Great Battle Sheet Brother Jonathan.

We have received from WILSON & Co., New York, an immense pictorial sheet five and a half feet long by three feet wide, filled with large engravings, and containing a concise his tory of the war in Mexico and all the principle battles, up to the present time. The entire first page of this monster paper is occupied with an equestrian likeness of Gen. Taylor, and the last page has excellent portraits of Gen. Scott, and other distinguished American officers. The paper also contains numerous engravings of the various interesting incidents of the war. The price is only 12 cents per copy, or ten for one dollar.

Gov. Young, of New York, has designated Thursday, the 25th of November, as a day of Thanksgiving-making the fourth State that will observe the same day, viz-New Hampshire, Missouri, Massachusetts, and N. York.

FOR THE JEFFERSONIAN REPUBLICAN. The Lecture.

The Hon. James M. Porter, of Easton, delivered a very able lecture on "Mental Improvement as applicable to the Mechanic Arts," in the Court-house in Stroudsbarg, on Wednesday evening of last week. We droped in at an early hour and were highly gratified to see deep and laudible interest excited in reference to the subject, as was most clearly verified by the large, respectable and intelligent auditoy that had assembled to participate in the intellectual feast. We will not attempt a synopsis, but be content with saying that it was chaste, elegant and highly instructive discourse -and worthy the pre-eminent abilities of the distinguished speaker. In the cultivation of the mind was recognized the grand principle conservative of the best interests of men-and which has a powerful bearing upon all the economical relations of life, and when applied to the Mechanic Arts, or in other words when science is linked with her twin-sister inventive genious, the condition of our race is not only ameliorated by the astonishing developements of this union, but man is elevated to that high and lofty remove designed by his Creator .-The truth of what is here stated, is apparent when we cast our eyes around us and behold the splendid creations of civilized life, which not only please us with the beauty and order of their conception and design, but interest us by their varied and complicated structure and asionish us by the magnitude of their results .--We cannot but admire the many triumphs of Science and Art at the present day, and each brilliant achievement seems but the shadowing forth of another frought with still deeper interest, and capable of more magnificent results. The Mechanic and Artist, likewise those who delight to wander in the flowery paths of science, are by these developements stimulated to nobler action and impelled forward with in-Washington, October 20. The steamer Fashion arrived at New Oreans on the 13th, with late and important news from Gen. Scott's army. The Picayune contains Mr. Cendall's letters to September 28th -dated at city of Mexico. The news is glorious. Gen. Scott is in full possession of the city, but our losses are severe, and the details of killed and wounded heart-rending. Thank God, says the Picayune, none of our Generals are killed, but Maj. General Pillow and Gen. Shilds were both wounded, but were doing well at last accounts.

I the battle of King's Mills, seven hundred men were killed and wounded. Gen Worth's division lost about 600 in killed and wounded, in the battle of the 13th. In the storming of James S. Bisbing Chapultepec and the attack on the Citadel, Quitman's division lost 300; Twiggs' division lost 268; Gen. Pillow's division lost 142, and Gorth's lost 138, making the total loss 848 in all. Gen. Worth had scarcely 1000 men in this action. Our entire loss, since leaving Puebla, in killed and wounded, Mr. Kendall sets down at full 3000 --- another authority makes it 4000---and yet Gen. Scott entered the valley of Mexico with only a little exceeding 10,000 Fran men. What wonders these 10,000 men have Can achieved!

The Picayune says that Cols. McIntosh and Pop Cranson, Lieut. Col. Martin Scott, Lieut. Col. Graham, of the 7th Infantry, Lieut. Col. Bax- Jam ter, of the New York regiment, have all been Tree killed.

"Mr. Trist has been recalled -- his mission having terminated in another failure, and the government having determined to withdraw all overtures for peace. I presume that Col. Mexico must be made to defray the expenses of the war, so far as the means may be found in her possession."

The rumors that have reached us through La Patria of New Orleans, and the Arco Iris, of Vera Cruz, are of a truly exciting and alarming character. Doubtless these statements are grossly exagerated, and yet we cannot but fear that they are not wholly unfounded, It should be remembered that these various versions are, some of them at least, dated as late as September 24th, by way of Tampico. The most alarming story is that related in a letter

Sergeant Riley, the deserter, says the New York Commercial, was well known by many in this community. He was recruiting sergeant for some time, and kept the rendezvous next to the corner of Ceder, in Washington st. Riley was a man of very large frame, more than six feet high. He was formerly a sergeant in the 66th regiment of the British army, stationed in Canada, from which he deserted, and came to Philadelphia. Shortly after he joined the U. Great Race.

There was a spirited race on L. Island, last Wednesday, between Fashion, the champton mare of the North, and Passenger, the great gun of the South, which termihated in favor of the latter. There was from 10,000 to 15,000 persons present, including ladies. The sum run for was $1500, but it is supposed that thirty times that amount was staked upon the result. Fashion was the popular corse, and large odds were offered on her head ; the Southern gelding however, finished her up in two heats .--Time, first heat, seven minutes 45 seconds .--Second heat, 7 minutes 48 seconds.

The total liabilities of all the houses that have recently failed in England are said to be one hundred and seventeen millions and a half of dollars ! Of this amount, at least one hundred and five millions of dollars belong to the United Kingdom.

It was recently stated in parliament, that 670,-000 persons had left the United Kingdom for America during the last ten years. Last year alone 110,000 sought a home in our land, and it is calculated that 300,000 will come to America this year.
