M., at the public house of Stroud J. Hollashead, in Stroudsburg, then and there all persons interested, are required to present their claims, or be debarred from coming in for a share of said assets.

L. M. BURSON, Auditor. February 29, 1844.

THE COLUMBIAN Lady's and Gentleman's Magazine.

EDITED BY JOHN INMAN, And filled with Contributions from the most eminent and accomplished writers of the country.

The motives which have led to the commencement of this undertaking may be briefly stated. It is believed by the proprietor that there is in the United States an immense provision of literary ability, for which as yet there is no adequate encouragement, or field of display; that besides the numbers of clever and successful writers, whose productions are weekly, and monthly, and annually read with delight by thousands, there are yet greater numbers constantly arriving at maturity of power, who have only to appear on the stage of publication to receive a brilliant award of fame; and that the powers of those whose names are already pronounced with respect by lips of wisest censure, are capable of more and still higher exertion than has yet been called forth. It is believed, too, that the demand for literary production in this country, especially in the periodical channel, exceeds the supply in a very large proportion, and that new supplies have only to be presented of the right quality, and in the right way, to ensure a hearty welcome and profitable reception. No doubt is entertained of the American mind's ability to sustain itself—certainly on its own ground, if not abroad—against all the competition that the intellect of other lands can bring to the encounter; and full assurance is felt that among the millions of American readers there can be, and is, a cordial welcome for all that American writers can produce of excellent and interesting.

From these premises it is undoubtedly inferred, that there is abundant room for another Magazine, notwithstanding the merit and success of those already in being; that there can be no lack of ability to fill its pages acceptably, within the reach of capital and liberal enterprise; and that such a periodical will not fail to be greeted as a welcome visitor by thousands upon thousands, who as yet have done little or nothing toward the support and development of American periodical literature.

Another and strong motive has been the feeling that New York, the first city of the Union, should be the home of a periodical owning no superior in either merit or success.

The Columbian Magazine will be published on the first day of every month. Its mechanical arrangements will comprise the best of paper, type, and workmanship, that money can procure.

Its contributors will be sought for amongst the ablest and most popular writers in the country; and no efforts will be spared to secure the aid of the most distinguished, such as

John L. Stephens, W. C. Bryant, J. F. Cooper, J. K. Paulding, F. G. Halleck, N. P. Willis, W. H. Herbert, Nathaniel Hawthorne, H. T. Tucker, H. W. Longfellow, J. R. Chandler, C. F. Hoffman, T. C. Grattan, T. S. Arthur, J. C. Neal, H. F. Harrington, W. G. Simms, H. H. Weld, Epes Sargent, John Neal, Theodore S. Fay, Park Benjamin, R. W. Griswold, R. H. Dana, George P. Morris, Rufus Dawes, Seba Smith, R. M. Bird, Mrs. Emma C. Embury, Mrs. Mary Clavers, Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, Mrs. Francis S. Osgood, Mrs. Seba Smith, Mrs. E. P. Elliot, Mrs. H. E. Beecher, Stowe, Mrs. Volney E. Howard, Mrs. Lydia H. Sigourney, Mrs. M. S. Leonard, Miss Eliza Leslie, Mrs. A. M. F. Annan, Miss C. M. Sedgwick, Miss Hannah F. Gould.

With many of these, arrangements have already been made, as well as with others whose reputation is sure, though yet to be established in the public regard. The proprietor entertains sanguine hopes of accomplishing an object to which he looks forward with pride—the secured co-operation of regular and occasional contributors, forming a list unequalled in this country.

In each number there will be two or more engravings, after such artists as Chapman, Ingham, Inman, Osgood, &c., engraved in mezzotint, fine, and stipple, by H. S. Sadd, W. L. Ormsby, &c., besides a plate of Fashions colored, and occasionally other illustrations, so that every subscriber, who receives, in the course of the year, at least twenty-four elegant productions of the graphic art, which could not be otherwise procured at three or four times the annual cost of the whole Magazine.

In each number there will also be two pages of Music, original, or judiciously selected by a competent professor of the art. Proper regard will be paid to the current issues from the book press, not so much, however, with a view to notice all the volumes that may appear, as to the expression of matured opinions concerning those which shall be deemed worthy of the public attention and confidence. The aim of the Editor will be, rather to furnish judicious criticisms, on which readers and purchasers may rely for guidance, than to present a mere laudatory chronicle of new publications.

NOTICE TO SAW-MILL OWNERS,

Or those who are about to build or repair.

The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he is duly authorized to sell the Right of the Johnson Re-acting Water wheel, to the counties of Monroe and Pike, patented the 22d day of June, A. D. 1840.

The Johnson re-acting wheel is the best now in use to propel a saw mill; it excels any other wheel in the United States under a low water head—under a head from 5 to 7 feet is sufficient to cut from 2 to 3000 feet in twelve hours of inch or any other boards with ease. The wheels require, under a 7 foot head, 140 inches of water and so in proportion to any other head. Under a 7 foot head, the Saw will make from 200 to 250 strokes per minute. The advantage which those wheels have over any other wheels is, that it requires but four posts to make the floor or birk head; the wheels are hung on the crank shaft. Two wheels are what is required for a Saw mill, and the posts planked inside the same as a pen stock. I have built one of those mills this season, on the Roaring Brook, in Luzerne county, for Mr. S. P. Templin, under about a 7 foot head, which will cut from 3 to 4000 in twelve hours of inch boards;—therefore, I can recommend them as the best wheels now in operation. There are several more mills in that part, all under low heads, which answers the same purpose as that of Mr. Templin's. For further information, please call on the subscriber.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK,

EDITED BY MRS. SARAH J. HALE. Has now reached its twenty-eighth Volume, and is the oldest and leading Periodical in the United States. It has never changed Proprietors. It is a Magazine of LITERATURE, FASHION, AND THE FINE ARTS, With the best list of contributors in the country, and the largest circulation. It contains Mezzotint and Line Engravings; Fancy Works of Art and Utility; The Genuine Coloured Fashions; Portraits of Distinguished Characters, (by artists of the first class); and Views of the most Celebrated Places in the United States.

In order to give additional variety, the Publisher has engaged the services of eminent literary gentlemen, familiarly connected with the Literature of Continental Europe, who will furnish Translations from the Literature of France, Germany, Italy, Spain, Sweden and Denmark. It has been found impossible by contemporaries to compete with the gigantic strides of the Lady's Book, and they have gradually given up the attempt in despair.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, is emphatically a FAMILY BOOK, and can be read aloud to the family circle. It is also an American Book, and the writings of those Americans who define, and attempt to sully the feats of arms of our great heroes, are not admitted in the work. Constant novelty, consistent with the character of the work, will ever be the effort of the proprietor.

L. A. GODEY, Publisher's Hall, Philadelphia. Postage to be paid on all orders.
