Militia Expenses.

In the statement of the State Treasurer, the sum of $19,151 is charged as the expenses of the Militia system for this year. We are informed that this amount, together with at least $35,000 additional, will be paid into the State $20,000 have already been received. It is stated that from this source some sixty to seventy thousand dollars, it is believed, will be added laspectors, on estimate of Brigade expenses before any collections are made.

T7" RIGHT OF SEARCH."-This seems still to be claimed by Great Britain with as much determination as before the last war. Almost every week we hear of some new instance where They pay no respect to our flag on the African coast, but treat it with as much indignity as they could the black flag of the pirates. Shall such pled upon ! our commerce subjected to insult and oppression ? No, the spirit of a free people who own no master, will ere long be aroused, and make the eye of the British lion quail beneath its power.
