

JEFFERSONIAN REPUBLICAN

Thursday, January 21, 1847.

Terms, $2.00 in advance; $2.25 half yearly; and $2.50 if not paid before the end of the year.

FOR GOVERNOR,
PETER S. MICHLER,
OF NORTHAMPTON.

Subject to the decision of the 4th of March Convention.

Whig State Convention.

A State Convention, to be composed of Delegates from the city of Philadelphia and the several counties equal to their representation in the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, will be held at Harrisburg, on TUESDAY, the 9th day of MARCH next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of selecting candidates for Governor and Canal Commissioner to be supported by the Whigs and the friends of the Protective Policy at the next ensuing election, and to transact such other business as may be deemed important to the success of the Whig cause.

- J. P. SANDERSON.
 - SAMUEL D. KARNIS.
 - JOSEPH KONIGMACHER.
 - MORFON McMICHAEL.
 - GEORGE ERETY.
 - H. JONES BROOKE.
 - THEO. D. COCHRAN.
 - JAMES FOX.

 - WM. J. HOWARD.
- Whig State Committee.

Re-Appointment by the Attorney General—
JAMES H. WALTON to be Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for Monroe county.

The Concert.

The concert given by "Brooks" school, on Tuesday evening, we are happy to state, was well attended, and as far as we have been able to ascertain, gave general satisfaction. Music has been cultivated by the few in Stroudsburg, while the majority have been only listeners and admirers. This state of things should not exist, and we are fully aware that had as many more availed themselves of the last quarter's schooling, we should have had just so many more good singers. The Choir was in excellent voice, and rarely, if ever, has been witnessed in Stroudsburg, so brilliant a display of beauty and talent, as on this occasion. The ladies (God bless them) acquitted themselves with great credit, and exhibited courage which would have done honor to Gen. Taylor. They were alone on their parts, excepting the assistance of two soprano singers from Mt. Bethel, (beautiful girls, and splendid singers.) The Bass was wanting in strength, but they sang in fine tune, and produced a fine effect in the solo passages of "Holy is the Lord." Their pronunciation was perfect. Good pronunciation in singing, is a matter of importance with us. We cannot do without a distinct enunciation of the words in vocal music. The Motet was not all that we were led to expect, from the manner the other pieces were performed. The Alto had become weary, and sang without that spontaneity which is the life of song. "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof," was performed with skill, and showed taste as well as talent. The style of the words was strictly adhered to; at times the voices would die away to a low, plaintive murmur, and anon break forth in a deafening chorus. The answer to the question asked by the Bass and Tenor, "Who is this King of Glory?" was sublime, and not a single listener could avoid responding with the Choir, "The Lord of Hosts."

On the whole, this was a grand display of musical talent; such an one as never was known in Stroudsburg before; such an one as does credit to north-eastern Pennsylvania. As for "Brooks," we have only to say, that to praise his school is to praise him as a teacher. He is too well known in this State to need "puffing." As a teacher of music, he is past criticism.—May he live long, and teach thousands to sing of the praises of the Redeemer, and at last learn to join the chorus himself. We have always believed that sacred music was a refiner of the hearts and feelings of men, and that to be a singer was but to be good, and we must adhere to this opinion still, (single circumstances to the contrary.) Musical men may have the outward appearance of uncommon depravity; still we cannot believe that their hearts are entirely shut to the promptings of a better nature. There is too much of heaven in music to admit of it; and all who are so happy as to reach those blissful courts on high, will be greeted on their entrance with a gush of glorious heavenly music.

The Odd Fellows.

