NOTICE

TO SAW-MILL OWNERS, Or those who are about to build or repair.

The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he is duly authorized to sell the right of the Johnson Re-acting Water wheel, to the counties of Monroe and Pike, patented the 22d day of June, A. D. 1840.

The Johnson re-acting wheel is the best now in use to propel a saw mill; it excels any other wheel in the United States under a low water head;—under a head from 5 to 7 feet is sufficient to cut from 2 to 3000 feet in twelve hours of inch or any other boards with ease. The wheels require, under a 7 foot head, 140 inches of water and so in proportion to any other head. Under a 7 foot head, the Saw will make from 200 to 250 strokes per minute. The advantage which these wheels have over any other wheels is, that it requires but four posts to make the floor or bulk head; the wheels are hung on the crank shaft. Two wheels are what is required for a Saw mill, and the posts planked inside the same as a pen stock. I have built one of those mills this season, on the Roaring Brook, in Luzerne county, for Mr. S. P. Temple, under about a 7 foot head, which will cut from 3 to 4000 in twelve hours of inch boards;—therefore, I can recommend them as the best wheels now in operation. There are several more mills in that part, all under low heads, which answers the same purpose as that of Mr. Temple's. For further information, please call on the subscriber.

Fashionable Tailoring ESTABLISHMENT.

M. M. BURNETT.

Would respectfully inform the citizens of Stroudsburg and county generally, that he is still exerting himself for their accommodation at his stand, one door below the office of Wm. Davis, Esq. on Elizabeth street, and has now in his possession plates and diagrams of the Very Latest City Fashions; from which he is enabled to cut all kinds of gentlemen's wearing apparel in a manner that cannot fail to please those who may wish to dress in strict accordance with the prevailing modes. For others whose tastes may not incline to the latest fashions, or whose ages may suggest ideas of comfort rather than display, he trusts he is equally well prepared; having had the advantage of many years experience in the difficult, yet not unobtainable task of adapting his work to the wishes of many and various persons. He is prepared to supply orders with promptness and despatch. With his sincerest thanks for the patronage heretofore bestowed upon him, he respectfully solicits its continuance—determined to neglect no means of giving his customers full and ample satisfaction.

All kinds of cutting neatly executed at the shortest notice, and in the most fashionable style.

VICTORY!

WHO DOES NOT KNOW OF MR. LEIDY'S BLOOD PILLS? a component part of which is SARSAPARILLA.

The reputation of Dr. Leidy's Sarsaparilla Blood Pills is so well known, that comment upon their virtues is almost unnecessary. Suffice it to say they possess all the PURGATIVE AND PURIFYING properties that can be combined in the form of Pills.

NEWSPAPER PUFFING

is unnecessary to their success. Their efficacy, in one case, is a sure introduction and passport of them to a thousand.

FIVE YEARS

Employment of them throughout the United States, have made them as they deserve to be VICTORIOUS!

Whilst the Proprietors and Manufacturers of other Pills, have been endeavoring to humbug the people in various ways to introduce their Pills, publishing columns of matter and bolstering them up by

MADE, FALSE, LYING CERTIFICATES, and attributing to their Pills the powers of effecting every thing, barely excepting the RESTORATION OF THE DEAD TO LIFE.

Dr. LEIDY has allowed his Blood Pills to become known by their effects; thus establishing them a character that can never be taken from them, and which is proof incontrovertible of their qualities.

Most other Pills have gone out of use since their introduction; many have fallen into disrepute, and some are now altogether unknown; still a few hangers-on endeavor to gull the ignorant by plausible (though false) reasoning of the extraordinary powers their Pills possess; but the public are fully sensible of such imposition.

DR. N. B. LEIDY

is a regular Physician and Druggist, attested by Doctors Phisic, Chapman, Jackson, De-wees, Horner, Gibson, Coxe, Hare, Parrish, James, Robert, Adrain, L. L. D.; T. L. Biddle, Esq., Rev. W. H. Dalancy, &c. &c. and well knows the nature of the ingredients contained in his BLOOD PILLS, and knows too their adaptation in all cases where a purgative is required, or for purifying the Blood.

