

Judicial Decision in Illinois.

The Alton Telegraph of the 22d ult. has the following: "During the present term of Madison circuit court, now in session, his honor Judge Shields, decided upon an exception taken to a commissioner's report by the complainant, that the two-thirds or valuation law of our State does not apply to the foreclosure of a mortgage in chancery: thus following the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Kinzie vs. Bronson. The case decided by our circuit court compelled the commissioners to make a deed to the complainant who had made a bid for the mortgaged premises, at a sum much less than that of which the property, at two-thirds its appraised value, came; and that the redemption laws of the State were inoperative in the foreclosures of a mortgage in chancery."

DISEASED POTATOES.—A friend has called to inform us that the prevailing disease in potatoes may be checked, by spreading them out and drying them thoroughly, and then laying them in wheat or buckwheat chaff.—Princeton Whig.

A quaint writer of sentences says:—"I have seen women so delicate that they were afraid to ride, for fear the horse might run away—afraid to sail for fear the boat might upset—afraid to walk for fear the dew might fall; but I never saw one afraid to be married!"

Wheat.

It is said that there will be about 118,000,000 bushels of wheat over and above the quantity necessary for home consumption this year. The surplus in the four states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan, will, it is said, be about 41,000,000. These estimates appear almost incredible. But taking the moiety as the true consumption, there will be an enormous surplus. Fifty-nine millions of bushels of wheat reduced to flour, at five bushels to the barrel, would produce 11,800,000 barrels; which at $4 would give the sum of $47,200,000. The exports of flour have in no year exceeded $17,000,000. From this it is evident that if our surplus flour is to find a foreign market, it must be at a reduced price. The price cannot be kept up by monopoly with such an immense surplus in the country.

How to wash Calicoes.

Somebody says—"Put in a small quantity of salt—say a table-spoonful to a common sized tub of suds—and the colours of printed calicoes will remain as bright as before they were washed."

Tea in North Carolina.

The Richmond Enquirer publishes an extract from a letter from Newhill Puckett, at Lynessville, Granville county, N. Carolina:—"I have procured the seed of the Chinese Tea, so much used in America. It is genuine, matures perfectly well in our climate, and can be raised in abundance with very little trouble.—The vast amount of money that must be laid out for tea every year, induces me to address you at this time. My wish is to put it in circulation, through the medium of some newspaper in Virginia." The Enquirer adds: Mr. P. then goes on to say, that a stock of seed will be delivered to subscribers, next fall or winter, at $5, sent personally to them—if by mail, at their own risk and expense, $2.

MURDER!

The Easton Sentinel of the 14th inst. says: "Our usually peaceful borough was on yesterday morning thrown into quite a stir, by the report that a murder had been committed, immediately across the Lehigh, on the person of John Seidler or Seidlin, by Frederick Hess, a shoemaker, residing there. A Coroner's inquest was called, and after an examination of the dead body by Doctors Field and Siemon, and the hearing of several witnesses, they reported that he came to his death by blows inflicted on the head by the accused. Hess, was arrested, and after an examination before Justice Weygandt, was committed, to stand his trial at the next Court of Oyer and Terminer."

GREAT NATIONAL WORK.

TAPPAN & DENNETT, No. 114 Washington street, Boston, propose to publish, by subscription, in fourteen monthly numbers, at the low price of twenty-five cents each number, the

LIFE OF WASHINGTON,

BY JARED SPARKS.

Each number to contain between forty and fifty pages, and be embellished with the following fine Steel and Copperplate Engravings, viz:

- 1 Portrait of Washington at 40, by Peale.
2 do Mrs Washington at 26, by Wollaston.
3 View of Mount Vernon.
4 Battle of Braddock's defeat.
5 Head Quarters at Cambridge.
6 Plan of Boston and environs.
7 Head Quarters at Morristown.
8 Head Quarters at Newburg.
9 Plan of Farms at Mount Vernon.
10 Battle of Brandywine.
11 Portrait of Washington, by Stewart.
12 Encampment at Valley Forge.
13 Battle of Germantown.
14 Fac Similie of Washington's hand-writing.

