Meeting of the Democracy of Monroe County.

Pursuant to previous notice, the Democrats of the county of Monroe met at the court house, in the borough of Stroupsburg, on Thursday evening, 11th May, 1843.

On motion, MORRIS D. ROBESON was called to the Chair, and Adam Overfield, Elihu Postens and Simon Schoonover, Esqrs. appointed Vice Presidents, and Stroud Reas and James Place, Secretaries.

On motion, a committee of nine, consisting of the following named gentlemen, James K. Stroud, Esq., Francis J. Smith, Esq., Philip Hoffman, Esq., J. Edward Hoodmacher, Peter S. Altomose, Esq., Daniel Price, M. Place, John D. Witt and Jasper Vliet, were appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of this meeting, who retired and reported the following, which were adopted en masse.

Resolved, That the Democracy of the county of Monroe, has been long known and tried, and has never yet been wanting in a large majority in favor of the people's candidates, and that we will not now be found arrayed against a State Administration of our own choice, and a Governor whose principles and course of conduct we highly approve.

Resolved, That any political meeting in this county, holding sentiments differing from these, cannot be of the main body of the Democratic party, but must be composed of shreds of parties, aided by Dictators from other counties, to whose double-dealing the Democracy of Monroe are strangers, and from whose principles and opinions we most determinedly turn away.

Resolved, That we do not approve of the National Administration under John Tyler, and hope to see a faithful, true-hearted Democrat of the old-fashioned school and principles, selected as a candidate for the Presidency, to whom we will give our undivided support.

Resolved, That we entirely approve of the State Administration under our excellent Chief Magistrate, David R. Porter, the man of our choice, and whose faithful services and determined opposition to dictation from the unprincipled, and whose prudence and economy in the administration of the affairs of State, demands and receives our unqualified commendation.

Resolved, That the only two vetoes by the Governor during the last session of the Legislature, the first of the Congressional District bill, and the other of the act authorizing the Legislature to elect the Canal Commissioners, were measures of wisdom and justice. The first bill being unequal and unjust in its provisions, and the latter placing power in the Legislature not allowed them by the constitution, and which had once been given them and immediately withdrawn, and more particularly because the majority of the late Legislature was not a body of men in whom the Democracy could place confidence, or to whose hands they could commit unusual powers and privileges.

Resolved, That we highly approve of the course pursued by our Representatives, Messrs. Joseph Kerr and Asa Facker, and of our Senator Luther Kidder, and believe that they have faithfully represented the voice of their constituents and have well maintained the best interests of the commonwealth—though they were sometimes in the minority, on account of having been deserted by those who should have stood by them, some of whom betrayed their constituents by so deserting them.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Monroe is capable of taking care of themselves, and that we entirely decline and refuse the dictation of renegade Democrats, office-hunters, and all others from adjoining counties. That the address of Speaker Wright recently made at this place, contained sentiments which we neither approve nor believe, and recommend to that gentleman to confine his exertions hereafter to his own constituents, and endeavor to settle with them for deserting his party and principles.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the officers and published.

(Signed by the Officers.)

Shipman, who absconded some time ago, with a large amount of funds in his possession belonging to the banks and brokers, has been arrested in Illinois. He returned to Philadelphia of his own accord, and gave up what money he had. No officer came with him.
