

Thrilling Incident—Religion, At-tempted Murder and Attempted Suicide.

We have just heard of a most awful and deplorable scene, which has been enacted in Newton, N. J., three miles from Camden. About three months ago, the wife of a German laboring farmer, becoming religiously inclined, attended the Baptist Church in Haddonfield very regularly, until she became fully converted to that faith, and was baptised without the knowledge of her husband. As soon as the fact was known to him, he threatened to shoot the minister and some leading members of the Church, as well as his wife. To accomplish this, he charged his gun, shouldered it and walked to the minister's house, but not finding him at home, he returned to his own house, and threatened to shoot his wife, who very fortunately escaped, and swore her life against him. He was arrested and placed in Woodbury jail, where he remained till last week, when he scaled the wall and went back to his own house, in the dead of night. His wife feeling alarmed lest he would kill her, fled in her night clothes to a neighbor's house, about a quarter of a mile distant. A few nights afterwards, the police being apprised of his whereabouts, went to arrest him; as they were passing up the stairs to the room where it was thought he was sleeping, they beheld him standing at the head of the staircase, with a large axe raised, with which he threatened to kill the first that came within his reach, and, suiting the action to the word, he made a blow with great force, which barely escaped murdering one of the officers, as the axe struck his hat, and the blade passing through it, was buried in the wood work on the side of the door. At this one officer asked for "the pistols to shoot him," which caused him to retreat back, and almost instantly was heard a heavy fall upon the floor. They entered the room, and found him lying on the floor, weltering in blood, he having cut his throat with a razor. As they approached to raise him up, he placed both his hands in the gash of his throat, and dragged at it, as if determined to tear himself to pieces. He was overpowered, tied down, a physician sent for, the wound dressed, and he allowed to remain at his house under guard, until he should have so far recovered as to allow of his being retaken to prison. He grew better in strength, although the wound still remained open, until Sunday night last, when he managed to elude the vigilance of the guard and decamped. Up to yesterday nothing had been heard of him, and his friends, as well as the law officers, manifest much alarm at his absence. One thing is certain, he cannot long survive, as he is unable to eat or swallow any thing. Such a fiend deserves to die the death he is likely to suffer—starvation and want of attention in some desolate wood, afar from friends and home.—Daily Chronicle.

Review of the Markets.

Philadelphia, June 4, 1842.

FLOUR AND MEAL—A further decline in the price of Flour has been submitted to this week, and the prices have become rather unsettled. Small sales of Pennsylvania Flour for shipment at $1.75 per bbl. early in the week; subsequently upwards of 1000 bbls. at $5.62. Sales from irregular dealers at $5.50 per bbl. for Western Flour; for city use, sales at from $5.62 to $5.75 for fair to good brands. We quote Western Flour at $5.50 a $5.56, and Pennsylvania $5.62, with a limited demand Rye Flour—Sales at $3.50 per bbl. Corn Meal—Sales in bbls. at $2.69 a $2.62, which is a slight decline. No sales in hhds.

GRAIN—Wheat is coming in freely, and meets a moderate demand, at reduced prices. Sales of Pennsylvania red at $1.22 to $1.27 per bushel, and white at $1.25 a $1.27. A lot of only fair Illinois red sold at $1.20. To-day we quote Pennsylvania red at $1.23 a $1.24; and white at $1.24 a $1.25. Rye—no sales. We quote 70 cents. Corn—large sales with heavy receipts, and prices continue declining. Sales of round yellow at 54 a 53; flat at 53 a 51, and white at 50 cents. The sales exceed 20,000 bushels, and the market closes at the lowest rates. Oats—Sales of 20,000 bushels at 40 cents for Pennsylvania, and 38 a 39 cents for Southern.

PROVISIONS—Beef is without demand. Pork, sales of Mess at $7.50 a $8, and prime at $6 a $6.25 per bbl. Bacon—sales to some extent in lots. Hams at 4 to 6 cts per lb; Sides at 3 to 4; and Shoulders 2 to 3 cents, for fair and good quality, part for shipments South. Lard—sales a 5 1-4 a 5 1-2 cents, cash and time; now held higher. In Butter no sales. WOOL—There is no improvement in the demand for wool, and prices are hardly supported. The new clip will soon begin to arrive but it will meet a very limited demand, owing to the extremely low prices of woolen goods. A lot of unwashed Buenos Ayres wool sold as low as 6 cts per lb. 6 mos.

