"Russell Smith has been engaged to furnish series of pictures representing some of the most celebrated places in the United States, battle-grounds," &c. We have two of his designs in the hands of our engravers, and they would have appeared ere this, but the government works now in their hands occupy nearly all their time. The idea originated with us. The offer of our premium no doubt will produce many good pictures, battle-grounds, celebrated places, &c.

It will be perceived that the idea of farnishing views of battle-grounds was first conceived by publisher "Godey." They will be engraved in Dick's best style, and given with other plates as rapidly as possible.