THERE IS NO RISK OR DANGER in employing them, they contain no Mercury—they do not produce inflammation of the Bowels—they do not produce disorganization of, nor do they injure the digestive functions—they do not produce the Piles—they do not produce irregularity of the Bowels, or costiveness, as do other pills; on the contrary, they will be found to obviate all the foregoing, besides being efficacious in all cases where a purgative may be necessary, and for purifying the Blood and Animal Fluids.

So many recommendations of them having been published from time to time, certificates from the North, South, East and West, editorial comments on their character, &c. &c. that it is deemed useless to say much more of them.

Ample directions, together with recommendations from Physicians and others, accompany each box of pills.

Price 25 cents per box.

They are prepared and sold, wholesale and retail, at DR. LEIDY'S HEALTH EMPORIUM, No. 191 North Second Street, below Vine st. (sign the Golden Eagle and Serpents.)

Also, sold at F. Klett, corner of 2d and Callowhill street. I. Gilbert & Co. 3d above Vine street. J. Smith & Co. 2d street next the Red Lion. Also, sold at Wm. Eastburn's store, Stroudsburg. Jan. 4, 1843.

AS USUAL—No sooner does one of Dr. Leidy's preparations become popular, in consequence of its success and efficacy, than it is counterfeited or imitated.

To prevent imposition, Dr. Leidy has now procured moulded bottles for his celebrated Tetter and Itch Ointment, with the words "Dr. Leidy's Tetter and Itch Ointment" blown in the glass, besides containing his written signature on a yellow label outside.

DR. LEIDY'S

has proved more efficacious than any other preparation for Tetter, Itch, Dry and Watery Pimples or Pustules, and diseases of the skin generally.

It has been employed in schools, factories and on board vessels carrying passengers, where children, as well as grown persons, contract diseases of the skin from their contagious nature, with the most unexampled success; certificates and recommendations have been heretofore published from them, and numerous others might be obtained for publication, but for the objection most persons have, to having their names published in connection with so disagreeable and loathsome affections. In no single instance has it ever been known to fail.

It has been used upon infants and by persons of all ages. It is perfectly safe, contains no mercury in its composition, and may be used under all circumstances. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Prepared only, and for sale, Wholesale and Retail, at N. B. Leidy's Health Emporium, No. 191 N. Second street, below Vine, (sign of the Golden Eagle and Serpents) Philadelphia.

Also, sold at Wm. Eastburn's Store Stroudsburg. Jan. 4, 1843.

WORMS! WORMS!!

If parents knew the value and efficacy of Dr. Leidy's Patent Vegetable Worm Tea, they never would be without it in their families, as children are subject at all times to Worms.

Dr. Leidy's Worm Tea is composed of vegetables altogether, and may be given to children of all ages. Directions accompany each paper or package.

Children suffer much, of times, from so many things being given them for worms, without any effect. Much medicine, given to children, has a tendency to destroy their general health, and they are more or less delicate ever after.

To avoid the necessity of giving medicine unnecessarily when you are certain your children have worms give them at first Dr. Leidy's Worm Tea. It is all that is necessary.

Reference might be made to several hundred parents in Philadelphia city and county, of the efficacy of Dr. Leidy's Worm Tea. Try it and you will be convinced.

Price 12-2 cents a small, and 25 cents a large package. Prepared only, and for sale, wholesale and retail, at Dr. Leidy's Health Emporium, No. 191 North Second street, below Vine, (sign of the Golden Eagle and Serpents), Philadelphia.

Also, sold at Wm. Eastburn's store, Stroudsburg. Jan. 4, 1843.

Stage Coach Incident.

An instance which proves that incidents in a stage-coach, produce or promote salutary impressions.

