

JEFFERSONIAN REPUBLICAN

Stroudsburg, October 26, 1842.

Terms, $2.00 in advance; $2.25, half yearly; and $2.50 if not paid before the end of the year.

The Election in Pennsylvania. The result of the recent election in this State, clearly shows, that if our friends had been active in our strong-holds, we would have carried both branches of the Legislature by handsome majorities, and thus secured the election of a Whig U. S. Senator, in the place of James Buchanan, whose term of office expires on the 4th of March next.

Table showing election results by county: Senate (Whig 14, Loco 19), House (Whig 40, Loco 60), and Loco majority on joint-ballot (25).

Victory, thus, was within our grasp, but we let the opportunity for securing it pass by unimproved. If we are not greatly mistaken, we will have cause, long and deeply to deplore our supineness and negligence.

A Mail Robber Caught.

An individual of the name of Solomon Bachman, was arrested at Easton, one day last week, on the charge of having robbed the U. S. Mail, (which he lately carried between Cherryville and Bethlehem, in Northampton county) of several letters containing large sums of money.

The Weather.

The weather this fall has been uncommonly fine and pleasant. There has not been a season for many years past, during which there were as many delightful and charming days.

An Arrest.

Joe Smith, the great Mormon Prophet, has been arrested at Carthage, Missouri, and is to be taken to Illinois, on a requisition from the Governor of that State, to stand his trial for villainous conduct, alleged to have been committed by him, among his brethren and sisters in the faith, previous to his flight.

The Presidency.

A number of the most influential Loco Foco papers in South Carolina, have hoisted the name of John C. Calhoun, for President, in 1844, "not subject to the decision of a national Convention."

A squirrel hunt came off at Oneida castle, Oneida county, N. Y., on the 15th inst., with 17 hunters on each side, and at night they brought in the bodies of 2,550 squirrels, 20 crows, and 10 owls.

A Removal. It is rumoured, in Philadelphia, that John C. Montgomery, Esq., the able and efficient Post Master, of that City, (who was appointed by Gen. Harrison) is shortly to be removed, and Richard Vaux, a thorough-going loco-foco to be put in his place.

More Removals. During the past week some more Whigs have been removed from Clerkships, &c. in the Custom House, at Philadelphia. The traitor Tyler, has gone over to the locos body and soul.

A Consolation. The Editor of the Harrisburg Telegraph consoles himself with the reflection, that if Miller's prophecy, that the end of the world will take place next spring, turns out to be true, the people of the United States will be saved from two years of John Tyler's mal-administration!

Zoological Exhibition. Mr. William Hubble, & Co. will exhibit their rare and extensive collection of wild beasts, and birds, in this Borough, on Friday next. All who are fond of natural curiosities, will no doubt avail themselves of this opportunity of looking at the largest and finest collection of Animals, &c. in the United States.

Orders have been received at Carlisle from the War Department to abolish the military post at the barracks in that place.

The Buffalo Mercury says that the ague has been so severe in them parts, that a person afflicted with it actually shook the toe-nails off his finger ends.

Verdict Against the United States. United States vs. Asa Andrews, and George W. Heard and Joseph Farley, his sureties. This was a suit on a treasury transcript for a balance of account against Andrews, a collector of the port of Ipswich. The defendant was appointed by General Washington, and was removed in 1820, he then having a balance in his hands. In 1839, suit was commenced, and the defendant in effect proved various charges for office rent, postage, deputy collector's fees, &c.; but Judge Davis, in the District Court, held these charges to be matters of law, and did not allow them to go to the jury, and thereupon the jury gave a verdict of $1100 for the Government.

The Bedford (Pa.) Inquirer states that a driver, returning from the East, was robbed, a day or two since, on the Core Mountain, by a highwayman, who presented a pistol, and demanded his money. He had about $2000 in a belt round his person, and about $25 in his pocket book.

Mr. Andrew Balsey, a patriot of the Revolution, departed this life, in De Witt, Onondago county, N. Y., on the 4th inst., in the 88th year of his age.

Connecticut. Ninety towns in Connecticut stand as follows:--Whigs 46, Democrats 39, divided 6. Last year the same towns stood, Democrats, 48, Whigs, 34, divided, 8.

The governor of Maine has appointed Thursday, the 17th of November, as a day of Thanksgiving in that State.

WHAT FOLLOWS.--"The lion and the lamb shall lie down together, and a little child shall follow." Married in Freeport, Penn., Mr. Alfred Lamb to Miss Lucretia Lyon.

Squirrels, and a Sign of a Hard Winter.

The Detroit Advertiser says a squirrel hunt took place near that city last week, Thursday. The total killed was 3,360. Other papers notice like wholesale slaughters. The squirrels seem to abound this fall in unusual profusion all over the country.

SEIZURE OF CANNON FROM THE PATRIOTS.--On the 4th inst., Capt. Erastus Smith, deputy United States Marshal, seized three iron cannon and two carriages at Ohio city, which were found buried two feet under ground, and belonged to the patriots.

The loss of cotton, our correspondent says, is 50,000 bales. It is estimated that 15,000 barrels of turpentine have been consumed by the fire, besides a large quantity of produce of various other descriptions. We subjoin a list of the various sums the Insurance offices are said to have suffered by this calamity; but, of course, we cannot pledge ourselves for its accuracy.

Texas. By the arrival of the schooner Henry, Captain Grimes, 15 days from Lynnville, (Texas) we have received the following verbal news from the seat of war:--"Gen. She was arrested, and bound over to answer at the November court in the sum of $500.

Monroe Edwards. The New York Herald says,--"Yesterday morning as Col. Jones, the keeper of the City Prison, was surveying the cells of various prisoners, he was induced to examine that occupied by Col. Edwards. On taking down the bed which had been turned up endways towards the wall, the strap that held it was found to have been cut and spliced together with a slip noose at the end, and a hangman's knot prepared for use at short notice.