CATTLE MARKET—Beesves, 610 head, including 80 from Ohio, were brought in, and about 500, of which 225 were for New York, sold at $5.00 a 700 per 100 lbs. as in quality. Cows and Calves—210 were offered, and mostly sold at $8 a $15 for Dry Cows—$15 a $24 for Springs, and $25 a $35 for Milk Cows. Hogs—550 were brought in, and 410 sold at $4 a $4.75 per 100 lbs. Sheep—1,100 were brought in, and 600 sold at $1.25 to $4 each, as in quality.—Sat. Courier.

LADIES' COMPANION!

A STANDARD NATIONAL MAGAZINE. Published Monthly in the City of New-York, by WILLIAM W. SNOWDEN. TWO ENGRAVINGS IN EVERY NUMBER.

The Ladies' Companion, is published monthly, in the city of New York, and thus established in popular favor, after a progress of many years—issued with unflinching promptness and regularity—adorned with a beauty of typographical execution which proudly challenges criticism, and with engravings, prepared, in every instance, expressly for the work, after a careful selection of the subject—enriched constantly with fashionable and popular music—superintended, in all its departments, with the most scrupulous care for its excellence in every particular—and filled with articles from the pens of the most popular, renowned and talented writers of which our own country or England can boast, it is by no means an unwarrantable presumption thus to claim for the Ladies' Companion, the proud elevation of being a Standard National Magazine!

Looking with a jealous eye to the honor of American Literature, as well as to emolument, it is the endeavor of the proprietor of the "Companion," to be governed by principles of the broadest liberality; and to offer no pledge to the public which cannot be faithfully and fully redeemed. That very promise made in times past, has been scrupulously fulfilled, is confidently asserted, and for a full confirmation of this, every reader is appealed to; and this exactness, it is supposed, will be a sufficient guaranty for the future.

After this explanation, the proprietor of the Ladies' Companion proudly directs attention to the following Prominent Contributors.

- Emma C. Embury, author of "Pictures of Early Life," "The Blind Girl," etc.; Lydia H. Sigourney; Frances S. Osgood; Mrs. Seba Smith; Mrs. E. F. Ellet, author of "Character of Schiller," etc.; Ann S. Stephens; Hannah F. Gould; Mrs. E. R. Steele; Mrs. A. M. F. Annan, late Miss Buchanan; Miss A. D. Woodbridge; Mrs. Emeline S. Smith; F. W. Thomas, author of "Clinton Bradshaw," etc.; Caroline Orne, of Wolfboro', N. H.; Miss Mary Ann Browne, England; Miss C. P. Orne, of Cambridge, Mass.; Mrs. M. St. Leon Loud; Professor J. H. Ingraham; Louis Fitzgerald Tassiro; Nathiel P. Willis; Theodore S. Fay; Park Benjamin;—together with a large number of prominent writers, whose names we have not room here to insert.

Among the number of the contributors to the "Companion," above enumerated, will be perceived the names of many, whose charming productions have given lustre to our national literature, and whose reputation is identified with the progress of their country to that position in the world of letters, to which they have been signally instrumental in advancing it, and among them, there will be found the names of ladies who have established the claim of woman to the possession of the loftiest intellect, in its more refined and delicate characteristics, and have reared an enduring monument to the virtues and elevation of their sex. The talents of the contributors, it will be perceived, are of the most varied character. By this it is rendered certain that every taste will be gratified—that every branch of elegant literature will receive attention. Poetry, tales, sketches, essays—the instructive and the amusing—the grave and the gay—will be blended, to enhance the interest of the Magazine.

The Embellishments.

Even in this important respect, the "Companion" may be safely pronounced to maintain a decided superiority over every competitor; and in regard to its gorgeous engravings, the work is distinguished above every literary periodical, whether in England or America. Every number is ornamented with steel plates, executed by the first artists, in the most finished manner, expressly for the work! Scriptural engravings are, also, occasionally published. The reader therefore, for the low price at which the "Companion" is afforded, in addition to its admirable literary articles, obtains a part folio of elegant steel engravings.