In the company, in the conveyance alluded to, was a young man of sociable temper, affable manners, and considerable information; his accent was barely sufficient to discover that English was not his native tongue; and a very slight peculiarity in pronouncing the th, ascertained him a Dutchman. He had early entered into the military life; had borne both a Dutch and a French commission; had travelled much; was master of different languages; evinced by his deportment that he was no stranger to the society of gentlemen. He had, however, in a high degree, a fault too common among military men, and too absurd to find an advocate among men of sense—he swore profanely and incessantly! While the horses were changing, a gentleman, who sat on the same seat in the coach with him, took him by the arm, and requested the favor of his company in a short walk. When they were so far retired as not to be overheard the former observed, "Although I have not the honor of your acquaintance, I know, sir, that your habits of feeling are those of a gentleman, and that nothing can be more repugnant to your wishes than giving unnecessary pain to any of your company." He started, and replied, "Most certainly, sir; I hope I have committed no offence of that sort." "You will pardon me for pointing out an instance in which you have not altogether avoided it."—"Sir," said the officer, "I shall be much your debtor for so friendly an act; for, upon honor, I cannot conjecture in what I have transgressed."—"If you, sir," said the former, "had a very dear friend, to whom you were under unspeakable obligations, should you not be deeply wounded by any disrespect to him; or even hearing his name introduced and used with a frequency of repetition, and a levity of air incompatible with the dignity of, or the regard due to, his character?"—"Undoubtedly, and I should not permit it; but I know not that I am chargeable with indecorum to any of your friends."—"Sir, my God is my best friend, to whom I am under unspeakable obligations! I think you must recollect that you have very frequently, since we commenced our journey, taken his name in vain. This has given to me and others excruciating pain!"—"Sir," answered the officer, with a very ingenuous emphasis, "I have done wrong! I confess the impropriety—I am ashamed of a practice which, I am sensible, has no excuse; but I have imperceptibly fallen into it; and I really swear without being conscious that I do so. I will endeavor to abstain from it in future; and, as you are next on the seat, I shall thank you to touch my elbow as often as I trespass." This was agreed upon: the fiern sounded, and the travellers resumed their places. In the space of four or five miles, the officer's elbow was joggled every few seconds; he always colored, but bowed and received the hint without the least symptom of displeasure; and, in a few miles more, he so mastered his propensity for swearing, that not one oath was heard from his lips during the rest, which was the greater part, of the journey.

An Aged Couple.

There now reside in Walton county, Florida, a man and his wife, whose united ages are two hundred and twenty-nine years. The old gentleman's name is Daniel Campbell. He was united to his present wife ninety-four years ago in the Isle of Sky, in Scotland. He emigrated to this country several years before the revolution, and was about fifty years old when it commenced—there was no neutrals then, and as Mr. Campbell had left his native country, in consequence of the political troubles of 1745, he was prepared to take part with the colonists against the House of Hanover. He served through nearly the whole revolutionary war, but although very poor, he has not been able to avail himself of the bounty or rather just remuneration which the pension laws have provided for the survivors of that glorious epoch, because before the passage of the act of 1832, he was, by extreme old age and mental infirmity, rendered incapable of making the declaration required by the law. He is now 117 and his wife 112 years old.

Kicking Cows.

"Hang that cow—how she kicks!" says the milk maid. Yes, that's the right way to treat her. Hang her. You've hit on the remedy; though you were not aware of it when you pronounced that awful sentence, "Hang that Cow." A writer in the Farmer's Cabinet has told the secret publicly. He says, merely place the patient (he should have said impatient) in a stable with a beam over her head, and fixing a running noose over her horns, throw the end over the beam, and pull away so as to raise her head pretty high in the air, but not so as to raise her legs from the ground. In this position she will not only be disabled from kicking, but will give down her milk without the least hesitation—not from spite or ill-will but because she can't help it.

Frightful Snake Story.

