Foreign Correspondence.

On our first page will be found the first of a series of letters, which we shall take great pleasure in laving before our readers, as fast as they appear Maxwell, Esq. of Easton, who is now making the tour of Europe. The letter given to-day, is deeply interesting, and will be read with satisfaction by every one.

Not Honored.

Shortly after Captain Tyler's political pilgrimage to the East, a ri liculous rumor was set affoat by States, had conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws, (L. L. D.) upon that individual. It was thought strange at the time that an old and rehonors so cheap, and confer them upon men so un- at Albany, N. Y. deserving as John Tyler; and hence the venerable President of the University, in order to disabuse the public mind upon the subject, has thought proper to contradict the absurd statement. Captain Tyler, therefore, is not an L. L. D. but a cotemporary thinks every body should address him with an A. S. S.

Louisiana.

An election for four members of Congress took place in this State, on Monday the 3rd inst. The turn out of voters was uncommonly small, and the question at issue was who should give the greatest protection to sugar planters. The locos bid the highest, and were elected.

Great Meeting.

Lancaster, on Saturday next. The call alone is course." signed by 2000 voters. Judge Conrad, of Phila delpnia, and other distinguished gentlemen, will be present and address the assembled multitude.

An Acceptable Dinner.

A wealthy gentleman, residing in Princeton, New Jersey, invited his four children, one son and three daughters, to a dinner on the 4th of July, avoid the fees of the lawyer, and the sheriff, and deposited $200,000, as a present, under the plate of each one. The Tribune gives the name present existence at least ten years of active July. A more important canvass is of the gentleman, which is Mr. John Potter, father- life. 1.1-law of Capt. Robert F. Stockton, of the U.S. Navy, whose wife was one of the guests on the ncent gifts, Mr. Potter has retained an ample for- II-slavery speech of O'Connell, tune for himself.

County Law." We shall attend to these fellows

The above is from the Wayne County Herald of last week, a paper edited by a fellow of the with the vain idea that he will some day or other be a great man. As he is in the habit of often speaking of his cotemporaries in the same courteous manner, we dont know whether to take his remarks as a compliment or otherwise. We shall, therefore wait for the "attending to" which he promises us "next week,"-after which we will determine whether he is worth "attending to," or week we amused ourselves with putting out some set-lines in Brodhead's Creek, and had the good luck to catch two snapping turtles. They were a royal pair, and gladdened our very eyes as we looked upon them, and thought of the capital soup they would enable us to serve up for ourselves and was stolen, the thief must have been an old offender, for any one new in crime could not find it in regularly touch. As it looked like rain and has heart to rob a poor printer of his anticipated repast. If it absquatulated, perhaps john i. allen, for a few minutes, and ran "the Swallow" whether it has made its appearance all the way up much to her delight and relief. It should be Gram Stroudsburgh, at Honesdale. Mr. john is set down in his honor; and long may devotion very snappish himself, and therefore a fellow feel- to women be, as it certainly is now, a national Ing may have drawn it to lum.

Saratoga.

This world-renowned watering place is now in the full tide of summer operations. During the past week nearly three thousand persons arrived there, 1038 by rail road, 1110 by stages, and over 800 by private conveyances. The Saratoga Sentinel says that the place never presented greater das and others, and the late Judge attractions than it does at present. Whoever wants to take a fashionable trip, let them go there; -but whoever wants to take a jaunt of real pleasure let them come to Stroudsburgh, and they will be gratified.

The Leaves of the Wild Cherry tree poisonous,

It ought to be known that the leaves of the Wild Cherry, (Prunus Virginianis) are poison ous to cattle. On Saturday evening the 22d in the Easton Whig, in which they will be origi- inst, two cows in Stroudsburg, died in 15 pally published. They are written by Henry D. minutes after eating a few of the wilted leaves, which had been thrown into a lane by the boys. They are supposed to owe their poisonous property to a peculiar proximate element of some vegetables, known by the name of Prussic acid; which, when concentrated, is one of the most virulent poisons in existence. As cattle are fond of the leaves of the Wild Cherry, and the New York Sun, that Harvard University, the devour them with avidity when within their the plaintiffs. oldest seat of learning and science in the United reach, farmers and others should take special care to keep them out of their way.

DIED,

youngest son of William and Hannah Hallock, aged 2 months and 5 days.

"The morning flow'rs display their sweets, And gay their silken leaves unfold, As careless of the coontide heats, As fearless of the evening cold.

Nipt by the wind's untimely blast, Parch'd by the Sun's directer ray, The momentary glories waste, The short-liv'd beauties die away.

So blooms the human face divine, When youth its path of beauty shows: Fairer than Spring the the colors shine, And sweeter than the virgin-rose.

Or worn by slowly-rolling years, Or broke by sickness in a day, The fading glory disappears-Dwindles, decays, and dies away.

Yet these, new rising from the tomb, With lustre brighter far shall shine, Revive with ever-during bloom. Sale from diseases and d'cline.

Let sickness blast, let death devour, If Heav'n must recompense our pains: Perish the grass, and fade the flow'r, If firm the word of God remains." COMMUNICATED.
