Showing a Whig majority of 2 in the Senate and 22 in the Commons... 24 Whig on joint ballot...

Kentucky. The result in this State, so far as heard from, with any accuracy gives Owsley, Whig, 5,335 majority over Butler, Loco...

Alabama. The returns so far as received, look well, and show that the progress of the Whig Cause is onward, even in Alabama...

Illinois. The Louisville Journal of the 13th, says: "So far as we can learn from confused and perplexed accounts, Illinois stands alone in her shame, for she continues her allegiance to the rotten standard of Polkism..."

Whig Meeting at Centreville. The meeting of the Whigs at Centreville, in Upper Mount Bethel, on Saturday last, (the proceedings of which will be found in to-day's paper) in enthusiasm and numbers, went far ahead of anything of the kind heretofore held in the county...

The Whigs of Monroe county made a creditable turn-out, evincing a spirit and determination to do their duty at the approaching election. Their delegation numbering from 250 to 300 entered the village in about 20 wagons, with flags, banners and music...

The delegation from Pocono township alone amounted to forty-five persons. In this township in 1840, we had 18 votes. This is cheering evidence that correct political principles are rapidly increasing...

After a large number had partook of an excellent dinner prepared by Mr. J. Sandt, of the Centreville Hotel, a procession with banners and a band of music, was formed, and marched to the stand, where excellent addresses were delivered by Messrs. H. D. Maxwell and A. E. Brown...

The following is a copy of a handbill posted up in portions of Sussex and Warren counties: "POLK AND DALLAS MEETING. There will be a splendid COON HUNT at the Coal Job, near Benjamin Emmons, in Hardwick, on Saturday, August 17, at 2 o'clock, P. M."

The condition of the whole Locofoco party will be very much like this, after their National 'coon hunt' in November. They will hear 'sumfin drop' then, and will be at no loss, while lying flat on their backs to guess who slipped off the limb...

Upper Mount Bethel Meeting. GREAT TURN OUT.

On Saturday the 17th instant, the largest meeting was held at Sandt's Hotel, in Centreville, that has been witnessed in the county of Northampton since 1840. After the company had dined, the meeting was organized in an adjoining grove, by calling D. B. HAZEN, to the Chair, and appointing the following Vice Presidents:—C. Keiser, H. Beck, C. Schoch, J. M. Fair and Dr. William Clark...

WHEREAS, The State and Presidential elections are approaching, and will soon take place, we deem it proper and necessary that we should declare our principles, so that it cannot again be said, and falsely so too, as in the revolution of 1840, that the true principles of the Whig party were not before the people...

First, then we declare, That we are in favor of a single Presidential term of 4 years, believing that it will have a tendency to destroy the corrupting influence of office holders. Second. We believe that the proceeds of the sales of our Public Lands should be distributed among the States, to whom they of right belong...

Fourthly. We are in favor of holding all public officers to a strict accountability—of an entire separation of the purse and sword—and a determined hostility to all executive encroachments and usurpation of power.

Sixth. We are in favor of popular privilege through a Representative Legislature against irresponsible and tyrannical assumptions of power in the person of an executive—believing that the constitution provides for its own explanation in the existence of a Supreme Court...

Seventh. We are in favor of internal improvements by the general Government.

Resolved, That in elevating HENRY CLAY of Kentucky to the Presidential chair, we are supporting a man who imbibes the foregoing principles, and one who has always been the champion of popular rights—the defender of his country's honor abroad, and the advocate of its best interests at home...

Resolved, That we oppose James K. Polk, because we believe him hostile to the Tariff of 1842 as he himself declares in a letter published in 1843 in Tennessee, he says "I am opposed to the Tariff act of 1842, and in favor of repealing it and restoring the compromise act of 1833."

Resolved, That we oppose Jacob Bronzman, Esq. of the State of Pennsylvania. A tall liberty pole with the flag of the union, the emblem of the democratic party, will be planted by the young hickory boys at 1 o'clock...

Resolved, That we will support Gen. JOSEPH MARKLE for Governor of Pennsylvania, because we believe him a true patriot, an honest man, and one who will administer our State affairs upon restrictive and economical principles...

A premium has been offered by an Agricultural Society, down east, for the best mode of taking the kinks out of pig's tails.

Come-outers in Perry County.