THE MONTHLY FASHIONS

are also given, illustrative of the changes of attire, in female costume and ornaments. These plates are not executed on wood, but so elaborately engraved on steel, as to be of themselves worthy of preservation as beautiful pictures; for it is the determination of the proprietor of the Ladies' Companion, to offer nothing to its readers that is not worthy of unqualified admiration.

The Musical Department

receives the utmost attention. A piece of music is given in every number, and an experienced and competent musical professor having the immediate supervision, the selections may be relied upon as being from the most pleasing and popular songs.

LITERARY NOTICES.

Criticism upon the publications which may from time to time be issued, is a matter involving serious responsibility; especially when the decision of the critic is expected to influence a large portion of the community; and while the receipt of the books issued by the most prominent publishing-houses in the country, enables the proprietor of the Ladies' Companion to announce the reviews of new works to form one of the features in the conduct of the Magazine; the reader who consults them for guidance in the selection of books for perusal, may place upon them implicit reliance. The basis of criticism is an impartial and independent judgment.

Editors' Table.

Under this head the more important events which may transpire, worthy of comment, will be found, embracing every subject, either local or foreign, that is considered of sufficient interest to demand attention.

In conclusion, the proprietor pledges himself that every effort will be expended to make the Ladies' Companion pre-eminent for the beauty and accuracy of its typography—the variety and high tone of its literary articles—the quality and value of its music—and the splendor of its pictorial embellishments.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

The Ladies' Companion is published at THREE DOLLARS a year, payable in advance, or four dollars during the year.—Two copies for five dollars—if current funds, in advance—post paid. The work is punctually issued on the first of every month, and is forwarded to subscribers by the earliest mails, strongly enveloped. New volumes commence with the May and November numbers. All letters and communications must be post paid, or they are not taken from the post office. Address WILLIAM W. SNOWDEN, 109 Fulton Street, New-York.

NOTICE.

Having been called upon repeatedly for information respecting redemption monies on unseated lands, which remain in the hands of Ex-Treasurers, I take the liberty in justification to myself, as well as for the good of Monroe county, to state that from all that I was able to ascertain at the annual settlement in January last, upwards of $1,000 00 was remaining in the hands of Ex-Treasurers. I requested Mr. Bush, late Treasurer, to render an account of redemption monies received by him during his term of Office, but he refused to do so;—neither could I prevail upon my colleagues, Messrs. Mackey & Staples, to go into a settlement with the Ex-Treasurer concerning the monies received by him on unseated lands.

I now earnestly request Messrs. Storm & Bush; to examine page 201 of Purdon's Digest, 6th edition, by George Stroud, where they will find the act of assembly recorded, which expressly says, that it shall be the duty of Ex-Treasurers to pay over all redemption monies on unseated lands to their successors in office, and after convincing themselves of the duty they have overlooked, or neglected, to pay over the same at once to the present Treasurer with interest thereon. Such a course will save the Auditors much trouble at the next annual settlement, besides showing a willingness to obey the mandates of Justice.

With sentiments of respect, I remain Your obedient servant, JNO. MERWINE, one of the Auditors.

DR. LANING, SURGEON DENTIST, Late of Philadelphia,

Offers his professional services to the Ladies and Gentlemen of Stroudsburg, and its vicinity. He inserts "Stocktons premium Porcelain teeth" upon the most scientific principles. Teeth, gold, cleaned of all tartar, mucus, and other noxious substances, and filled firmly with gold or other metals. The most extricating "toothache" when the nerve is exposed, will be completely cured in a few minutes, and the tooth repaired and brought to its former usefulness by which the patient is spared the unpleasant, and painful operation of extracting. It is a well established fact, that the retaining of teeth in the mouth, in a carious or decayed state, as well as the operation of extracting is very injurious to the constitution.

A Dentifice of superior quality, and lotion, for cleansing teeth, and restoring aerological gums medicinal for curing inflammation of the peristoms, or swollen face, &c. &c (prepared,) and all the curative operations in Dental Surgery performed. Should any of his operations fail, they will be promptly repaired without any extra compensation.

His office is at S. J. HOLLINSHEAD'S Hotel. The following testimonials are most respectfully submitted.

"We the undersigned having received demonstrations of the professional skill of Dr. J. W. Laning, Surgeon Dentist, do most cheerfully recommend him to public attention as a careful and scientific operator. J. Hains, M. D. J. M. Cole, M. D. A. Gurard, M. D. M. Neal, Surg. Dentist.
