PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, the Hon. LUTHER KIDDER, President Judge of the twenty-first Judicial district of Pennsylvania, composed of the counties of Schuylkill, Carbon and Monroe, and Joseph Keller and John Merwine, Esqs. Associate Judges of the courts of Common Pleas of the County of Monroe, and by virtue of their offices, Justices of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, and Court of General Quarter Sessions in and for the said county of Monroe, have issued their precept to me, commanding that a Court of Quarter Sessions and Common Pleas, and General Jail Delivery and court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, for the county of Monroe, to be holden at Stroudsburg, on Monday, the 6th day of October next, to continue two weeks, if necessary.

NOTICE

Is therefore hereby given to the Coroner, the Justices of the Peace, and Constables of the said county of Monroe, that they be then and there with their rolls, records, inquisitions, examinations and other remembrances, to do those things which to their offices are appertaining, and also that those who are bound by recognizance to prosecute and give evidence against the prisoners that are or shall be in the Jail of the said county of Monroe, or against persons who stand charged with the commission of offences, to be then and there to prosecute or testify as shall be just.

OLIS B. GORDON, Sheriff.

PROSPECTUS

For Reviving and Publishing a Weekly Paper entitled

THE NEW-YORKER.

THE NEW-YORKER, a Weekly Journal of Literature and General Intelligence, was established by the present Editor of THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE in March, 1831, and discontinued, or rather merged, on the establishment of the Weekly Tribune, in September, 1841, after having been published just seven years and a half. Having now ample and able Literary assistance, and having recently extended and perfected our Mechanical arrangements, we propose to revise and re-issue it on and after the 1st of October, 1845, on a sheet slightly differing in size or character from the old New-Yorker, but at a much lower price.

The plan of this paper will combine—
1. Original Literature—Reviews, Poems, etc.
2. Select Literature—Tales, Sketches, extracts from new Books, etc.
3. Miscellany—Letters from Europe and different parts of our own Country, Statistics, Anecdotes, &c.
4. Hints on Domestic Economy—Agriculture, Inventions, Recipes, &c.
5. General Intelligence—Foreign and Domestic, including Political events, Proceedings of Congress, &c. &c.

This last department will be carefully prepared, and will be as ample and varied as that of any other Weekly paper whatever. The extensive correspondence and other facilities for obtaining information which we have been years engaged in concentrating on the Daily and Weekly Tribune, will enable us to present early and authentic accounts of all transpiring events through this our cheaper Weekly, from which Political essays and all matter of a partizan character will be carefully excluded. In time, The New-Yorker will be simply and truly a Family Newspaper, of moderate size and the lowest possible price, intended for such readers as either dislike Political discussion or prefer to obtain this portion of their intellectual aliment through the gazettes of their respective localities. We intend that no matter to which rational men of any Political, Religious or other persuasion can object shall appear in this paper, though a large portion of its contents will appear also in the Weekly Tribune.

THE NEW-YORKER will be published every Saturday morning, but printed and mailed on Thursday and Friday, so as to reach as many of its patrons as possible before the Sunday rest of the Mails. It will be printed on a sheet of fine white paper, identical in size and quality with that of the Daily and Semi-Weekly Tribune, (of which this is a specimen,) and afforded to the subscribers at the low price of ONE DOLLAR a year, payable always in advance.

Twelve copies will be sent a year for Ten Dollars, or Twenty-five copies for Twenty Dollars.—Subscriptions are respectfully solicited by

GREELEY & McELRATH,
158 Nassau-street, New-York.

September 18, 1845.

Postmasters may remit subscriptions at our risk. Bills of all specie-paying Banks are received at par.
