

JEFFERSONIAN REPUBLICAN

Stroudsburg, April 19, 1843.

Terms, $2.00 in advance; $2.25, half yearly; and $2.50 if not paid before the end of the year.

Specie Payments.

We are gratified in being able to announce that the Bank of Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia, commenced the payment of gold and silver for its notes, and also resumed its regular business, on Monday last. For many years this institution was looked upon as one of the best and safest in the country, and enjoyed the utmost confidence of the community. Its resuscitation therefore will be hailed with joy by every one. The difficulties under which it has been laboring, were brought upon it mainly in consequence of the efforts it made to sustain the U. States and Girard Banks in their extremities. We hope it may go on again, as of old, rendering itself useful to the community in which it is located.

More Resumption.

The Western papers announce that the Erie and Lewistown Banks, have begun to redeem their "promise to pay" notes in specie. These two Banks were heretofore considered among the worst in the Commonwealth and their paper was held at a ruinous discount. Their resumption must therefore be a great relief and benefit to the people, as a large number of their notes are in circulation.

High Water.

The rain which commenced falling on Thursday afternoon last, produced an uncommonly large freshet in our Creeks and Rivers. The Pocono, Brodhead's and M'Michaels' Creeks, were very much swollen above their usual height. The Delaware, on Monday was twenty-three feet above low water mark. We are informed that it had overflowed the Delaware Canal, and doubtless injured it very much. This is much to be regretted. Both on account of the expense of the state to repair it, and the inconvenience and delay it will cause our merchants and traders who expected to receive their spring goods, and to ship their produce by way of it.

The Legislature.

This body, in all probability, ended its existence yesterday. If we were called upon to sum up its qualities, good, bad, or indifferent, we would say, that it was the most worthless and inefficient that ever disgraced our Commonwealth. Without firmness enough to maintain its own dignity, or honesty sufficient to preserve that of the State. We hope the people will never have the misfortune to elect another such a set of Representatives.

The State Debt.

The Legislature has adjourned without making provision for the payment of the interest on the State Debt. We are already back two half-yearly instalments, and on the 1st of August another will fall due. If things are suffered to go on in this way for a few years, the works themselves, if sold, would not yield sufficient to pay the arrears of interest. The lethargy which now prevails among the people, on the subject of this debt, must speedily be overcome, or woe unto us of Pennsylvania!

Horrible Murder.

By the Harrisburg papers of Saturday last, we learn that a most diabolical murder was perpetrated, on the day previous, between 10 and 11 o'clock, about three miles from that place, in Susquehanna township, Dauphin County, upon two aged, respectable, and inoffensive persons, John Pottimer, sen. and wife, each of whom were over sixty years of age. It is supposed that the murderers are two Irishmen, who were seen in the neighborhood a short time previous. After the perpetration of the awful deed, the murderers robbed the house of from $16 to 20 in Relief Notes. A reward of $500 is offered for their apprehension by the son of the murdered persons. We have later news, that the suspected Irishmen were arrested on Friday afternoon, and taken before a Justice of the Peace for examination. They were discharged, however, for want of sufficient evidence to commit them for trial.

Judge Banks.

We learn, by a passenger from Easton, that Judge Banks has been indisposed, and was unable to go to Easton at the commencement of the Court on Monday. His health, however, is improving, and he is expected to be at his post the latter part of this week.

The Elections.

The annual election in Connecticut, for State Officers, took place on Monday the 3d inst. and resulted in the choice of a majority of Locos to the Legislature. For Governor and Lieutenant Governor, the loco loco candidates also ran ahead, but not having a majority of all the votes cast, there is no choice for those offices by the people. The Legislature must therefore fill them. There were also four Congressmen elected, all of whom are locos. The abolitionists ran a separate ticket, and the Tylermen joined in with the locos.

In Rhode Island, the election took place on Wednesday the 5th inst. It was the first one under the new Constitution, and both parties exerted themselves to the utmost to carry the day. The result was a triumphant Whig victory. They elected their Governor by over 1700 majority, and secured more than three fourths of both branches of the Legislature. This is truly gratifying, and gives the death-blow to the hopes of Dorr, and his deluded followers. Peace, order, and tranquility are once more restored to "little Rhoda."

