A NEW AND POPULAR LIFE OF HENRY CLAY;
WITH A SUPERB FULL LENGTH ENGRAVING!
Representing Mr. CLAY in his studio at Ashland, after Franquinet's celebrated picture, the best portrait ever taken, and NEVER BEFORE ENGRAVED.

Price Sixpence.
General attention is requested to the following important resolution:
In Joint Executive Committee of the Democratic Whig General Committee and the General Committee of the Democratic Whig Young Men of the City and County of New-York, July 8, 1842:
Resolved, That this Committee commend to every Democratic Whig of the Union the LIFE OF HENRY CLAY, prepared for publication in the NEW WORLD newspaper, as an able and valuable memoir, exhibiting the leading incidents in the career of an individual so eminently distinguished as the Friend of Liberty, the Statesman, the Patriot, and the Philanthropist.
HAMILTON FISH, Chairman.
Jos. P. PIRSSON, Secretary.
The life of Mr. CLAY, referred in the above, has been prepared by an experienced author and politician, from the best and newest materials and most authentic sources, and will unquestionably be the text-book in the coming Presidential contest.
It will be published on or about the first of September, in a single Extra Number of the New World, elegantly stereotyped, and furnished to clubs, at the exceedingly low price of $5 a hundred, or $40 for a thousand copies. Copies will be sent by mail to any part of the country on the following terms: Sixteen copies for $1, and fifty copies for $3.

The unbounded approbation bestowed on the plan and execution of the YOUNG PEOPLE'S BOOK, by the conductors of the public press throughout the U. States, and by numerous persons of the highest distinction, in the various walks of Literature, Science and Art, as well as the substantial patronage it has received, have induced the publisher not only to increase its claims to regard by ADDING TO ITS LITERARY MERITS, but also to make it more accessible to all classes of the community, by Reducing the Price of Subscription.

For the former purpose, besides continuing the services of

PROFESSOR FROST, whose ample scholarship, enlarged information, correct taste, and acknowledged ability as an elegant and instructive writer, peculiarly qualify him for the management of a periodical devoted to young people, the publisher has engaged the EDITORIAL AID OF T. S. ARTHUR, a gentleman so favorably known to the American public, through the medium of his unsurpassed productions, that it would be idle to pronounce any eulogy on his merits. Perhaps no living author is more eminently fitted to impart instruction in an attractive and impressive form than Mr. Arthur. Endowed with an extraordinary acuteness of perception, and the most vivid power of delineation, he has applied these rare gifts to the development of practical truths, and while every thing which falls from his pen is calculated to attract and fix the highest degree of interest, it impresses at the same time the most useful moral. Thousands, it may confidently be asserted, have already been awakened to a sense of duties unperformed, or evil habits unrestrained, by the simple and unobtrusive but searching lessons he has taught, and in the new field which his connection with the editorial department of the Young People's Book will open to him, no doubt can be entertained that he will reap fresh honors for himself, and confer fresh benefits on the community.

In addition to the labours of the editors, whose energies will be constantly directed to maintain and improve the high character which the Young People's Book has acquired, the various literary and scientific persons, whose contributions have given dignity and force to the work, will continue to be regular correspondents, and to these will be united almost every native writer, male or female, whose aid may be made instrumental in promoting the great object of the work—namely, to convey useful knowledge in such a form as will gratify the tastes while it will improve the minds and hearts of those classes to whom it will be especially addressed.

Without intending the slightest disparagement to either of the many admirable periodicals now issued from the American press, the publisher of the Young People's Book feels justified in saying that his work possesses advantages, in some respects, which no other can fairly claim. Avoiding on the one hand whatever is frivolous in itself or false in its teachings, and on the other, whatever is tedious or unentertaining, it occupies a middle ground between the magazines exclusively devoted to light literature and those of a purely scientific character, and by making the graces of composition subservient to the inculcation of practical knowledge, it is calculated alike for pleasure and profit.

In point of embellishment the Young People's Book will not suffer by comparison with the costliest productions of the times.
The Mezzotint and Steel Plates it has furnished have all been prepared by artists of the greatest celebrity, and some of the former are universally admitted to surpass in appropriateness of design and elegance of execution, any others which have been published in this country. Those intended for the forthcoming volume are no less distinguished by fitness and beauty; and adding to these the NUMEROUS ENGRAVINGS ON WOOD which will also be given, it may be predicted with safety that the pictorial department will be such, as of itself will merit the most extended patronage.

