The wise policy which had been pursued by his predecessor in office, was abandonedstrange and unheard of practices were introduced. Men, without character or honesty, were called to fill high and responsible places; who, instead of laboring to advance the honor of the State, sought but to enhance their own private interests. Defaulters, for the first time since we are a State, became known, and thousands of dollars have been lost to the Treasury. The State Debt has increased from twenty-five millions to the enormous amount of FORTY-ONE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS. The Commonwealth has been reduced to the verge of bankruptcy. remains unpaid for nearly three years-although the people have been taxed almost beyond their means to raise money to pay it. The pardontag power has been most shamefully prostituted -the doors of our penitentiaries have been opened, and the vilest criminals set free-once more to roam over the land and perpetrate new offences.

All these things and much more, have been borne patiently by a suffering people. The time is now approaching, however, when they have an opportunity peaceably to rid themselves of those evils, and once more place the administration of their beloved Commonwealth in honest and competent hands. And we call upon the people of these Districts to do their part towards effecting that great and desirable end.

The Democratic Whigs have placed in nomination, for Governor, Gen. JOSEPH MAR-KLE, of Westmoreland County. Gen. Markle is in every respect qualified to fill the chief To the Free and Independent Elecexecutive office of Pennsylvania. He is both able and honest; and his sacrifices in behalf of his country, during the sanguinary period of the late war, speak well for his patriotism and love of liberty. Where he is best known, he is snost respected and beloved-and we have every assurance that in Western Pennsylvania he will receive a larger vote than has ever teen cast for any candidate-not even excepting the lamented Harrison.

His opponent is Francis R. Shunk, of Pittsburg, an old office-holder, and although he was discharge of its duties. never chosen by the people, he has been in office thirty-two years at Harrisburg, during which Stroudsburg, Sept. 25, 1844. time he has drawn upwards of sixty thousand dollars from the Treasury of the State. He p as secretary of State during the first term of Gov. srnor Porter's administration, and shared in all the corruptions which distinguished that important e,'a in our political history. To elect him therefo "e, would be but to continue the present evils for another term of three years. Mr. Shunk is opposed to a sale of the Public Works and other great measures of relief, so that by voting for h, w the people determine that the State Debt shail go on increasing, and their present heavy taxes continue to be collected. Are you ready and willing to do this? Or will you not rather rote for Gen. Markle, who is in favor of selling the Public Works-Distributing the Proceeds of the Sales of the more restoring public and private prosperity.
