

There are some important facts connected with the public career of James K. Polk which should be remembered.

It should be remembered, that James K. Polk is the candidate of the Southern Locofocos—that South Carolina refused to give in her adhesion to the Convention until he was nominated—that she is for Free Trade and Texas, and that Mr. Calhoun declared he would support no man for President that was not a Free Trade man.

It should be remembered, that no Southern Locofoco has voted for a Protective Tariff since the Tariff Act of 1816.

It should be remembered, that James K. Polk could not, if elected separate himself from his friends, on this great question, even if he were disposed to do so; that he has no desire to leave them if he could; and that he is therefore irrevocably committed to the support of Free Trade, and opposition to the Protective Policy.

It should be remembered, That the Nashville Union, his organ, has declared "that the oppressive Tariff of 1842 has been condemned by every Democrat. That its provisions are viewed with abhorrence by Governor Polk and his friends."

It should be remembered, That James K. Polk declared the present Tariff Act, "a contrivance to CHEAT the people." See his address to the people of Tennessee, dated Columbia, May 17, 1843. Nashville Union Extra.

It should be remembered, That on the passage of the act for the relief of the widows and orphans of the officers, seamen and marines of the U. S. sloop of war Hornet, which was passed, yeas 138, nays 42, James K. Polk voted in the negative. See Jour. H. R. 1829-30, page 309.

It should be remembered, That James K. Polk voted against the resolution to appropriate 30 cords of wood to the suffering poor of Georgetown, in a most inclement season—the resolution having been adopted, yeas 108, nays 70. See Journal H. R. 1830, 31, p. 243.

It should be remembered, That James K. Polk voted against the bill to provide for the indigent sufferers by fire in Alexandria, which passed, yeas 109, nays 67. See Jour. 1826 7, p. 183.

The Veil withdrawn—Polk, Texas and Free Trade.

We are getting the truth from the South, as to the real views of James K. Polk and his friends. They are beginning to shew their hands. A letter from Charleston, published in the Boston Atlas, says "that the Hon. Henry L. Pinckney stated, at the Democratic meeting last week, that Mr. Polk had to disguise his opinions to meet the views of the Northern Democrats—but that he would state, on undoubted authority, to his democratic brethren of the South, that, in case of Mr. Polk's election, the Hon. John C. Calhoun would be continued in his office of Secretary of State, and that the administration would be pledged to use all its influence to carry out the Annexation of Texas, and the reduction of the Tariff."

Proclaim this in trumpet tongued notes throughout the land—and let the people know the secret measures of James K. Polk.

Morse's Telegraph worked by Lightning from the Clouds.

During a thunder-storm at Baltimore, on Tuesday, the superintendent of Morse's Magnetic Telegraph removed the galvanic batteries and suspended the operations of the telegraph, to avoid being injured by the electrical discharges from the clouds; the lightning having been attracted by the wires, counteracted the effect of the discharges from the batteries, and interrupted the operation of the telegraph. On the withdrawal of the batteries, the wires were operated upon by each successive flash of lightning, the telegraph working precisely in the same way as when in operation for the transmission of intelligence, thus proving (what few doubt) that the electricity of the atmosphere and that generated by the galvanic battery are identical, or like in their operation upon conducting substances.

The Tariff of 1842.

OPINIONS OF THE CANDIDATES. HENRY CLAY. Without intending to express any opinion upon every item of the Tariff, I would say that I think the provisions, and restoring the Compromise Tariff of March proper.—Sept. 13, 1843. Letter to a Committee of Georgia Whigs.

The Difference.

LOOK ON THIS PICTURE. CLAY and FRELINGHUYSEN, PROTECTION to American Industry. No assumption of $20,000,000 of TEXAS DEBTS, and NO WAR with MEXICO! NOW ON THIS. POLK and DALLAS. Free Trade to benefit the SLAVEHOLDER, and put the FREE LABORER on a level with Slaves!!! TEXAS DEBTS and TEXAS YAGABONDS, and a War with Mexico, or DISUNION!!!!!!

Let it be Remembered.

