

North Carolina.

The Raleigh Independent, edited by Mr. Loring, himself a recent convert to the Whig cause, says--"we learn from a source entitled to the highest credit that more than FIFTY gentlemen, of the late Van Buren party, otherwise Union men, joined the Clay Club, in the course of one week, in the county of Northampton, in the good old North State."

Changes!

Gov. FENNER, of R. I., who was one of the Vice Presidents of the Convention which nominated Mr. Van Buren in 1840, is now a Clay man. And so also are Mr. Francis, one of the Senators, and Mr. Porter, one of the Representatives, from that State in Congress. Both were Van Buren men in 1840.--Forum.

Popular Fashions.

In a call, published in the Pittsburg American of Friday last, for a CLAY, MARKLE and TARIFF meeting, in Allegheny city, are the names of seventeen persons, who have heretofore been locofocos.

Prentice says, the locofocos of Louisville the other day called upon one of their old friends, an exceedingly respectable citizen and distinguished mechanic, with a request that he would subscribe towards paying the expenses of their flag. "Go with me into the yard," said he. They followed him. "There, do you see that pole?" said he, pointing to a tall standard.--"Yes," said they. "Well, I shall spread a flag in its top with the names of Clay and Frelinghuysen. I hope there is a sufficient answer to your solicitations."

The Baltimore Whig contains five or six columns of renunciations of prominent Locofocos who cannot swallow the Free Trade doctrines of James K. Polk.

John V. L. Mahou, Esq.

Our veritable neighbors of the Democratic Union published among other infamous falsehoods, a statement that the gentleman who heads this article, who was the President of the Convention of 1840, had deserted the cause of HENRY CLAY. In a card, in the Baltimore Argus, he contradicts the charge in the most unequivocal terms: "He is now, as he ever has been, the firm and devoted supporter of Henry Clay and Whig principles."--Clay Bugle.

As we Expected.

The Richland (Ohio) Bugle, says the story started that five men in Vernon township had gone over to Polkism is "gammon." Two of them named died a year since, and the other three are staunch Whigs and subscribers to the "Whig Bugle." So much for locofoco "Changes."

General Markle in the West.

The 'Harry of the West,' a new paper published in Pittsburg, says of Gen. Markle's prospect in the west:

"A gentleman from Butler informed us yesterday that nearly the entire German population of that county will go for the gallant hero of Mississippiwa, in October next. He only knows two Germans in the county (and his acquaintance with them in that section of the country is very extensive) who are pledged to H. A. Muhlenberg. In our own county, the honest men of both parties are coming out not only in favor of Gen. Markle. Mr. Backofen, editor of the only German locofoco paper in the city is bitter in his opposition to Muhlenberg, and assumed a gentleman of our acquaintance that the Germans of this county are all going to unite on Markle, and Muhlenberg, cannot possibly get more than TEN German votes in the county. Hurrah for the 'unity and harmony' that prevails in the ranks of the democratic party in every portion of our Commonwealth, in relation to the gubernatorial contest."

The 'Northwestern' a Loco Foco paper, published in Williams county, Ohio, has lizzed out. It was, but is not. Verdict of the inquest--died from a too free use of Polk!

Caution to the Whigs of Pennsylvania.

I understand that a person is now travelling through this State, selling copies of the "Clay and Frelinghuysen Almanac," which contain ninety-seven of the "one hundred well founded reasons why Henry Clay should be elected President of the U. States," for which I have secured a copy right. As those "reasons" are marred by gross errors and omissions, which are calculated to injure the Whig cause, as well as my own reputation, I hereby caution all booksellers, agents and private individuals against purchasing the said Almanac. They will soon be correctly published in pamphlet form. F. B. GRAHAM. Philadelphia, July 12, 1844

Monstrous Snake.

We have been informed, says the Huntingdon Journal, that Adam Hoffman, residing near this place, killed a Black-Snake, on Warrior Ridge, last week, measuring 11 feet in length. The same snake had been seen by others in the neighborhood for several years past. It is said its head was grey.

Let it be Remembered,

That James K. Polk is opposed to the excellent Tariff Act of 1842, and to all Protection of American Industry. Also, that George M. Dallas, introduced a Bill into the Senate of the United States to re-charter the U. S. Bank, and voted to pass it by two-thirds, after Gen. Jackson had vetoed it.
