

A DEMOCRATIC

Will be held in Stroudsburg, on Saturday the 28th day of September inst., beginning at 10 o'clock A. M. All in favor of

HENRY CLAY of Kentucky, and

THEO. FRELINGHUYSEN of New Jersey, for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States-all in favor of GENERAL JOSEPH MARKLE, the Farmer of Westmoreland, for the office of Governor of this Commonwealth-all who desire to preserve the TARIFF OF 1842; all in favor of the Distribution of the proceeds of the sales of the Public Lands among the States, a diminution of the State Debt, and of the State Taxes-all who are opposed to the and TWO TOWN LOTS, situated Annexation of Texas, and the assumption of her on Broad street, in the village of Milcandidates of the South Carolina nullifiers, and of sale by me all in favor of them-all in short who are willing to hear what the Whigs have to say for September 5, 1844. their men and their principles, are invited to at-

WHIGS AROUSE! The cause in which you contend is noble and glorious! The names blazoned on your banners are soul-stirring and honored names! Your country expects every man to do his duty!

Alexander E. Brown, Henry D. Maxwell, and G. W. Yates, Esqrs. of Easton, Chester Butler and Hon. O. Collins, of Wilkesbarre, Charles Gibbons and Joseph R. Chandler, of Philadelphia, and several speakers from New York are expected to be present and address

Two fine bands of music will be procured; and the attendance of Henry Creveling, of Warren co. N. J., that very popular Whig singer, may be depended upon, who will sing some admirable songs in his own way. Then

Come to the gathering; Haste, brethren-on-Like the waves of the sea The broad beach upon: Come! like the water From the cataract's height. Resistless and countless In their beautiful might! And our foes! they shall flee, Like the wind-driven spray, From the face of broad Heaven, From the battle shout-'CLAY!'

Come! as the winds come When the storm-king rides by! Come! like the lightning When the tempest is nigh! Come! as the sands come On Sahara's plain-When the storm's on the main! And far let the breeze Bear our war-cry away-Hurrah for the patriots-MARKLE and CLAY!
