FOR 1845. EDITED BY JOHN INMAN AND ROBERT A. WEST. Prospectus for the Second Year.

At the close of his second volume, the magazine having been commenced on the first of January 1844, the publisher finds himself irresistably call ed on to express the satisfaction and gratitude with which he has been filled by the brilliant and unexampled success that has attended his endeavors to win the public favor. Notwithstanding the difficulties, disappointments and vexations that almost invariably follow the establishment of a new periodical, in the production of which there must be the harmonious co-operation of many heads and many hands - notwithstanding occasional short-comings, especially in the pictorial department, which no care or diligence could averand no expenditure prevent, the Columbian Magazine has gone on steadily increasing in suppor and popularity from the opening number, and i the unbought unsolicited testimony of the press may be received as unswayed by partiality and unbiassed by friendship, the efforts of contributors and editors have been satisfactory to the public and accepted as fulfilling the promises made for them at the commencement of the enterprise.
