Harrisburg Daily Intelligencer.

On the commencement of the ensuing session of the Legislature, the Pennsylvania Intelligencer will be published Daily during the session, and Weekly the remainder of the year—on the following terms:

For the session—Daily, $2 00
For the year—Daily and Weekly, 3 00
Payments in all cases to be made in advance.
The Daily will be published on a medium sheet, the size of the dailies heretofore issued at the seat of Government. We have made arrangements for the employment of competent and experienced reporters, and will give full, accurate and impartial reports of the proceedings of the Legislature.—Ample sketches of the doings of Congress, accounts of the progress of the war, the news of the day, and a general variety of political and miscellaneous matter, will also be given.

We will so arrange as to issue every evening, a few hours after the adjournment, so that the proceedings of each day will be contained in the paper of the same evening, and will be delivered through the first mails that leave after the adjournment.

The Weekly will retain its present size and form; and will contain as great an amount and variety of reading matter as any other paper published at Harrisburg.

Apart from the consideration of any political measures that may be brought before the Legislature the ensuing session, the fact that there is a Whig majority in both branches, comprising some of the ablest men of the party, will tend to render the session one of peculiar public interest, not only to Whigs, but to men of all parties who have the good of the State at heart. An early, full and faithful report of the proceedings, cannot fail therefore, to be desirable to the mass of readers. The proceedings of Congress will also be of absorbing interest during the present session, of which we will give a daily report, as full as our limits will possibly permit.

Of the political course of our paper we deem it unnecessary to speak. We refer to our past career as a pledge of our fidelity to the Whig cause, which we shall continue to advocate with our best ability. Prominent amongst the great principles of the Whig party, is the cherished Pennsylvania doctrine of protection to American labor, which shall ever find in the Intelligencer, so long as we have the honor to control its columns, a sincere and ardent advocate. We appeal therefore, especially, to Whigs and Tariff men to aid us in our enterprise, confident that if a generous support is extended to us, we shall be able to publish such a paper as will be of service to the cause, and will give universal satisfaction.

Clubs—Three copies, Daily, for $5 00; seven do. do. $10 00. Any person obtaining four subscribers will be entitled to a fifth copy gratis. No papers will be sent without the cash accompanying the order. Monies may be remitted by mail.
Address, C. McCURDY.