Wednesday of last week was appointed as a gala day with the Odd Fellows, it being the anniversary of Fort Penn Lodge, No. 134. Long before the appointed hour had arrived, the streets of Stroudsburg presented an uncommonly lively appearance,—citizens and strangers lining the side-walks, all evidently worked up to the highest pitch of expectation. At 2 o'clock, the procession formed in front of the Court-House, and marched through the principal streets of the Borough, to the stirring music of the Mt. Bethel Brass Band. The members of the Order were dressed in full regalia, and presented at once a novel and imposing appearance. The day was fine, and nothing transpired to mar the splendor of the scene. The procession repaired to the Methodist Church, and listened to one of the most enlightened, and interesting, discourses on Odd-Fellowship, by R. E. Wright, Esq., of Allentown. Taken as a whole, the address was a masterly effort, and reflects credit alike upon the speaker and the Order. We trust that all will avail themselves of the opportunity of reading it. It is admirably calculated to do away with superstition, and all who peruse it with care and attention cannot but feel favorably inclined towards the doctrine it inculcates. 'Tis the doctrine of the Bible—'tis a spark of heaven left to germinate among the members of fallen humanity, and although it is in an embryo state, it is destined to fill the whole earth, and make glad the hearts of millions yet unborn.

State Treasurer.

The Hon. JOHN BANKS, of Berks county, has been elected State Treasurer. The vote stood for

John Banks,	72
Jas. R. Snowden,	55
P. Sherlock,	1

The high character of Judge Banks for ability and integrity is a guaranty that his election to this important station, will be received by the people of Pennsylvania with a unanimous approval. No better man of either party can be found within the length or breadth of this Commonwealth.

ROBERT M. T. HUNTER was chosen U. S. Senator for six years from the 4th of March next, by the Legislature of Virginia, on the 15th inst. He succeeds Mr. Archer, the present able Whig member. The result, as we learn from the Richmond Whig, was effected by the co-operation of most of the Whigs with a few of the Loco-Foco members. Mr. Hunter was chosen on the sixth ballot.

Board of Canal Commissioners.

JAMES M. POWER, Esq., was duly sworn in, on the 12th inst., as Canal Commissioner, and the board organized by the election of JOSHUA HARTSHORN as President, and THOMAS L. WILSON, formerly Clerk, and an Anti-Shunk man, as Secretary to the Board.

Whig State Convention.

The Harrisburg Telegraph contains a list of Delegates to the Whig State Convention to assemble in Harrisburg in March next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor and Canal Commissioner, from which it appears that of the delegates already appointed there are 32 uninstructed. 22 instructed to support Gen. James Irwin. 15 recommended to support the Hon. James Cooper. 10 recommended to support Gen. Irwin. 3 instructed to support P. S. Michler, Esq. 3 instructed to support Walter Forward, Esq. 47 delegates are yet to be appointed.

Since our last issue we have nothing from Congress of any importance, except the death-blow given to the Lieutenant-General, in the Senate, and the debates upon various subjects in the two houses, not of sufficient interest to occupy our paper. On Saturday, however, when the Oregon Territorial Bill was taken up, Mr. Hamlin, of Maine, addressed the House in defence of the constitutional right of Congress to prohibit slavery in new territories. The sentiment of the North, he said, was opposed to any further extension of the area of slavery. No solitary interest of any State would be affected by a prohibition of its introduction into new territories. This was no Missouri compromise, no annexation of Texas question, and the free States would never consent to the introduction of slavery into FREE territory, acquired or to be acquired.

Mr. Bowdon of Alabama, spoke in opposition to these views, and Mr. Thompson of Pennsylvania in their favor, after which the previous question was called, the yeas and nays taken, and the bill passed 133 to 35.

The bill as it passed we believe prohibits forever the introduction of Slavery into the territory, and the Southern members resist this as a precedent for other territory.

Buck's County Intelligencer.

Pass round their Names.

Mr. FICKLIN, of Ill., and Mr. THOMPSON, of Mississippi, a pair of servile Loco-focos, made a disgraceful assault in the House, on the 8th inst., upon Gen. Taylor's conduct, in not preventing the Mexican forces from crossing the Rio Grande after their defeat in the battle of Resaca de la Palma. The Administration had been charged with neglect in not furnishing him with pontons, to cross the river; why, they asked, did he not cut off the Mexicans before they reached the river? Mr. Jos. R. INGERSOLL replied with patriotic indignation, that Gen. Taylor's forces had been 30 hours without food, and numbering only 2,000 to the 7000 Mexicans! And yet Gen. Taylor is to be denounced by menials of the White House, for not accomplishing impossibilities. Pass round their names! Let them be remembered.

