

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.

It having been determined to establish a Political and Literary Monthly REVIEW, to be conducted in the city of New York, by GEORGE H. COLTON, Esq., and devoted to the permanent maintenance of WHIG principles and improvement of American literature.

The undersigned, Whig members of the Twenty-Eighth Congress, from all sections of the Union, most cordially approve of the design, and urge it upon the Whigs of the Republic for their unwavering support.

And that confidence may be extended by the public, assurance is hereby given that the continual assistance of the leading men of the Whig Party has been secured, and that full trust is reposed in the views and abilities of the Editor.

Members of the Senate.

It is unnecessary to set forth the reasons that have led to this design. They are many and will present themselves to every mind. But to the above the Editors have to add a word. It is known that the same enterprise has been two or three times before attempted by others; and that they failed as signally as they were weakly began. We care not to investigate the causes, but their failure has stood greatly in the way of the present undertaking. We can only give unqualified assurance that this Review WILL appear every month for one year at least, from January, 1845. Whether it shall continue longer, must depend upon the support of those who can see the importance of such a work. This support we earnestly request, believing that the work will be in all respects able and useful.

The Review will be published in the city of New York, to be called "THE AMERICAN REVIEW—A Whig Journal of Politics, Literature, Art and Science."

Terms—Five Dollars a year—paid on receiving the first number.

Each number containing a hundred and twelve pages, printed in double columns, on fine paper, will consist of a leading political article, with literary miscellany in history, biography, criticism, fiction, poetry, statistics, science and the arts, from the ablest writers in the country. It will contain powerful articles from various writers, with two beautiful mezzotint engravings of Mr. Clay and Mr. Frelinghuysen, with sketches of their life and character. Every second or third number afterwards will also present a likeness and sketch of some distinguished American.

The conduct of the Review will be under the control of George H. Colton, associated however with other gentlemen of known standing and attainments.

To Committees, Societies, Clay Clubs, &c.—the following liberal terms are offered. Five copies for $21. Thirteen copies for $50. Or any person becoming responsible for four copies will receive a fifth gratis. AGENCIES are invited for distant places.

By law, remittances may be made free, through the Postmaster.

All communications to be addressed, post paid, to the Editor, G. H. Colton:—Office 118 Nassau street, New York.

THE COLUMBIAN MAGAZINE, FOR 1845.

EDITED BY JOHN INMAN AND ROBERT A. WEST. Prospectus for the Second Year.

At the close of his second volume, the magazine having been commenced on the first of January, 1844, the publisher finds himself irresistibly called on to express the satisfaction and gratitude with which he has been filled by the brilliant and unexampled success that has attended his endeavors to win the public favor. Notwithstanding the difficulties, disappointments and vexations that almost invariably follow the establishment of a new periodical, in the production of which there must be the harmonious co-operation of many heads and many hands—notwithstanding occasional short-comings, especially in the pictorial department, which no care or diligence could avert and no expenditure prevent, the Columbia Magazine has gone on steadily increasing in support and popularity from the opening number, and if the unthought unsolicited testimony of the press may be received as unswayed by partiality and unbiassed by friendship, the efforts of contributors and editors have been satisfactory to the public and accepted as fulfilling the promises made for them at the commencement of the enterprise.

The publisher undertook the work with a firm conviction that the great city of New York was the best and the true home for a magazine of general literature; that notwithstanding the failure of many previous attempts to establish such a work, there could be no impossibility of success with sufficient capital, perseverance and the right system of management both by publisher and editor; stimulated by this conviction he embarked in the enterprise and the result of the first year has proved that his judgment was correct.

It has long ceased to be necessary, or reasonable, that we should speak of the Columbia as an experiment. At all events, it is now an experiment substantially tried. We feel ourselves upon as firm a basis as any similar journal in the world. Our principal cares now regard not so much the securing this sufficiently secure (for we consider this sufficiently secure) as the extension of our sphere of action and utility—not so much, even, the mere enlargement of our subscription-list, as the most suitable modes of catering for the amusement (and shall we say occasionally for the profit!) of our subscribers in the present and in the future—the many whom we have, and the many more we shall undoubtedly have as time rolls on.

We have made arrangements which will enable us to present our friends with embellishments of very superior taste, style and finish. In this respect it is our firm purpose, if possible, to outvie all competition. Our music and engravings, we confidently believe, will not be equalled—very certainly they shall not be surpassed in real merit, by those of any other magazine. We propose to give, each month, two or more superb engravings, independently of two pages of music by the most eminent composers, and plate of authentic fashions.

