12 Copies to Clubs for $20. THE COLUMBIAN MAGAZINE, FOR 1845.

EDITED BY JOHN INMAN AND ROBERT A. WEST. Prospectus for the Second Year.

At the close of his second volume, the magazine having been commenced on the first of January, The undersigned, Whig members of the Twen- 1844, the publisher finds himself irresistably callunexampled success that has attended his endeavors to win the public favor. Notwithstanding must be the harmonious co-operation of many heads and many hands-notwithstanding occasional short-comings, especially in the pictorial department, which no care or diligence could avert and no expenditure prevent, the Columbian Magazine has gone on steadily increasing in support and popularity from the opening number, and if the unbought unsolicited testimony of the press may be received as unswayed by partiality and unbiassed by friendship, the efforts of contributors and editors have been satisfactory to the public and accepted as fulfilling the promises made for them at the commencement of the enterprise.

> The publisher undertook the work with a firm conviction that the great city of New York was the best and the true home for a magazine of general literature; that notwithstanding the failure of many previous attempts to establish such a work, any age. It has long ceased to be necessary, or reasonable, that we should speak of the Columbian as an experiment. At all events, it is now an experiment substantially tried. We feel ourse'ves upon as firm a basis as any similar journal in the world. Our principal cares now regard not so much the securing what ground we have gained (for we consider this sufficiently secure) as the extension of our sphere of action and utility-not so much, even, the mere enlargement of our subscription-list, as the most suitable modes of catering for the amusement (and shall we say occasionally for the profit!) of our subscribers in the present and in the future-the many whom we have, and the many more we shall undoubtedly have as time rolls on. We have made arrangements which will enable present themselves to every mind. ### Spitting of Blood, NIGHT SWEATS AND PAIN IN THE SIDE. Jonathan Haworth, Esq. the well known Temperance Lecturer, was attacked with a cold from sleeping in damp sheets, in the winter of 1841. He neglected it at first, but soon found it assuming a somewhat alarming aspect, and then resorted to the various remedies usually recommended for lung will please send their goods to Heilman & complaints. When one thing failed he tried another, until ne had exhausted his patience and the whole catalogue of remedies. His cough was almost incessant, so that he could get little or no sleep-attended with pain in his side, spitting of blood, night sweats, and all the usual symptoms of Consumption. While at Rome, (N Y) he felt that his end was nigh-that in that place he must soon end his journey of life. Providentially, a lady who visited him advised a trial of Dr Sherman's Cough Lozenges. He accordingly sent and got a box, and the first dose gave him more relief than all the other medicines he used before. By the time he had taken one small box, he was able to start for the city of New York, and in three weeks' time he was perfectly restored to his usual health. He often announces the fact to his hearers, when lecturing on Temperance, and says he owes his life to Dr Sherman's Lozenges

From the Cincinnati Daily Times, of Jan. 4th 1844. Coughs-The variableness of the weather this winter has caused an unusual number of persons o be afflicted by colds and coughs-scarcely a family has escaped; and with many, carelessness in attending to a cough, has laid the foundation for consumption. Our family has not escaped the general affliction, but owing to a remedy, used for the first time, they were speedily cured. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, which we were induced to try, proved what they are represented to be, and affected a cure in a few days of a troublesome cough, which appeared so deeply seated that seemed doubtful if it could be removed at all --We have not written the above as a puff, but as facts which the community should know.
