THE NATIONAL PRESS; A JOURNAL FOR HOME;

A Repository of Letters; a Record of Art; a Mirror of Passing Events.

To be Published every Saturday, at Two Dollars a Year, in Advance. GEORGE P. MORRIS, Editor and Proprietor.

A number of the most eminent literary persons justed squ passuound Buiney lagilosqus sql of this country, have proposed to the undersigned to publish, under the above title, a refined and valuable newspaper, upon a plan combining the highest resources of National Talent with the best elements of extensive popularity, and at so trifling an annual cost, as will place it within the convenient reach of all classes of society.

The control and management of this publication will form the exclusive and undivided attention of the Editor-whose long experience, ample facilities and practised care, will be exerted to select, unite and harmonise the various skill which is willing to seek devopment under his direction --The scope, design, and character of this paper will differ from those of any journals heretofore established, while it will comprehend all that they United States discounted at the lowest rates. contain of importance to the community. The contents will be fitted to engage the attention of favorable terms. the man of business, and be a source of elegant instruction and entertainment to the domestic fireside and family circle.

The leading characteristics of this paper will be as follows:

1. Early and Copious Intelligence of all interesting occurrences in Literature, Society, and Art, both at home and abroad. 2. A Foreign Correspondence of tried popularity and acknowledged merit has been engaged, and will be commenced with the first number.

3. Productions in fiction, romance and historical narrative; Sketches of the taste and manners List is published semi-monthly at $1 50 per anof the time; Essays, after the manner of the Tat- num, payable in advance. This work is printed tler and Spectator, on subjects connected with so-cial interests; biographical notices and anecdotes, 1-2 cents. literary and professional; bon-mots, epigrams, and elegant trifles of every kind; the rumors of the day, and the comments that float upon the conversation of the hour-materials of this kind will form the ordinary staple of the work.

4. The department of Criticism will exhibit a discriminating and popular survey of the Literary Productions of the day. There will be a thorough of produce, and buy Lumber cheaper, at Miland careful chronicle of every thing of value ac- ford than in any other market in this section of complished in Painting and Sculpture, and a can- country. Such exposition of the character and special excellencies of what is exhibited in Music will be constantly given as may lead to the more intelligent enjoyment of that most imaginative and delicate branch

5. No original papers will appear, but those of obvious and decided merit; and the selections (which will commonly be from the foreign journals the least known in this country) will be made with the utmost attention and care.

The predominant design of the Editor is to add to the Republic of Letters a Weekly Journal, distinctly and decidedly national in tone and features. and at the same time, to avoid all connection with more party politics. THE NATIONAL PRESS will, in brief, combine the striking and novel attractions of the newspaper, with the more abiding interest of the higher class of periodicals. It will be printed in the folio form, on large and superior paper, on a new and clear type, obtained expressly for the purpose, and will be, in its whole arrangement and details, a favorable specimen of the best typographical skill of the country. In addition to these, and as one of its most valuable peculiarities, it will be, in reference to the diversity of talent times a voracious appetite, are among the sympthat will be employed upon it, the cheapest paper toms of worms. The policy which strikes at the prosperity of the Many. producer, and neither can be injuriously affected without detriment to the Merchant, at once consumer and carrier for both. As, however, the elements of manufacturing and commercial industry must be derived chiefly from the soil, is it not the obvious interest of all other classes that the one which gives to all their employment and subsist. ence, should be encouraged and benefitted with every advantage that science can confer and the most enlightened industry make available! Y it has not been until comparatively a late period in Europe, and still later in America, that the pu lic mind has been made properly sensible of the necessity of science to Agriculture, and so to respect Farming as essentially an intellectual and dignified pursuit-one which should imply for its followers high mental cultivation and various attainments. Happily, however, educated your men are now betaking themselves to Farming, and a business, which, like the learned profession has its own principles and will have its literatu and truly it may be asked what subject has late given rise to memoirs and works more profou and instructive, or been fruitful of more interes ing results of scientific investigation, than Agr perience in the business and a determination culture?