A late number of the Perry Freeman contains a statement signed by thirty-five workmen at Juniata Furnace in that county, of which, after repelling the slander of a Locofoco paper that they had become Clay men out of fear of their employers, they use the following language:

"A majority of the undersigned openly declare that they have labored nearly all their lives at Iron establishments, and acknowledge they have voted the Democratic ticket time after time in the face of their employers without either fear or restraint; and would yet continue to do so if the experience of the past had not taught us a lesson never (by us) to be forgotten."

The undersigned say that they are all workmen at the Juniata Furnace; that this is their own free act—that they have been forced by the foul slanders and false representations of the Perry County Democrats alone to make this statement to the public; and that they are all voters.

Salters, John Whitmer, Joseph Griffith, Dennis McGowan, Joseph Murphy, William Cook, John L. Adams, Wm. Holmes, Jr., John A. Griffith, Henry Black, Samuel Griffith, Wm. Holmes, Sen., Jesse Tweed, James McCafferty, William Tomes, M. Haman, Adam Benjeman, George Glouster, Edward Mills, John Barrick, Benj. Swisher, John Smiegh, John Whizzen, Joseph Power, S. Berkstesser, John Swisher, Jacob Holmes, Juniata Furnace, July 29, 1844.

Five voters of Sparta, Livingston County, N. Y., sign off from Lococoism in the last Livingston Republican. The letter thus concludes: "We believe that the Whig party are the true Republican party, and we judge both by their acts and not pretensions..."

THOMAS BRADY, ANTHONY JOHNSON, DANIEL JOHNSON, JOHN JOHNSON, COONROD GRAPPENSTETTER. Sparta, Livingston co., July 31, 1844.

We find the following in the Detroit Daily Advertiser. Mr. Hatch speaks for himself: "Although I still hold many opinions in common with the Democratic party, these two questions (the Tariff and Texas) afford sufficient reasons, why right, patriotism, and regard to the well being of the country, should lead me to vote for HENRY CLAY in preference to Jas. K. Polk, and if my life be spared until November, I shall do so."

Effect of Blair's Slanders. The ruffianly course pursued by Amos Kendall, Francis P. Blair, and other Locofoco editors, will prove disastrous to the party to which they belong.

Resolved, That in elevating HENRY CLAY of Kentucky to the Presidential chair, we are supporting a man who imbibes the foregoing principles, and one who has always been the champion of popular rights—the defender of his country's honor abroad, and the advocate of its best interests at home.

Resolved, That we oppose James K. Polk, because we believe him hostile to the Tariff of 1842 as he himself declares in a letter published in 1843 in Tennessee, he says "I am opposed to the Tariff act of 1842, and in favor of repealing it and restoring the compromise act of 1833."

Fairfax County, August 1st, 1844, } A DEMOCRAT.

Mr. Shunk. If the following, from the Pittsburg American of August 5, be a correct representation of Mr. Shunk's demagoguism, we should be sorry to see him the Governor of Pennsylvania...

Resolved, That the proceedings of this Meeting be signed, and published in the Easton Whig and Stroudsburg Republican. Signed by the Officers.

Jos. C. POTT, of Trenton, who has recently been doing stump oratory for Polk and Dallas in various parts of the state, had a very pretty piece of pathos spoiled for future use the other day at Newark. He had trumped up a most touching story of a poor maniac, the distracted mother of sundry interesting children, who had been committed to the cold clods of the valley, leaving her destitute orphans to the cold charities of an unfeeling world...

Mode of Propagating Fruit Trees.

A New-Hampshire paper says:—"Two of the best farmers within our knowledge secure their fruit trees thus: they dig at some distance from the body of a favorite tree until they find a root which they cut off. The part disjointed from the tree is turned up so as to appear above the ground. This sends forth shoots the first season, and bears in a few years fruit precisely like the parent tree..."

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS.

The Subscribers respectfully invite Country Merchants who are about to purchase Fall and Winter Supplies, to an examination of their respective Stocks, believing that their several assortments are as complete as have ever been offered in the Philadelphia Market.

With Stocks of Goods in their several Departments of the choicest kinds—a determination to sell on terms which cannot fail to prove satisfactory—and a disposition to please old and new customers, will, we hope, be a sufficient inducement to purchasers to call at our respective establishments.
