PROSPECTUS EXTRAORDINARY!

BURGESS, STRINGER & CO. PUBLISHERS AND GENERAL PERIODICAL AGENTS, 222 Broadway, corner of Ann st. New York. Commenced on the 17th February, the publication of a new weekly paper, entitled MAGAZINE FOR THE MILLION: OR WEEKLY REVIEW OF CURRENT LITERATURE. Each number of 24 pages octavo, in a neat cover, contains at least one original Tale, Sketch, or Essay, of decided merit; one original Poem; a letter of gossiping New York Correspondence, for town and country; spirited Editorials; and reviews of all the current Literature of the day—a novel and important feature.

PRICE SIX CENTS.

The Tales and other leading articles are generally from the pens of American authors of eminent ability; the New-York Correspondence is of a unique and very piquant description; the Reviews of books are full, discriminating, and impartial; and the entire contents of the most popular character.

This Magazine is printed on new bourgeois and minion type, on fine white paper, done up in handsome colored covers, and will compare favorably, in matter and style, with any publication of the kind in this country.

Novel Plan of Publication.

The popular feature of this Magazine is the weekly distribution of the splendid Literary works among its subscribers and purchasers upon the following plan: Each copy of every issue is numbered—say from No. 1 up to No. 5,000 inclusive—and from an equal number of tickets are drawn, say ten, or as many as the number of present of fered, which will be given to the holders of the corresponding numbers. Not less than ten Prizes have been offered with every number, and among these have been such works as Harpers' Illuminated Bible, complete; Encyclopedia Americana in 13 vols; complete works of Sir Walter Scott, in ten Prescott's Conquest of Mexico; Works of Shakespeare, with 40 steel engravings; Farmer's Encyclopedia; Brande's do; Alison's History of Europe, &c. &c. Each of these works, and a host of others of a similarly high character, have been thus distributed, in this fair and impartial manner, among the subscribers and purchasers of this Magazine.

The certificate of any of our Agents or any Postmaster will insure the prompt delivery of every prize we offer.

As the publication of this Magazine is not intended to be of any direct profit, after paying editors and contributors, we shall offer similar prizes for every number, increasing their number and value with the increase of its circulation.

Each number, after the first, will contain the drawings of the past, and the announcement of the future literary prizes; and we hope, by publishing a periodical of sterling value and attraction, with such a system of magnificent inducements, to give a new impulse to the cause of literature.

Editors of papers, who copy this announcement, or give its substance editorially, will be entitled to numbered copies in exchange.

Mail subscribers, at three dollars per annum, in advance, will receive numbered copies throughout the year, giving chances for fifty-two magnificent Prizes. Two copies for $5.

In all cases, we shall be accountable for the full amount of advance subscriptions sent to us post paid, or franked by any postmaster. BURGESS, STRINGER & CO. 222 Broadway. March 7, 1844.

THE COLUMBIAN Lady's and Gentleman's Magazine.

EDITED BY JOHN INMAN, And filled with Contributions from the most eminent and accomplished writers of the country.

The motives which have led to the commencement of this undertaking may be briefly stated. It is believed by the proprietor that there is in the United States an immense provision of literary ability, for which as yet there is no adequate encouragement, or field of display; that besides the numbers of clever and successful writers, whose productions are weekly, and monthly, and annually read with delight by thousands, there are yet greater numbers constantly arriving at maturity of power, who have only to appear on the stage of publication to receive a brilliant award of fame; and that the powers of those whose names are already pronounced with respect by lips of wisest censure, are capable of more and still higher exertion than has yet been called forth. It is believed, too, that the demand for literary production in this country, especially in the periodical channel, exceeds the supply in a very large proportion, and that new supplies have only to be presented of the right quality, and in the right way, to ensure a hearty welcome and profitable reception. No doubt is entertained of the American mind's ability to sustain itself—certainly on its own ground, if not abroad—against all the competition that the intellect of other lands can bring to the encounter; and full assurance is felt that among the millions of American readers there can be, and is, a cordial welcome for all that American writers can produce of excellent and interesting.

