and we are free to say, that it more than realizes our worst fears. The following are the demands it makes upon an empty Treasury:
To pay debts due for repairs and to contractors, $1,604,415 77 3-4
Amount required for repairs next year, 200,000 00
To complete Erie Extension, North Branch, and Wisconsin Canal, 1,919,394 49 1-4 $3,720,919 27
To which add the sum required by the Governor to pay the Banks on the Repeal of the relief bill, and amounting to upwards of $1,700,000, and we have the snug little sum of FIVE MILLIONS FOUR HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS and upwards!

Wrong in 1831, and in 1842.
If the scenes which now disgrace the Hall of the House of Representatives in Washington, were acted in England and France, we should copy the report as something at which our readers smile, while they condemned the actors. But when they are found at home—found in the National Assembly of a young Republic, we are bound to weep over the events as evidences of that shadow which coming anarchy casts before it.
The Southern members now start appalled at the mention of the dissolution of the Union, when it is made by a Northern member. They now find treason in the language. They seem to forget how flippant they conversed of such things ten years ago, and how coolly they sat down, and calculated the advantages of the Union. But Mr. Adams also—we say it with all the respect and reverence for his age and wisdom which they deserve—Mr. Adams forgets the loud execrations with which the eastern and middle States citizens visited those of the South, who talked calmly of such a course.—And those who would be consistent or just, must not adopt as their own course, the plan which they loudly and unqualifiedly condemned in others.—Every word of condemnation which was, in 1831, uttered against the Southern members for talking of a dissolution of the Union, is due, and ought to be given, to the Northern man who, in 1842, utters the same language.—U. S. Gazette.