Regarding the literary and editorial conduct of the Columbia, the publisher does not feel called upon to say more than a very few words. The general management of this department is confided to the gentleman who has hitherto given abundant evidence, not only of the highest ability to put forth a meritorious magazine and one exactly adapted to the tastes of all readers, with whom is associated another gentleman of ability and experience. The publisher, therefore, has every confidence that what has already been done for the literary value of this journal, will be done again. We are perfectly willing that our future in this respect should be estimated by our past. The subjoined list of those who have furnished articles for the Columbia during the by gone year, will satisfy, we feel assured, the most fastidious, that we are resolute to spare, in no particular, either exertion or expense.

Mrs Lydia H Sigourney	J K Paulding
Mrs Ann S Stephens	W C Bryant
Mrs Francis S Osgood	Fitz Greene Halleck
Mrs E O Smith	Henry W Herbert
Mrs E F Ellet	H Hastings Weld
Mrs M St Leon Loud	Park Benjamin
Mrs Emma C Embury	George W Kendall
Mrs Kirkland,	T S Arthur
Mrs A C Mowatt	H P Grattan
Mrs James G. Brooks	H. T Tuckerman
Mrs E R Steele	Seba Smith
Miss Mary L Lawson	C Feno Hoffman
Miss Colman	Theodore S Fay
do Isabel Jocelyn	Wm H Willis
do Martha Russell	John Neal
do E E Chubbuck	Edward J Porter
do Louise M Brauner	Joseph Boughton
do Fanny Forester	Henry B Hirst
do M G Quincy	James F Otis, &c. &c.

With the aid of these contributors (of whom it is needless to say one word in the way of commendation) and of numerous others, perhaps equally meritorious if less celebrated, who have promised us their support, we flatter ourselves that, as a literary work, the Columbia need be under no apprehension of being excelled.

But what we have done is already before the public, who will not fail to judge of us with impartiality; and in respect to what we intend to do, it will be both wiser and more becoming (although less fashionable not to boast.) We may be permitted to assure our friends in brief, however, that we have matured numerous plans (for the Third Volume) with which we feel confident they will be pleased. It is our purpose to put forth every energy, and it will be no fault of our own if the Columbia shall not be found at least equal to any magazine, of any class or price, in America.

Dealers in periodicals throughout the United States and the Canadas, who wish to become agents for the Columbia Magazine, will please apply to the publisher immediately. The usual discount will be made to them.

Editors who will insert this Prospectus entire and send a copy marked and addressed to the Columbia Magazine, shall have a copy sent to them for one year.

INDIAN QUEEN HOTEL,

Stroudsburg, Pa.

JOHN SHEVELY,

Has fitted up a commodious and elegant Hotel on Elizabeth street, nearly opposite the store of G. H. Miller & Co., and directly opposite the residence of Daniel Stroud, Esq. He has every convenience for entertaining strangers and travellers. Persons from the cities, and others who wish to take a pleasant jaunt in the country will be accommodated in the most satisfactory manner at his house.

THE TABLE

will be supplied with the best productions afforded by the market.

HIS ROOMS AND BEDS

are such, as will, he hopes, prove satisfactory to all reasonable customers.

THE BAR

is, and will continue to be, furnished with a choice assortment of Liquors.

THE STABLING

is new and extensive and surpassed by none in the county for comfort and convenience.

With these advantages backed by some experience in the business and a determination to keep a good public house, he confidently expects a fair portion of public patronage.

Permanent boarders will find a quiet home and be satisfactorily accommodated at moderate prices.

Stroudsburg, Sept. 28, 1843.

Dissolution of Partnership.

The partnership heretofore existing between the subscribers, as publishers of this paper, was on the 17th of August last, dissolved by mutual consent. All persons having demands against the said firm, will present them to Theodore Schoch for settlement, and all who are indebted thereto are requested to make immediate payment to him, he being authorized to receive the same.

THEODORE SCHOCH, THOMAS L. KOLLOCK.

P. S. The Jeffersonian Republican will continue to be published by Theodore Schoch and F. E. Spring, who respectfully solicit a continuance of public patronage.

NIGHT SWEATS AND PAIN IN THE SIDE.

Jonathan Haworth, Esq. the well known Temperance Lecturer, was attacked with a cold from sleeping in damp sheets, in the winter of 1841. He neglected it at first, but soon found it assuming a somewhat alarming aspect, and then resorted to the various remedies usually recommended for lung complaints. When
