

THE APPORTIONMENT BILL.

The following is the apportionment bill as passed by the Legislature on Saturday, with the population of each Congressional District:

Table listing population data for various districts and counties, including Southwark, Philadelphia, Lancaster, and others.

Westward, Ho!—Upwards of seven hundred Dutch immigrants went up the Hudson river, from New York on the 2d inst., in the freight barge Erastus, in tow of a steamer.

Foreign Mechanics.—The New York papers speak of the streets of the city being crowded with foreign mechanics, who are offering to labor for one half the rates charged by American workmen.

Death from the Bite of a Pilot Snake.—On Thursday the 13th inst. a child of Mr. Michael Altemose, jr. of Ross township, Monroe county, was bitten by a Pilot snake, which entered the house, and died in about six hours time.

DR. LANING, SURGEON DENIST, Has located in Stroudsburg. Office one door west of Dr. W. P. Vail's.

SHERIFF'S SALE. By virtue of a writ of venditioni exponas to me directed, I shall expose to public sale, on Monday the 29th day of August inst., at the Court House in Milford, Pike county, the following described property, to wit: A certain piece or parcel of Land, situated in the town of Milford, county of Pike, and State of Pennsylvania, designated on the map of said town, number three hundred and seventy-seven, (No. 377) containing in front on Broad st. forty feet, and in depth on Sarah st. one hundred and eighty feet, with a DWELLING HOUSE thereon erected, with appurtenances.

Seized and taken in execution as the property of John Finch, and will be sold by me for cash only. JAMES WATSON, Sheriff. Sheriff's Office, Milford, Aug. 4, 1842.

PIKE COUNTY HOUSE.

George Biddis, Having taken the above stand in the town of Milford, recently kept by Ira Coburn, is well prepared to accommodate in a satisfactory manner those who may favor him with a call.

The Table will be supplied with the best productions afforded by the market. His Rooms and Beds are such as will, he hopes, prove satisfactory to all reasonable customers.

The Bar is, and will continue to be, furnished with a choice assortment of Liquors.

His Stables are large and commodious, and will be well stocked with Hay and Oats—indeed every attention which can promote the comfort and satisfaction of customers will be cheerfully bestowed. His house is large and well calculated to accommodate Pleasure Parties. With these advantages backed by some experience in the business and a determination to keep a good public house, he confidently expects a fair portion of public patronage. Milford, August 4, 1842.

DAGUERRETYPE MINIATURES.

Mr. E. FOOT, would respectfully inform the ladies and gentlemen of Stroudsburg and vicinity, that he has taken rooms at S. J. Hollinshead's Hotel, for a few days, for the purpose of taking likenesses, and would invite all to call and view his specimens. Those who have never had an opportunity of seeing them can hardly form an adequate idea of the beauty and perfection of a Daguerreotype picture. The likeness cannot fail in being correct, and occupies but few moments, in the execution.

How often have we heard persons exclaim, when the cold clouds of the valley covered the remains of a valued friend, 'What would I not give for an exact likeness of those once loved features.' Now, ladies and gentlemen, you have it at your own doors, at a moderate price. Whole families taken on moderate terms. Instructions given. Stroudsburg, July 27, 1842.

Bell, Esqs. Each number embellished with SPLENDID STEEL AND MEZZOTINT ENGRAVINGS, Fashion Plates, Music, &c. &c. The July Number of this popular and elegant periodical will commence a new volume, and the publisher takes this opportunity to assure the public, that he will remit no effort to keep it, where it is now acknowledged to be, at the very head of American periodicals. No expense has been spared, and none will be, to make its embellishments of the most splendid description, and in proof of what he has accomplished in this respect, the publisher refers to the series of brilliant engravings, both line and mezzotint, which he has recently given; while in regard to the future, he thinks it sufficient to say, that he has now ready for publication numerous plates, even surpassing in beauty and interest those which he has already issued. These will be given in the course of the coming volume.

As to the Literary Department of THE LADY'S BOOK, the publisher pledges himself, that it shall continue to merit the superiority which has been awarded to it already.