From these premises it is undoubtingly inferred, that there is abundant room for another Magazine, notwithstanding the merit and success of those already in being; that there can be no lack of ability to fill its pages acceptably, within the reach of capital and liberal enterprise; and that such a periodical will not fail to be greeted as a welcome visitor by thousands upon thousands, who as yet have done little or nothing toward the support and development of American periodical literature.

Another and strong motive has been the feeling that New York, the first city of the Union, should be the home of a periodical owning no superior in either merit or success.

The Columbian Magazine will be published on the first day of every month. Its mechanical arrangements will comprise the best of paper, type, and workmanship, that money can procure.

Its contributors will be sought for among the ablest and most popular writers in the country; and no efforts will be spared to secure the aid of the most distinguished, such as John L. Stephens, W. C. Bryant, J. F. Cooper, J. K. Paulding, F. G. Halleck, N. P. Willis, W. H. Herbert, Nathaniel Hawthorne, H. T. Tucker, H. M. W. Longfellow, J. R. Chandler, C. F. Hoffman, T. C. Grattan, T. S. Arthur, J. C. Neal, H. P. Harrington, W. G. Simms, H. H. Weld, E. Sargent, John Neal, Theodore S. Fay, Park Benjamin, R. W. Griswold, R. H. Dana, George P. Morris, Rufus Dawes, Seba Smith, R. M. Bird, Mrs. Emma C. Embury, Mrs. Mary Clavers, Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, Mrs. Francis S. Osgood, Mrs. Seba Smith, Mrs. E. F. Ellet, Mrs. H. E. Beecher, Stowe, Mrs. Volney E. Howard, Mrs. Lydia H. Sigourney, Mrs. M. S. Leon, Loud Miss Eliza Leslie, Mrs. A. M. F. Annan, Miss C. M. Sedgwick, Miss Hannah F. Gould.

With many of these, arrangements have already been made, as well as with others whose reputation is sure, though yet to be established in the public regard. The proprietor entertains sanguine hopes of accomplishing an object to which he looks forward with pride—the secured co-operation of regular and occasional contributors, forming a list unequalled in this country.

In each number there will be two or more Engravings, after such artists as Chapman, Ingham, Inman, Osgood, &c., engraved in mezzotint, fine, and stipple, by H. S. Sudd, W. L. Ormsby, &c., besides a plate of Fashions colored, and occasionally other illustrations, so that every subscriber, will receive, in the course of the year, at least twenty-four elegant productions of the graphic art, which could not be otherwise procured at three or four times the annual cost of the whole Magazine.

In each number there will also be two pages of Music, original, or judiciously selected by a competent professor of the art. Proper regard will be paid to the current issues from the book press; not so much, however, with a view to notice all the volumes that may appear, as to the expression of matured opinions concerning those which shall be deemed worthy of the public attention and confidence. The aim of the Editor will be, rather to furnish judicious criticisms, on which readers and purchasers may rely for guidance, than to present a mere laudatory chronicle of new publications.

NOTICE

TO SAW-MILL OWNERS, Or those who are about to build or repair.

The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he is duly authorised to sell the Right of the Johnson Re-acting Water wheel, to the counties of Monroe and Pike, patented the 22d day of June, A. D. 1840.

The Johnson re-acting wheel is the best now in use to propel a saw mill; it excels any other wheel in the United States under a low water head;—under a head from 5 to 7 feet is sufficient to cut from 2 to 3000 feet in twelve hours of inch or any other boards with ease. The wheels require, under a 7 foot head, 140 inches of water and so in proportion to any other head. Under a 7 foot head, the Saw will make from 200 to 250 strokes per minute. The advantage which those wheels have over any other wheels is, that it requires but four posts to make the floor or bulk head; the wheels are hung on the crank shaft. Two wheels are what is required for a Saw mill, and the posts planked inside the same as a pen stock. I have built one of those mills this season, on the Roaring Brook, in Luzerne county, for Mr. S. P. Templin, under about a 7 foot head, which will cut from 3 to 4000 in twelve hours of inch boards;—therefore, I can recommend them as the best wheels now in operation. There are several more mills in that part, all under low heads, which answers the same purpose as that of Mr. Templin's. For further information, please call on the subscriber.