That James K. Polk is opposed to the excellent Tariff Act of 1842, and to all Protection of American Industry. Also, that George M. Dallas, introduced a Bill into the Senate of the United States to re-charter the U. S. Bank, and voted to pass it by two-thirds, after Gen. Jackson had vetoed it.

GREAT NATIONAL WORK.

TAPPAN & DENNETT, No. 114 Washington street, Boston, propose to publish, by subscription, in fourteen monthly numbers, at the low price of twenty-five cents each number, the

LIFE OF WASHINGTON,

BY JARED SPARKS.

Each number to contain between forty and fifty pages, and be embellished with the following fine Steel and Copperplate Engravings, viz:

- 1 Portrait of Washington at 40, by Peale.
2 do Mrs Washington at 26, by Wollaston.
3 View of Mount Vernon.
4 Battle of Braddock's defeat.
5 Head Quarters at Cambridge.
6 Plan of Boston and environs.
7 Head Quarters at Morristown.
8 Head Quarters at Newburg.
9 Plan of Farms at Mount Vernon.
10 Battle of Brandywine.
11 Portrait of Washington, by Stewart.
12 Encampment at Valley Forge.
13 Battle of Germantown.
14 Fac Similie of Washington's hand-writing.

The portraits were copied from the original paintings. The plans, sketches, and other engravings, have been compiled from the best drawings, as well English and French as American.

Special aid was derived from a series of Manuscript drawings in the possession of Gen. La Fayette, which are executed with scientific accuracy and beauty.

The well known ability of the author, the abundant means which he possessed, viz: more than two hundred Folio volumes of Original manuscripts, purchased by Congress, ten years researches in the public offices in London, Paris, Washington, and all the States which formed the confederacy during the Revolution, as well as the access he has gained to valuable private papers in different parts of the country—have brought into his hands a mass of materials, original and important in their character, which we trust will be found to have contributed essential aid in enabling him to execute with more accuracy and completeness his main purpose, and thus to have compensated in some degree for the time and labor they have cost. Its publication has not only involved extended and laborious research on the part of the editor, but great pecuniary responsibilities on the part of the publishers.

The price affixed to this work is less, when the exertion is considered, than that of any other publication in Europe or America. The investment and expenditures connected with this undertaking are much greater than usually attended such publications, and it will be apparent that the publishers must rely on an extensive sale for their remuneration.

The engravings alone are thought by many to be worth the cost of the whole work. To non-subscribers the price will be enhanced. Many testimonials of unqualified approbation might be added, by gentlemen who have examined the work, but the publishers conceive it to be unnecessary. Letters have been received from many distinguished persons concurring in the opinion that the work is, in every respect, richly deserving of public patronage.

Among the many who have given the work the aid of their subscription and influence, are the following gentlemen, viz: Hons. John Q Adams, Martin Van Buren, Jacob Burnett of Ohio, Josiah Quincy, John Pickering, Francis Wayland, D. D., Rev Moses Stewart, Robert G Shaw, esq., Henry Lee, esq., Right Rev Bishop Brownell, Isaac C Bates, Horace Everett of Vt., S Longfellow of Maine, J Sewell Jones of N. C., John Sergeant of Pa., Levi Lincoln, S Van Rensselaer of N. Y., Wm L Marcy, W Pope of Kentucky, L W Tazewell of Va., Daniel Webster, Abbot Lawrence, Joseph Story, Edward Everett, Charles Jackson, Lemuel Shaw, Samuel T Armstrong, W B Calhoun, John C. Warren, M. D., James Jackson, M. D., Gov John Davis, Chapman Johnson of Va.

Active and trustworthy men can find employment in procuring subscribers for the above work.

Letters addressed to the Publishers post paid, with applications for agencies, orders, will meet with prompt attention.

Postmasters and others who obtain subscriptions, and become responsible for five copies, shall receive a sixth copy gratis, or for ten subscribers, two copies, and the same rate for more. They will please let the publishers know how many copies are subscribed for, and how they shall be forwarded.

Publishers of Newspapers who will insert the above six weeks and forward to Tappan & Dennett one number of their paper, shall receive a copy of the work for so doing.

EXECUTORS' NOTICE.
