There are no less than 2000 United States oups at the different stations on Red River in Louisiana and Arkansas.

London, where many kings and princes have seffered imprisonment and death, has drawn much public attention to that noble structure. The loss of the trophies is great and can never See, Brother & Co be replaced. The amount of human suffering within its walls has been incalculable. Sherman's Lozenges could not have saved the head of Lord Hastings or the Duke of York, although they have saved many a one from death by Samuel Hood & Co., N. E. corner of Market and consumption and neglected coughs or colds .--A few of the Cough Lozenges will allay the most distressing cases in few minutes and enirely relieve them in one or two days. The Eckel, Spangler & Raiguel, 128 North Third st. Camphor Lozenges cure the headache in less than the time we are writing about them. The most skeptical need but 10 minutes use of them obe convinced. John M. Moore, Esq., Editor of the Tattler, tells us they cured him in he above short space of time although he had no faith in them. Many such instances have ome to our knowledge.
