WAYNE COUNTY MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY.

ALL Persons insuring in this company are members equally interested in its welfare and in the election of its officers.

In order to become a member of this company and thereby be insured, the applicant gives a premium note, the amount of which is in proportion to the amount to be insured, and its degree of hazard, thus: If $1000 is to be insured, at 5 per cent., he gives his note for $50. If $10 per cent., he gives his note for $100, and in that proportion for a greater or less sum, according to the rate of hazard, on which note he advances 6 per cent. and an additional sum of $1 50 for survey and policy. He then becomes a member on the approval of his application and is insured for five years. The aggregate of the premium notes constitutes the cash fund, chargeable first, with the expenses, and second, with the losses of the Company; and should it prove insufficient to pay both losses and expenses the money to meet the losses, (should any occur) is borrowed agreeably to the act of incorporation, and paid. An assessment is then made to repay such loan upon the premium notes, in proportion to their respective amounts, and in no case to be made but once a year, notwithstanding several losses may happen.

At the expiration of five years the note, if any assessments have been made and paid, is given up, and the insured may renew his application.

Policies may at any time be assigned or surrendered and cancelled, and the premium notes given up, according to the by-laws of the Company. No more than three fourths of the cash value of any property will be insured, and all great hazards: such as Cotton Factories, Powder Mills, Distilleries, Machine Shops, Manufactories for Printer's Ink, and all establishments of the same class of hazards, are not insured upon any conditions whatever, and that no one risk is taken over $5000, it is considered much more safe and less expensive than in Stock companies, where they insure large amounts and hazardous property. STOGDELL STOKES, Agent. Stroudsburg, Monroe co., Dec. 15, 1841.

The Bankrupt Law and the State Insolvent Law.

"TAKING THE BENEFIT."

There is an important difference in the operation of our State Insolvent Law, and that of the National Bankrupt Law, which has just gone into operation.

Those who avail themselves of the benefits of the State Law, are free from arrest for the debts they may be owing at the time they declare their insolvency; but their future earnings, and the property they may thereafter accumulate, will be held liable for their old debts. Of course they are kept "under the harrow," till their old debts are paid.

Those who avail themselves of the benefits of the National Bankrupt Law, are not only free from arrest, but they wash themselves clean of every debt, new and old, under which they may be labouring, and their earnings, after they receive a discharge, cannot be touched by any creditors for a debt existing at the time of such discharge. The reader will at once perceive the difference between the operation of the two laws.

We should not be surprised if thousands who have taken the benefit of our State Insolvent Law, within a few years, and are still oppressed with old debts, should feel themselves called upon, as a matter of justice to themselves and their families, to take the benefit of the judicious and humane law, passed at the last session of Congress.—Daily Chronicle.

The following paragraph is from the "Perry County Democrat," a paper of the same politics with the members of whom it speaks so freely.

How to get a Great Name.

Those members of the Legislature who for the want of either talent or consistency to keep their heads above water, or rather from entirely sinking into oblivion, have happily hit upon a new plan to enrol their names upon the scroll of fame, and appear to the world and posterity that they were great men. Indeed, it appears to be the only idea that engrosses the attention of some members, and it is not so bad, particularly for the Editor of the "SIGNAL," at Harrisburg. It is no less than this:—The editor of that print, or probably the members themselves for aught we know, write puffs, something similar to the obituary notices of the good and pious, which are published in that print—the members then purchase the papers, some 50, some 100, and some 200 copies—they are then packed up and distributed—not upon the four winds of Heaven, for that wouldn't answer the purpose—but all over the State and that too at the expense of the Commonwealth. This is the "last effort" to ascend the pinnacle of fame. The old plan required too much labor to work their way up. The new plan is much easier. The "Signal" can be had cheap and neither labor nor talents are required. They are at once pronounced great men, and are sent forth to the world in print as Solons.

Pretty well advanced for Matrimony.

A couple were recently married at Shetucket, L. I., of which the gentleman was 83 years of age, and the lady 72. Worse than all "this strange, eventful history," the lady was on old maid.

Blacksmiths seem determined to distinguish themselves honorably. While the learned Blacksmith is exciting wonder and admiration by his indomitable spirit of perseverance, his fellow craftsman at Easton, Pa., Wm. Thatcher, has immortalized himself by hammering out two hundred horse shoes in nine hours and a half. He had the assistance of a boy.—Sat. Courier.

The Reading Encampment.

An encampment of volunteers will be formed at Reading on the 18th of May next, at which Gen. A. M. Prevost will command. On Saturday, the 21st of May, a target firing will be held for three gold medals, and one awarded to the Company, embracing the best shot in the different divisions of force.