The following incident was related to us the other day, by one whose veracity is unquestioned, and who was an eye witness of the fact. It is more appalling than any we recollect to have ever read in the history of these reptiles.

Sometime last summer, the inhabitants of Manchester, Mississippi, gave a Barbecue which was attended by most of the fashion and beauty of the town and surrounding country. It happened that among the guests there was a young lady, Miss M. recently from one of the Eastern cities who was on a visit to her relations in the neighborhood of the town. Miss M. was a gay and extremely fashionable young lady, and withal possessed an uncommon share of spirit and courage; except in the matter of snakes—and of these she had so great a dread that she scarcely dared to walk any where except in the most frequented places, for fear of encountering them. Every effort was used but without avail, to rid her of her childish fears. They haunted her continually, until at last it became the settled conviction of her mind that she was destined to fall a victim to the fangs of a rattlesnake. The sequel will show how soon her terrible presentiment was fulfilled.

Towards the close of the day, while scores of fairy feet were keeping time in the dance to the music and the whole company were in the full tide of enjoyment, a scream was heard from Miss M. followed by the most agonizing cries for help. The crowd gathered round her instantly, and beheld her standing, the perfect image of despair, with her hands grasping a portion of her dress with the tenacity of a vice. It was sometime before she could be rendered sufficiently calm to tell the cause of her alarm, and then they gathered from her broken exclamations that she was grasping the head of a snake among the folds of her dress, and dreaded to let go her hold for fear of receiving the fatal blow! This intelligence caused many to shrink from her, but the most of the ladies to their honor be it told, remained with her, determined not to leave her in her direful extremity. They besought her not to relax her hold, as safety depended upon it, until some one could be found who had the courage to seize and remove the terrible animal. There were none of the ladies, however who had the courage to perform the act, and the condition of Miss M. was becoming more and more critical every moment. It was evident that her strength was failing very fast, and that she could not maintain her hold many minutes longer.

A hasty consultation among the calmest of the ladies was held, when it was determined that Dr. Tisan who was present should be called to their assistance. He was quickly on the spot, and being a man of uncommon courage, he was not many moments within the circle of the weeping and half-fainting females until he had caught the tail of the snake, and wound it firmly around his hand to make sure of his hold. He then told Miss M. that she must let go at the moment he jerked it away and to make the act as instantaneous as possible he told her that he would pronounce the words one, two, three, and that at the moment he pronounced the last word she must let go her hold, and he doubted not that he could withdraw the snake before it could have time to strike. All stood in breathless horror, awaiting the act of life or death, and at the moment the word three was pronounced, the Dr. jerked out the largest and most diabolical looking bastard that was ever seen in Mississippi. The whole affair was at once explained. The fastening of the machine had become loose during the dancing, and it had shifted its position in such a way that it dangled about the ladies' limbs, and induced the belief that it was a snake with an enormous head.

The Doctor fell right down in his tracks, and fainted—he did—Miss Jour.

STRAW! STRAW!!—At a camp meeting held somewhere in Lower Snake county, Tennessee, some time since, a preacher of the Maw worm kind was holding forth and had contrived so to work upon the feelings of his auditory that the straw on the ground inside of the altar was completely covered with mourners. Perceiving that there were many others present ready to cast themselves down who refrained from so doing solely from the lack of straw to lie upon, he cried out in the midst of his exhortation; "Straw! Straw! we want more straw here. Brother Popkins, for the Lord's sake send up to your house and get some more straw! Forty-five souls lost for want of straw!"

A brother editor of the South speaking of what he intended to do on Thanksgiving-day says, "we shall luxuriate over our dinner until about four o'clock, when we shall go out and slide on a smooth plank for half an hour 'teter,' for another half hour, and then pitch cents until dark. In the evening we shall 'go a court' ing." This editor must have migrated from 'down East.' No native of the South could have formed such a beau ideal of a happy Thanksgiving.