The Portraits were copied from the original paintings. The plans, sketches, and other engravings, have been compiled from the best drawings, as well English and French as American. Special aid was derived from a series of Manuscript drawings in the possession of Gen. La Fayette, which are executed with scientific accuracy and beauty.

The well known ability of the author, the abundant means which he possessed, viz: more than two hundred folio volumes of Original manuscripts, purchased by Congress, ten years researches in the public offices in London, Paris, Washington, and all the States which formed the confederacy during the Revolution, as well as the access he has gained to valuable private papers in different parts of the country—have brought into his hands a mass of materials, original and important in their character, which we trust will be found to have contributed essential aid in enabling him to execute with more accuracy and completeness his main purpose, and thus to have compensated in some degree for the time and labor they have cost. Its publication has not only involved extended and laborious research on the part of the editor, but great pecuniary responsibilities on the part of the publishers.

The price affixed to this work is less, when the exertion is considered, than that of any other publication in Europe or America. The investment and expenditures connected with this undertaking are much greater than usually attended such publications, and it will be apparent that the publishers must rely on an extensive sale for their remuneration.

The engravings alone are thought by many to be worth the cost of the whole work. To non-subscribers the price will be enhanced.

Many testimonials of unqualified approbation might be added, by gentlemen who have examined the work, but the publishers conceive it to be unnecessary. Letters have been received from many distinguished persons concurring in the opinion that the work is, in every respect, richly deserving of public patronage.

Among the many who have given the work the aid of their subscription and influence, are the following gentlemen, viz: Hons. John Q Adams, Maria Van Buren, Jacob Burnett of Ohio, Josiah Quincy, John Pickering, Francis Wayland, D. D., Rev. Moses Stewart, Robert G. Shaw, esq., Henry Lee, esq., Right Rev Bishop Brownell, Isaac C. Bates, Horace Everett of Vt., S Longfellow of Maine, J Sewell Jones of N. C., John Sergeant of Pa., Levi Lincoln, S Van Rensselaer of N. Y., Wm L. Marcy, W Pope of Kentucky, L W Tazewell of Va., Daniel Webster, Abbot Lawrence, Joseph Story, Edward Everett, Charles Jackson, Lemuel Shaw, Samuel T Armstrong, W B Calhoun, John C. Warren, M D, James Jackson, M D, Gov John Davis, Chapman Johnson of Va.

Active and trustworthy men can find employment in procuring subscribers for the above work.

Letters addressed to the Publishers post paid, with applications for agencies, orders, will meet with prompt attention.

Postmasters and others who obtain subscriptions, and become responsible for five copies, shall receive a sixth copy gratis, or for ten subscribers, two copies, and the same rate for more. They will please let the publishers know how many copies are subscribed for, and how they shall be forwarded.

Publishers of Newspapers who will insert the above six weeks and forward to Tappan & Dennett one number of their paper, shall receive a copy of the work for so doing.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK,

EDITED BY MRS. SARAH J. HALE,

Has now reached its twenty-eighth Volume, and is the oldest and leading Periodical in the United States. It has never changed Proprietors. It is a Magazine of LITERATURE, FASHION, AND THE FINE ARTS, With the best list of contributors in the country, and the largest circulation: It contains Mezzotint and Line Engravings; Fancy Works of Art and Utility; The Genuine Coloured Fashions; Portraits of Distinguished Characters, (by artists of the first class); and Views of the most Celebrated Places in the United States.

In order to give additional variety, the Publisher has engaged the services of eminent literary gentlemen, familiarly connected with the Literature of Continental Europe, who will furnish Translations from the Literature of France, Germany, Italy, Spain, Sweden and Denmark.

It has been found impossible by contemporaries to compete with the gigantic strides of the Lady's Book, and they have gradually given up the attempt in despair.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, is emphatically a FAMILY BOOK, and can be read aloud to the family circle. It is also an American Book, and the writings of those Americans who defend, and attempt to sully the feats of arms of our great heroes, are not admitted in the work. Constant novelty, consistent with the character of the work, will ever be the effort of the proprietor.