An Express.

A Wisconsin editor acknowledges the receipt of Congressional documents "in advance of the mail" in consequence of a flock of wolves chasing the post-rider across the prairies.

Bloody Double Murder.

A fatal affray occurred a couple of weeks since at Lewisburg, Arkansas, between Dr. Menifee and a Mr. Phillips, in which both were killed. Some difference arose about a note in possession of one of them. They accidentally met—drew pistols and fired. Menifee was shot in the groin, and Phillips in the shoulder. They then drew bowie knives and closed on each other. At first cut Menifee was nearly severed in two; and Phillips' shoulder blade laid open. Both expired on the spot.

Some nine years since Prentice of the Louisville Journal lost the use of his right hand by continual writing; he has since used his left, but has now lost the use of that also.

Petitions.

We go strongly for the right of petition, and therefore intend to petition our next Congress:— For the enlargement of the Pacific Ocean, and a bridge across the Atlantic; also for the filling up of Lake Superior—to make a little more land—as it is very scarce this year.

For the total annihilation of all mosquitoes, both in Florida and the United States.

To have the moon taken into the screw dock and copper bottomed.

For the abolition of eating whenever flour is eight dollars per barrel.

To fortify corn fields from the depredations of "coons."

To remove Texas a little further off—if being sum' at too handy; also for the removal of the Alleghany mountains beyond the Mississippi—they being at present a public nuisance.

If the above petitions should not be read in Congress, and laid under the table, why, then Congress might as well burst up at once—or we'll burst it up.—Sun. Mercury.

A Dutch Story.

I and brother Horse and two other togs was out hunting next week, and we drove nine woodchuck into a stone heap, and kilt ten out of the nine before they cot in.

Jugs.—The jug is the most singular utensil; a pail, tumbler, or decanter may be raised and you may satisfy yourself by optical proof, that the thing is clean, but the jug has a little hole in the top and the interior is all darkness. No eye penetrates it, no hand moves over the surface. You can clean it only by putting in water, shaking it up, and pouring it out. If the water comes clean, you judge you have succeeded in purifying the jug, and vice versa.— Hence the jug is like the human heart. No mortal eye can look into its recesses, but you can judge of its purity, only by what comes out of it.

Some women use paint as fiddlers do rosin—to aid them in drawing a bean.

A Sensible Choice.

"If you don't accept my challenge," said one gentleman of honor to another. "I will gazette you—so take your choice." "Go a-head," said the other, "I had rather fill six gazettes than one coffin."

Rejection of Mr. Bradford.

Letters received last evening from Washington, state that the nomination of Thomas Bradford, Esq., appointing him to the office of Judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, was rejected in the Senate by a majority of five.

A Trophy.

An English paper says that the tail of a luckless Chinese, killed in one of the late actions, has been sent to England. It is above a yard in length, and as black as ebony, having evidently belonged to a young man.

With reference to the recent clandestine marriage in New York, the Commercial has the following paragraph, from which it appears that Capt. Schinley will be defeated in his principal object:

"We are informed that for ten years to come the present Mrs. Schinley can have no control over the large estates devised to her by her grandfather, the late General O'Hara, of Pittsburg, but is entitled by his will to an allowance of only one thousand dollars per annum; and further, that the consent of her father to her marriage is necessary before the property vests in the young lady at all. We shall be extremely happy if other individuals implicated by rumor in this lamentable affair, clear themselves from the charge of connivance or participation in proceedings which have excited so general a feeling of indignation in 'his community.'"

Interesting Law Case.

The Washington Correspondent of the Boston Atlas says that an interesting case is now on trial in the Supreme Court, arising out of the following facts: A gentleman residing in Maryland had allowed an aged pair of his slaves substantial though not legal freedom for several years. While thus living, a daughter was born to them, who grew up in the same liberty, until she married a free negro and went with him to reside in Pennsylvania. They had several children, and lived unmolested until the original owner died, when his heir attempted to regain them; but the magistrate before whom they were brought, decided that he had no jurisdiction in the case. The owner seized the woman and her children in the night, and carried them to Maryland, far which he was indicted and demanded by the Governor of Pennsylvania of the Maryland Executive. A correspondence ensued, which finally brought the case into the Supreme Court.

Mr. Clay's resignation as U. S. Senator was transmitted to Kentucky, to take effect on the 31st day March next. On the 1st day of April the Legislature of that State will elect or appoint Mr. Crittenden to fill the vacancy.—N. Y. Tribune.
