HIS ROOMS AND BEDS are such, as will, he hopes, prove satisfactory to all reasonable customers.

THE BAR is, and will continue to be, furnished with a choice assortment of Liquors.

THE STABLING is new and extensive and surpassed by none in the country for comfort and convenience.

With these advantages backed by some experience in the business and a determination to keep a good public house, he confidently expects a fair portion of public patronage. Permanent boarders will find a quiet home and be satisfactorily accommodated at moderate prices.

Stroudsburch, Sept. 28, 1843.

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, the Honorable WILLIAM JESSUP, President Judge of the 11th Judicial district of Pennsylvania, composed of the counties of Susquehanna, Wayne, Monroe and Pike, and Joseph Keller and ——— Esqs. Associate Judges of the courts of Common Pleas of the County of Monroe, and by virtue of their offices, Justices of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, and Court of General Quarter Sessions in and for the said county of Monroe, have issued their precept to me, commanding that a Court of Quarter Sessions and Common Pleas, and General Jail Delivery and court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, for the county of Monroe, to be holden at Stroudsburch, on Tuesday, the 12th day of December next, to continue one week.

NOTICE

It is therefore hereby given to the Coroner, the Justices of the Peace, and Constables of the said county of Monroe, that they be then and there with their rolls, records, inquisitions, examinations and other remembrances, to do those things which to their offices are appertaining, and also that those who are bound by recognizance to prosecute and give evidence against the prisoners that are or shall be in the Jail of the said county of Monroe, or against persons who stand charged with the commission of offences, to be then and there to prosecute or testify as shall be just. OLIS B. GORDON, Sheriff. (God save the Commonwealth.) Sheriff's Office, Stroudsburch, Nov. 9, 1843.
