LAST NOTICE.

All persons indebted to the subscriber, will please take notice that unless they turn their attention thereto, without any further delay, I shall be obliged to wait on them by one in authority with a "Hucus Compellus" in hand, which would be very repugnant to my feelings and contrary to my desire, but forbearance sometimes ceases to be a virtue, and money I must have and that soon.

N. B.—My Books, Notes, and all matters connected with my late business, are in the hands of Stoddell Stokes, who is duly authorized to settle and receipt for the same. WILLIAM EASTBURN. Stroudsburg, Aug. 14, 1845.

A NEW BOOT & SHOE ESTABLISHMENT.

William Blair, Respectfully informs the citizens of Stroudsburg and vicinity, that he has commenced the Boot & Shoe Making business at the shop formerly occupied by W. J. Breimer, as a Tin Shop, where he will be happy to receive orders for all kinds of work in his line of business, and also intends keeping on hand a stock of and will devote his best efforts to the accommodation of those who will favor him with their patronage. With an experience in the business of no inconsiderable length—a determination to adhere strictly to his promises—and a resolution never to make unreasonable charges, he flatters himself that he will receive a fair proportion of the custom of the Borough and neighborhood.

Country produce of all kinds, taken in payment for work, if brought in reasonable time. N. B.—Repairing done at the shortest notice. April 3, 1845.—6m.

PROSPECTUS

THE NEW-YORKER.

For Reviewing and Publishing a Weekly Paper entitled THE NEW-YORKER. The New-Yorker, a Weekly Journal of Literature and General Intelligence, was established by the present Editor of THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE in March, 1834, and discontinued, or rather merged, on the establishment of the Weekly Tribune, in September, 1841, after having been published just seven years and a half. Having now ample and able Literary assistance, and having recently extended and perfected our Mechanical arrangements, we propose to revise and re-issue it on and after the 1st of October, 1845, on a sheet slightly differing in size or character from the old New-Yorker, but at a much lower price.

The plan of this paper will combine— 1. Original Literature—Reviews, Poems, etc. 2. Select Literature—Tales, Sketches, extracts from new Books, etc. 3. Miscellany—Letters from Europe and different parts of our own Country, Statistics, Anecdotes, &c. 4. Hints on Domestic Economy—Agriculture, Inventions, Recipes, &c. 5. General Intelligence—Foreign and Domestic, including Political events, Proceedings of Congress, &c. &c.

This last department will be carefully prepared, and will be as ample and varied as that of any other Weekly paper whatever. The extensive correspondence and other facilities for obtaining information which we have been years engaged in concentrating on the Daily and Weekly Tribune, will enable us to present early and authentic accounts of all transpiring events through this our cheaper Weekly, from which Political essays and all matter of a partizan character will be carefully excluded. In fine, The New-Yorker will be simply and truly a Family Newspaper, of moderate size and the lowest possible price, intended for such readers as either dislike Political discussion or prefer to obtain this portion of their intellectual aliment through the gazettes of their respective localities. We intend that no matter to which rational men of any Political, Religious or other persuasion can object shall appear in this paper, though a large portion of its contents will appear also in the Weekly Tribune.

The NEW-YORKER will be published every Saturday morning, but printed and mailed on Thursday and Friday, so as to reach as many of its patrons as possible before the Sunday rest of the mails. It will be printed on a sheet of fine white paper, identical in size and quality with that of the Daily and Semi-Weekly Tribune, (of which this is a specimen,) and offered to the subscribers at the low price of ONE DOLLAR a year, payable always in advance. Twelve copies will be sent a year for Ten Dollars, or Twenty-five copies for Twenty Dollars.—Subscriptions are respectfully solicited by GREELEY & McELRATH, 158 Nassau-street, New-York.

September 18, 1845. Postmaster's may remit subscriptions at our risk. Bills of all specie-paying Banks are received at par.