The Charter election in the City of New York, was held yesterday a-week, and resulted in the re-election of Mayor Morris, by a majority rising 5000 votes. The City Council are largely loco loco. The charges of fraud, at the polls, are wholesale; and a thorough investigation is spoken of. Whilst the Whig vote is about the same as heretofore, the loco loco vote has increased four thousand seven hundred and twenty-four!!! After a fair and honest election, the defeated party should submit with cheerfulness, but we might as well have no elections at all, if fraud, force, and illegal voting are to decide them.

John Tyler's Treachery.

We are daily witnessing new evidences of John Tyler's treachery and bad faith to the friends who exerted themselves to secure his election. All feelings of uprightness and gratitude seem to have been swept from his bosom, and he appears ambitious of showing himself to the world, not only as an unprincipled traitor, but as a man who is guilty of the blackest ingratitude. The few offices which he deigned to bestow upon his old friends, after his elevation, he is now clearing as with the besom of destruction, and filling them with supple fools, who flatter and pay him that adoration, which freemen would blush to yield, and which a patriot would scorn to receive. A few weeks since it was our painful task to announce the removal of old Gen. Van Rensselaer, the gallant hero of Queenstown Heights, as Post Master, at Albany, N. York, without any cause except that he refused to subscribe for one hundred numbers of a Tyler paper. It is our duty now, to state that he has given notice to Mr. Taylor, Post Master at Cincinnati, and a son-in-law of Gen. Harrison, that he will hereafter dispense with his services, they being no longer required. Our indignation is too great for comment, and we leave John Tyler, therefore, to the contemplation of his own infamy.

Melancholy.

We have just been informed that Mr. Christian Brown, a highly respectable citizen of Lower Nazareth township, Northampton county, committed suicide, on Monday last, whilst in a deranged state of mind, by hanging himself.

Delaware Canal.

The Bill, for the sale of the Delaware Division of the Pennsylvania Canal, has become a law. The price to be paid for it, in State Stock, is fixed at $1,800,000. It is the general impression that some of the holders of our stock will form themselves into a company, and undertake its management. In proper hands, we have no doubt, it would yield a handsome income.

Whig Victory.

It is stated that, in Monroe County, Tenn., at the last election, the Loco Focos had four majority. Since that time, five persons who voted the Loco ticket have been elected to the State Penitentiary; and one is about to be hung for murder. The county may now be set down as a Whig county.

Hard Times.

At a recent Boston wedding the bride wore jewels worth $10,000, a lace veil worth $1,200, and the whole expense of the affair was $15,000. How scarce money is!

New Counterfeit.

Western Bank of Philadelphia, Philad.—10s, letter D., pay W. H. Stoeber, August 1, 1842, G. M. Troutman, Cash., Jos. Patterson, Pres. The signature of the Cashier is a good imitation of some of Mr. Troutman's—that of the President is rather stiff. The curl of the "T" in the word Ten in the bad note, almost touches the flowers around the figure of the female, while in the genuine it is nearly 1-8 of an inch from it. The engraving generally is too dark and heavy.—Bick Rep.

Marrying a Wife's Sister.

The question "does the word of God forbid a man to marry his deceased wife's sister?" was discussed last week at the regular meeting of the Classis of New Brunswick, it having been referred by the General Synod of the Dutch Church to several Classis for their opinion. In the opinion of the Classis of N. Brunswick, "the word of God does not prohibit the marriage of a deceased wife's sister, and the canon of the Dutch Church assuming the contrary out to be repealed." This is a decision of great importance, as the subject has given rise to much contention, and repeated conflicts of sentiment and practice.

Wonderful Sight Seen.

A Cincinnati paper contains a wonderful account of a phenomenon which was observed in the heavens on the evening of the 31st ult. by the pilot and captain of the steamboat William Penn. As he was steering the boat, he was aroused by the sudden appearance of a light which illuminated the whole heavens, and which so blinded him that he could see nothing. Notwithstanding this visual obscuration, he distinctly saw the "outlines of a serpent in the sky," which cut all sorts of pranks in the heavens, and twisted its tail about in manner agonizing to behold. It is difficult to say which is the most wonderful, the tail of the snake or the tale of the pilot.

