

to the crops, but are believed to be of service, by ridding them of injurious bugs, &c.

We have received letters and newspapers from the South as far as Georgia, and also from various portions of the West, which speak in glowing terms of the crops of grain and fruit.

On the evening of the first of May, the house of Isaiah Johnson, of Sandwich, N. H. was struck by lightning and entirely consumed.

Accounts from Ireland of 12th April say: "A large number of houses in the neighborhood of Doonbeg, in Clare county, were carried away by an awful flood, and several men lost their lives in attempting to save the cattle."

By an arrival at New York last week, from Port au Prince, accounts were received from Cape Haytien, that that whole town was destroyed by an earthquake on the 7th of May, by which awful calamity, ten thousand persons had perished.

There are now thirteen hundred vessels which sail from ports of the United States under the temperance flag. Many of these vessels are bound on long voyages round Cape Horn.

During the year 1841, there arrived at New York sixty thousand emigrants; and great preparations are now making in Europe for emigration this year.

Supernatural!—(From a late English paper)—"A great number of persons are removing from London to various places, and some emigrating to America, fearing that London is about to be swallowed up by an earthquake!"

"In eighteen hundred and forty-two, Four things the sun shall view, London's rich and famous town, Hungry earth shall swallow down! Storm and rain in France shall be, Till every River runs a Sea! Spain shall be rent in twain, And famine waste the land again!"

Review of the Markets.

FLOUR AND MEAL—By the Great Western, from Liverpool May 21, we learn that American Flour had again slightly improved, sales in bond having been made at 28s a 28s. 6d. per bbl.

On the date of our last publication the market for Western Flour continued very heavy, and sales of Genesee, Ohio, and Michigan were made at a reduction of 12 cents per bbl.; purchasers for export to England and the West Indies then came forward, and some 2000 bbls. Genesee were taken at $6 and perhaps about the same quantity of handsome Michigan, in flat hoops, $5.87; round hoop Ohio could then have been purchased at $5.75, and flat at $5.87.

On Monday and Tuesday there was more firmness and this decline was recovered, and although the article was rather quiet than otherwise at the enhanced prices demanded, yet 500 bbls. round hoop Ohio were taken for the West Indies at $5.87; 1,500 very good brands flat hoop Ohio and Michigan, part to arrive, for Liverpool at $6; and 700 better than common brands Genesee, at $6.18. Holders of common brands Genesee are firm at $6.12, nearly all to be had at that price being bought up on Monday; the receipts of yesterday were trifling. Troy should be quoted $6.12, with few or no sales. Southern sorts are dull, and prices, in the absence of demand, have not varied.—Georgetown sells slowly at $6.25; a small parcel Howard Street, on the wharf, was disposed of at $6.12. Ship stuff has become scarce, and prices have advanced 1 a 2 cents; 4 a 5000 bushels sold at 13 cents, and for the little left 14 is now demanded. Shorts are steady at 9 a 10 cents. Rye Flour and Corn Meal are without change.

GRAIN—A parcel of 1200 bushels fair quality Illinois Wheat has been sold for milling at $1.27, cash; there is now very little offering, and as Flour has an upward tendency, the market for Wheat is also firmer. Prices of Rye have given way, and we notice sales of 1000 bushels Northern at 64 cents; 3500 do. on terms not made public, but supposed 62; and 700 Jersey 61 part for distilling, and the residue to go out of the market. Northern Oats remain dull and cargo of 2500 bushels has been sold as low as 37 cents—we quote 37 a 39 as the extremes; 1000 bushels Southern brought 34 cents.—Corn comes forward freely, but there seems to be a very fair demand, and prices remain steady.—1700 bushels Southern Yellow sold at 53 a 54 cents—subsequently, 7500 at 52; 7400 Northern Yellow, 57 a 58, closing at 57 for a lot of 4000 bushels; 1000 Jersey Yellow, 56, all measure; and 400 Ohio via New-Orleans, to be taken at the vessel, at 52 cents, weight.

BANK NOTE LIST.

Corrected weekly for the Jeffersonian Republican.

The notes of those banks on which quotations are omitted and a dash (—) substituted, are not purchased by the Philadelphia brokers, with the exception of those which are marked with a star (*)

Table with columns: Name, Dis., and various bank names like Bank of Philadelphia, Bank of North America, etc.

