In addition to the numerous deaths caused by the explosion, another death took place under very peculiar circumstances. A young man who had been employed in the neighborbood having gone to assist in extricating the sufferers, and digging the dead out of the mass of ruins, suddenly felt himself taken ill in consequence of the inhalation of the noxious at- at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, all that piece or mosphere caused by the explosion. He went parcel of Land, an equal undivided half part on and represented to a medical gentleman in Fa- the east side of the lot surveyed in the warranversham how ill he felt, and the medical gen- tee name of Christopher Stoner, numbered on two in the open air, adding that if he did not containing in the whole feel better then, he must call on him and he would prescribe some medicine for him. In the course of three hours the unfortunate man died. An inquest was held on the body, when the medical gentleman referred to gave it as his decided opinion that he had died from the Alects of inhaling the noxious air. The jury returned a verdict accordingly.

It is stated that the house in Faversham was connected with the German inventor of the gun cotton, and that they had been manufacturing the article on a much larger scale than had ever been before thought of in this country.

To well educated Young Men.

Young men who have received a good English education, and who are accustomed to or are able to teach, will receive the detailed particulars of a respectable, permanent and lucrative employment, which may be followed in any part of the United States, from Maine to Texas, by addressing box 1913, New York, giving real name and address, and good references.

The Locofocos are awfully frightened at the fate that awaits them in this State. Their Central Committee are busily engaged in issuing addresses, circulars, &c. to excite their party to action; and some of their papers are manufacturing letters purporting to come from different countries, showing the flourishing prospect before them. It all won't do, gentleman ! You're bound to be beaten; the people have willed it .- Bucks County Intelligenger.