A Singular Story.

A St. Louis paper states that some time since a young man who was quite blind, and who had been so for more than six months, was taken to Dr. Vanzant, of that city, who has become somewhat celebrated for his skill in curing diseases of the eye. The doctor, after a short examination, stated that the patient had not shed two of his upper teeth, which was the sole cause of his blindness. Upon extracting the teeth, the sight was immediately restored.

General Jackson's Fine.

On the 29th ult., in the Louisiana House of Representatives, that body finally disposed of the report and resolutions touching the return of the money paid by General Jackson, as a fine for contempt of Court. The Legislature declared its intention to refund the money out of the State treasury, if Congress fail to pay it at the next session.

The wheat crop in Delaware county, Pa., is spoken of as having rooted well.

A bill introduced by Gen. Downs, into the Louisiana Legislature, to remove the seat of government from New Orleans to Baton Rouge, passed the Senate on the 31st ult. by a vote of 8 to 5.

The N. Y. Aurora states that a lady, the other day, thinking she heard mysterious noises in the room, nay, about her very person, instituted a strict inquiry, and at length discovered the cause of her annoyance to be seven young mice, who were occupying a comfortable nest in her bustle.

Another Absconding Defaulter.

Much sensation was produced in New York yesterday by the non-arrival of Jacob Shipman, the money express man between that city and Philadelphia. He left Philadelphia in the 5 o'clock train of Wednesday evening and was not seen afterwards. The Journal of Commerce says:

When the cars arrived here, there was one ticket not accounted for, which is supposed to have been his. Quite a number of letters, forwarded by him, several of them containing bank bills, were received by the mail of Thursday from Philadelphia, so that they must have gone back from Trenton to Philadelphia by the train of Wednesday evening from New York.

The supposition accordingly was that he was abducted and murdered, until the arrival of the cars last night, by which it was ascertained that he is on his way to Texas. The Tribune says—

He left Philadelphia, as already stated, at 5 o'clock Thursday evening; and on reaching Trenton, left the cars, and going to a livery stable, told the keeper (who of course knew him well and suspected nothing) that he had forgotten a very valuable package and must return to Philadelphia immediately. He got a horse and vehicle and arrived in time to take the 12 o'clock train for Pittsburgh. But as he stepped into the cars he saw the President of the Mechanic's Bank at Philadelphia, who said at once, "Why, Shipman, where are you going at this time of night?" He carelessly answered that he wished to take a ride; but left the cars and waited for the train that left at 8 o'clock on Wednesday morning. He entered his name at the office as R. Johnson, and from his perfect acquaintance with the route and facilities for traveling, will undoubtedly be able to reach Texas some days in advance of anybody that might undertake pursuit. On Tuesday he took from this city about $20,000 in French gold, with instructions to deposit it in the Mint at Philadelphia. Instead of doing this, he exchanged it for Treasury Notes, with which he could of course more conveniently travel. He has left a wife and four children in Philadelphia, and the amount of money with which he has eloped, is variously estimated at from $75,000 to $130,000.

At this rate the number of disbelievers in innate and universal depravity must rapidly decrease. P. S. The Phila. papers of this morning say he has been traced as far as Lancaster. He has looked badly for some days.

A Challenge.

Mr. Alvan Clarke, of Charleston, the inventor of the false muzzled rifle, offers a bet of $100 to $50, that he will shoot one of his improved rifle ten shots, at two hundred yards, against any rifle of common construction, in the hands of the most skilful marksman, that can be found in the world. One of his pistols, with a twelve inch barrel, placed twenty-four successive shots within the space of 10 by 24 inches, at the distance of 200 yards.

Manufactures at Cincinnati.

There are 10,647 workmen employed in the various branches of manufactures in Cincinnati, Ohio, and the annual value of their productions is estimated at $17,442,676.