Table with columns: Name, Dis., and various bank names under 'Country Banks' like Agricultural bk, Great Bend, Allegheny bk, etc.

Table with columns: Name, Dis., and various bank names like Erie bank, Erie, Farm. & Drov. bk, etc.

Note.—It may be proper to remark, that the notes of nearly all the country banks are redeemed in specie on presentation at their counters; and that the cause of their depreciation in the city, is owing to a resolution of the city banks to receive on deposit the notes of those banks only which have effected an arrangement with a city bank to redeem their notes when presented.

LADIES' COMPANION!

A STANDARD NATIONAL MAGAZINE. Published Monthly in the City of New-York, by WILLIAM W. SNOWDEN. TWO ENGRAVINGS IN EVERY NUMBER.

The Ladies' Companion, is published monthly, in the city of New York, and thus established in popular favor, after a progress of many years—issued with unfailing promptness and regularity—adorned with a beauty of typographical execution which proudly challenges criticism, and with engravings, prepared, in every instance, expressly for the work, after a careful selection of the subject—enriched constantly with fashionable and popular music—superintended, in all its departments, with the most scrupulous care for its excellence in every particular—and filled with articles from the pens of the most popular, renowned and talented writers of which our own country or England can boast, it is by no means an unwarrantable presumption thus to claim for the Ladies' Companion, the proud elevation of being a Standard National Magazine!

Looking with a jealous eye to the honor of American Literature, as well as to emolument, it is the endeavor of the proprietor of the "Companion," to be governed by principles of the broadest liberality; and to offer no pledge to the public which cannot be faithfully and fully redeemed. That very promise made in times past, has been scrupulously fulfilled, is confidently asserted, and for a full confirmation of this, every reader is appealed to; and this exactness, it is supposed, will be a sufficient guaranty for the future.

After this explanation, the proprietor of the Ladies' Companion proudly directs attention to the following Prominent Contributors. Emma C. Embury, author of "Pictures of Early Life," the "Blind Girl," etc.; Lydia H. Sigourney; Frances S. Osgood; Mrs. Seba Smith; Mrs. E. F. Ellet, author of "Character of Schiller," etc.; Ann S. Stephens; Hannah F. Gould; Mrs. E. R. Steele; Mrs. A. M. F. Annan, late Miss Buchanan; Miss A. D. Woodbridge; Mrs. Emeline S. Smith; F. W. Thomas, author of "Clinton Bradshaw," etc.; Caroline Orne, of Wolfsburg, N. H.; Miss Mary Ann Browne, England; Miss C. F. Orne, of Cambridge, Mass.; Mrs. M. St. Leon Loud; Professor J. H. Ingraham; Louis Fitzgerald Tassiro; Nathiel P. Willis; Theodore S. Fay; Park Benjamin;—together with a large number of prominent writers, whose names we have not room here to insert.

Among the number of the contributors to the "Companion," above enumerated, will be perceived the names of many, whose charming productions have given lustre to our national literature, and whose reputation is identified with the progress of their country to that position in the world of letters, to which they have been signally instrumental in advancing it, and among them, there will be found the names of ladies who have established the claim of woman to the possession of the loftiest intellect, in its more refined and delicate characteristics, and have reared an enduring monument to the virtues and elevation of their sex. The talents of the contributors, it will be perceived, are of the most varied character. By this it is rendered certain that every taste will be gratified—that every branch of elegant literature will receive attention. Poetry, tales, sketches, essays—the instructive and the amusing—the grave and the gay—will be blended, to enhance the interest of the Magazine.

The Embellishments. Even in this important respect, the "Companion" may be safely pronounced to maintain a decided superiority over every competitor; and in regard to its gorgeous engravings, the work is distinguished above every literary periodical, whether in England or America. Every number is ornamented with steel plates, executed by the first artists, in the most finished manner, expressly for the work! Scriptural engravings are, also, occasionally published. The reader therefore, for the low price at which the "Companion" is afforded, in addition to its admirable literary articles, obtains a port folio of elegant steel engravings.

THE MONTHLY FASHIONS are also given, illustrative of the changes of attire, in female costume and ornaments. These plates are not executed on wood, but so elaborately engraved on steel, as to be of themselves worthy of preservation as beautiful pictures; for it is the determination of the proprietor of the Ladies' Companion, to offer nothing to its readers that is not worthy of unqualified admiration.

