General Markle's Popularity.

The Pittsburgh American of the 18th inst. contains resolutions favorable to General MAR-KLE, which have been adopted at Whig Mass Meetings recently held in Lycoming, York, Susquehanna, Adams, Cambria, Berks, Beaver W and Westmoreland counties. At these meet- Ry ings we are assured the mere n ention of Gen- Co eral Markle's name elicted enthusiastic shouts Bu of applause. In an article prefacing these resolutions, the American remarks : "At no pe- Ba ried within our recollections, did the good Whig cause appear so prosperous as at this time, or the members of that party, our friends and co-Es laborers, appear so happy-the result of confi- Ph dent success. The noble choice of candidates Hi for all the important offices, and the perfect Oa nonumity with which those choices were made, Ma securing that perfect union of action which is Po strength itself, bringing conviction of victory to the minds not only of our friends, but enforcing respect from men of all ranks and parties. To none are these remarks more applicable than in General Markle. He coues from the midst of the people ... with the dust of the field upon han, from their ranks, enjoying their confidence irone the purity of a long life, and a youth deweed to the service of his country, when, that service was most needed---respected for his courage---admired for his wisdom and singular Western bank decision, and chalten, ing the confidence of all around hum for his sterling integrity and uprightness of character, di played in every relation of life. Such is the man offered to the Whigs of Pennsylvania as their candidate for Governor.

We have not room for all the resolutions alinded to, but we copy the following, adopted at a meeting held on the 15th ult. by the gallant General's neighbors of Sewickly and North Huntingdon, Westmoreland co. The Whigs assembled at this meeting, as has been before stated, formed a "Clay and Markle Club." We have only room for four of the series of excellent resolutions adopted on that occasion :