The Lehigh Reporter, in noticing the disgraceful attempt of the Loco-foco press to create the impression that their own partisans chiefly compose the volunteer companies fighting the battles of their country in Mexico, states that of the ninety-four men composing Captain Nagle's company, ONLY SEVEN are Loco-focos.

Senator Pennybacker, of Virginia, died at Washington, on Tuesday morning of last week. His death was announced in both houses, and they immediately adjourned. On Wednesday they attended his funeral.

Mr. Newton, Whig, is said to be elected to Congress to fill the vacancy in the Arkansas Legislature, caused by the resignation of Col. Yell, Loco.

We learn that the two-horse stage between Easton and Philadelphia, known as the "Lightning line," has been drawn off for the present.

The New Orleans papers mention the death of Patrick O'Donnell, a Pennsylvania volunteer, from Carbondale, Luzerne county.

It is recommended in New York, to tax every pauper arriving in that city, one dollar, which would bring an annual income of one hundred thousand dollars.

Mr. Semple, the Senator from Illinois, is, it is said, to be appointed Governor of Oregon.

THE "DEVIL."—The word devil, said a certain parson, is mean, any way you can take it. Remove the d, and it is evil; remove the e, and it is vile; remove the v, and it is il, and the l alone has the sound of hell. Beware, then of the devil—he is a mean rascal.

Harrisburg Daily Intelligencer.

On the commencement of the ensuing session of the Legislature, the Pennsylvania Intelligencer will be published Daily during the session, and Weekly the remainder of the year—on the following terms:

For the session—Daily, $2 00
For the year—Daily and Weekly, 3 00

IF Payments in all cases to be made in advance. The Daily will be published on a medium sheet, the size of the dailies heretofore issued at the seat of Government: We have made arrangements for the employment of competent and experienced reporters, and will give full, accurate and impartial reports of the proceedings of the Legislature.—Ample sketches of the doings of Congress, accounts of the progress of the war, the news of the day, and a general variety of political and miscellaneous matter, will also be given.

We will so arrange as to issue every evening, a few hours after the adjournment, so that the proceedings of each day will be contained in the paper of the same evening, and will be delivered through the first mails that leave after the adjournment.

The Weekly will retain its present size and form, and will contain as great an amount and variety of reading matter as any other paper published at Harrisburg.

Apart from the consideration of any political measures that may be brought before the Legislature the ensuing session, the fact that there is a Whig majority in both branches, comprising some of the ablest men of the party, will tend to render the session one of peculiar public interest, not only to Whigs, but to men of all parties who have the good of the State at heart. An early, full and faithful report of the proceedings, cannot fail therefore, to be desirable to the mass of readers. The proceedings of Congress will also be of absorbing interest during the present session, of which we will give a daily report, as full as our limits will possibly permit.

Of the political course of our paper we deem it unnecessary to speak. We refer to our past career as a pledge of our fidelity to the Whig cause, which we shall continue to advocate with our best ability. Prominent amongst the great principles of the Whig party, is the cherished Pennsylvania doctrine of protection to American labor, which shall ever find in the Intelligencer, so long as we have the honor to control its columns, a sincere and ardent advocate. We appeal therefore, especially, to Whigs and Tariff men to aid us in our enterprise, confident that if a generous support is extended to us, we shall be able to publish such a paper as will be of service to the cause, and will give universal satisfaction.

Clubs—Three copies, Daily, for $5.00; seven do. do. $10.00. Any person obtaining four subscribers will be entitled to a fifth copy gratis. No papers will be sent without the cash accompanying the order. Monies may be remitted by mail.

Address, C. M'CURDY,
Harrisburg, Dec. 12, 1846.