The Young People's Book, though, as its name implies, principally designed for youth of both sexes, is adapted to all classes. Persons of every age who are competent to read understandingly may derive both information and amusement from its pages, and in every well ordered family circle it cannot fail to prove an acceptable and agreeable companion, through whose agency both mental recreation and mental discipline will be promoted. To enable every family, no matter how limited its pecuniary circumstances may be, to subscribe, the publisher has determined to reduce the price of the work, notwithstanding the new arrangements he has entered into will considerably augment the outlay he is compelled to make. For his compensation he relies on an enlarged subscription list, which he cannot permit himself to doubt he will immediately obtain.
The Young People's Book is published Monthly. Each number will contain an ample variety of original Reading Matter, a Mezzotint or Steel plate, and other Engravings. The price to single subscribers will be only $1 50 per annum, or four copies for $5, and ten copies for $10, payments to be made invariably in advance. The plates alone, if purchased separately, would cost treble the price of subscription.

Address, postage paid,
MORTON MICHAEEL,
PUBLISHER'S HALL,
101 Chesnut street, Philadelphia.

TERMS.
Single copy, subscription one year, $1 50
Four copies, 5 00
Ten copies, 10 00
To facilitate remittances where but a single person subscribes, the publisher will furnish one copy of the Young People's Book for one year, and the entire series of Arthur's admired and popular "Six Nights with the Washingtonians;" for $2.

To Invalids and heads of Families.
J. B. BEACH'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF HOREHOUND.

This Syrup is formed chemically, of such materials as to be admirably adapted; in a small quantity, to the following diseases, viz:
The primary stages of Consumption, and Coughs of every nature.
It gives strength to the debilitated, is superior in Typhus and Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, Head-ache, pains in the Breast, diseases of the Lungs, Stomach complaints, Summer complaints, Worms, for Children, &c.
Also:
A celebrated salve for the cure of Corns on the Toes, Feet, &c. &c.
Having paid much attention to the above, and often experienced their salutary effects myself, and witnessed the results of frequent experiments by others, I speak of them with perfect confidence: and being prepared only by myself, can guarantee them to contain no injurious substance whatever: being composed entirely of herbs.

JOB WORK
Neatly executed at this Office.

PIKE COUNTY HOUSE.

George Biddis,
Having taken the above stand in the town of Milford, recently kept by Ira Coburn, is well prepared to accommodate in a satisfactory manner those who may favor him with a call.

The Table
will be supplied with the best productions afforded by the market.

His Rooms and Beds are such as will, he hopes, prove satisfactory to all reasonable customers.

The Bar is, and will continue to be, furnished with a choice assortment of Liquors.

His Stables are large and commodious, and will be well stocked with Hay and Oats—indeed every attention which can promote the comfort and satisfaction of customers will be cheerfully bestowed.

His house is large and well calculated to accommodate Pleasure Parties.

With these advantages backed by some experience in the business and a determination to keep a good public house, he confidently expects a fair portion of public patronage.

Milford, August 4, 1842.

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, the Honorable WILLIAM JESSUP, President Judge of the 11th Judicial district of Pennsylvania, composed of the counties of Susquehanna, Wayne, Monroe and Pike, and Joseph Keller and John T. Bell, Esqs. Associate Judges of the courts of Common Pleas of the county of Monroe, and by virtue of their offices, Justices of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, and Court of General Quarter Sessions in and for the said county of Monroe, have issued their precept to me, commanding that a Court of Quarter Sessions and Common Pleas, and General Jail Delivery and court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, for the said county of Monroe, to be holden at Stroudsburg, on Tuesday the 6th day of September next, to continue one week.

NOTICE

Is therefore hereby given to the Coroner, the Justices of the Peace, and Constables of the said county of Monroe, that they be then and there with their rolls, records, inquisitions, examinations and other remembrances, to do those things which to their offices are appertaining, and also that those who are bound by recognizance to prosecute and give evidence against the prisoners that are or shall be in the Jail of the said county of Monroe, or against persons who stand charged with the commission of offences, to be then and there to prosecute or testify as shall be just.

Note.—It may be proper to remark, that the notes of nearly all the country banks are redeemed in specie on presentation at their counters; and that the cause of their depreciation in the city, is owing to a resolution of the city banks to receive on deposit the notes of those banks only which have effected an arrangement with a city bank to redeem their notes when presented. Those country banks therefore, which are quoted at par, have an agency in the city where their notes are paid in specie on demand.