The Musical Department receives the utmost attention. A piece of music is given in every number, and an experienced and competent musical professor having the immediate supervision, the selections may be relied upon as being from the most pleasing and popular songs.

LITERARY NOTICES. Criticism upon the publications which may from time to time be issued, is a matter involving serious responsibility; especially when the decision of the critic is expected to influence a large portion of the community; and while the receipt of the books issued by the most prominent publishing-houses in the country, enables the proprietor of the Ladies' Companion to announce the reviews of new works to form one of the features in the conduct of the Magazine; the reader who consults them for guidance in the selection of books for perusal, may place upon them implicit reliance. The basis of criticism is an impartial and independent judgment.

Editors' Table. Under this head the more important events which may transpire, worthy of comment, will be found, embracing every subject, either local or foreign, that is considered of sufficient interest to demand attention.

In conclusion, the proprietor pledges himself that every effort will be expended to make the Ladies' Companion pre-eminent for the beauty and accuracy of its typography—the variety and high tone of its literary articles—the quality and value of its music—and the splendor of its pictorial embellishments.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS. The Ladies' Companion is published at THREE DOLLARS a year, payable in advance, or four dollars during the year.—Two copies for five dollars—if current funds, in advance—post paid. The work is punctually issued on the first of every month, and is forwarded to subscribers by the earliest mails, strongly enveloped. New volumes commence with the May and November numbers. All letters and communications must be post paid, or they are not taken from the post office. Address WILLIAM W. SNOWDEN, 109 Fulton Street, New-York.

NOTICE.

Having been called upon repeatedly for information respecting redemption monies on unseated lands, which remain in the hands of Ex-Treasurers, I take the liberty in justification to myself, as well as for the good of Monroe county, to state that from all that I was able to ascertain at the annual settlement in January last, upwards of $1,000 00 was remaining in the hands of Ex-Treasurers. I requested Mr. Bush, late Treasurer, to render an account of redemption monies received by him during his term of Office, but he refused to do so;—neither could I prevail upon my colleagues, Messrs. Mackey & Staples, to go into a settlement with the Ex-Treasurer concerning the monies received by him on unseated lands.

I now earnestly request Messrs. Storm & Bush, to examine page 201 of Purdon's Digest, 6th edition, by George Stroud, where they will find the act of assembly recorded, which expressly says, that it shall be the duty of Ex-Treasurers to pay over all redemption monies on unseated lands to their successors in office, and after convincing themselves of the duty they have overlooked or neglected, to pay over the same at once to the present Treasurer with interest thereon. Such a course will save the Auditors much trouble at the next annual settlement, besides showing a willingness to obey the mandates of Justice.

With sentiments of respect, I remain Your obedient servant, JNO. MERWINE, one of the Auditors.

DR. LANING, SURGEON DENTIST, Late of Philadelphia.

Offers his professional services to the Ladies and Gentlemen of Stroudsburg, and its vicinity. He inserts "Stocktons premium Porcelain teeth" upon the most scientific principles. Teeth filed, cleansed of all tartar, mucus, and other vicious substances, and filled firmly with gold or other metals. The most excruciating "toothache," when the nerve is exposed, will be completely cured in a few minutes, and the tooth repaired and brought to its former usefulness, by which the patient is spared the unpleasant, and painful operation of extracting. It is a well established fact, that the retaining of teeth in the mouth, in a carious or decayed state, as well as the operation of extracting is very injurious to the constitution.

A Dentifrice of superior quality, and lotion, for cleansing teeth, and restoring scorbuted gums, medicinal for curing inflammations of the peristoms, or swollen face, &c. &c. (prepared.) and all the curative operations in Dental Surgery performed. Should any of his operations fail, they will be promptly repaired without any extra compensation.

His office is at S. J. HOLLINSHEAD'S Hotel.

The following testimonials are most respectfully submitted.

"We the undersigned having received demonstrations of the professional skill of Dr. J. W. Laning, Surgeon Dentist, do most cheerfully recommend him to public attention as a careful and scientific operator. J. Hains, M. D. J. M. Cole, M. D. A. Gurard, M. D. M. Neal, Surg. Dentist.
