Humanity of American Soldiers.

It is pleasant to meet occasionally with incidents which relieve war of some of its horrors. and show the better traits of the American soldier in a strong light. The following extract from a letter written by Capt. Loeser, and published in a late number of the Reading Journal, is an interesting evidence of the humanity of our volunteers to a conquered enemy.

"One poor fellow, when the line halted, (he was carrying a large bundle) seated himself upon the ground, and actually ate the grass, with seeming pleasure. One of the soldiers then gave him some water, he drank largely, and by motions thanked him, and returned again to the grass. Gen. Worth just then passing, stopped and ordered one of the men, who happened to have some crackers with him, to give the poor fellow some. This was done; the man ate, more like a maniac than a Christian,-when he had finished, he fell upon his tnees and thanked him Some one who spoke Spanish, asked him when he had last eaten; he said that for 5 days nothing, not even water, had passed his lips; and I too had the honor of discovering the aqueduct leading into the city, and Gen. Worth had it cut off.

Another and more affecting case occurred, a few moments after as I was walking down toward the city. A quite well dressed Spaniard came up to one of our soldiers who was standing guard over the arms that the Mexicans had stacked, eating a small piece of cracker, and offered him 50 cents for it. The soldier refused his money but gave him a whole cracker, (you must understand that a soldier's cracker is about 5 inches square.) The man thanked him and turned again towards the boys and a girl, clapping their little hands in joy. The father divided the cracker with his little ones into four pieces, (this occurred not more than 30 feet from the soldier,) and turned again to get an- Indeed, I never derived the least benefit. other. The guard was looking on, and sticking his musket into the ground left his post to meet him, (this act under ordinary circumstances, is him four or five dollars in silver; this he still refused, and while they were thus engaged the little ones, again came up, and the soldier was shaking ther, with a little infant in her arms. The little ones actually commenced dividing their small portion of probably two day's food, with their mother. The scene was too romantic and affecting for maour hero; with his face twisted into every possible shape except that of laughing, the soldier emptied Pa.; am a farmer; am 74 years of age; and though the contents of his haversack upon the ground in you are unknown to me, I conceive you the great- March 27, 1847. their midst, and broke away, (spite of the man's est benefactor the earth ever afforded me. endeavors to retain him, while he thanked him,) wiping his eyes with his coat sleeve, more like a school boy whipped than one who had manfully stood a three day's cannonading from nearly 200 Philadelphia. guns.
