

Thursday, March 2, 1848.

Terms, $2,00 in advance. $2,25 half yearly; and $2,50 if paid before the end of the year.

IF L. BARNES, at Milford, 18 duly author ized to act as Agent for this paper; to receive subscriptions, advertisements, orders for job-work, and payments for the same.

(F" "Richelieu," the Washington correspondent of the New-York Tribune, says that Capt. Sibley arrived at Washington with despatches from, Gen. Wool, containing propositions from the authorities of Sonora, Chihuahua, Cohahuila, New Leon, and other Mexican provinces, to be annexed to this country.

Special Election in Bucks and Lehigh.

We have full returns of the election held in the Sixth Congressional District on the 23d ult., to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the Hon. John W. Hornbeck. The returns foots up as follows:

|                       | Trexler (W.) | Bridges (L.) |
|-----------------------|--------------|--------------|
| Bucks,                | 4122         | 4251         |
| Lehigh,               | 2271         | 2275         |
|                       | 6393         | 6526         |
|                       |              | 6393         |
| Majority for Bridges, |              | 133          |

The Treaty with Mexico.

posed by the Mexican Government, and now before the Senate, at Washington :

and Mexico, and an Armistice between the was not listened to-and his presence only ining such time as the Treaty shall be in sus- immense multitude would not disperse, without York, 253,000 farmers, 51,000 merchants, 13, pense. &c, that the boundary between the United for the enthusiastic welcome he had received States and Mexico shall hereafter be from the adding --"You are the most unreasonable people Sea up the middle of the Rio Grande to the boundary of New Mexico, and thence in a line have met with ; you are determined to have which (with some digression) is to run west (or something out of my mouth when I need some nearly west) to the Pacific Ocean, and strike a thing to put in it." [Here a tremendous cheer point south of the port of San Diego. went up

Henry Clay in Philadelphia. We had the pleasure of witnessing the re eption of the Great Statesman in Philapelphia, on the 24th ult. Such a scene of joy and en husiasm we never before beheld. He was re ceived at Broad and Prime Streets, by an im mense concourse of citizens, on foot, on horse back, and in carriages, and conducted to a ba rouche provided for the occasion, drawn by four gray horses. On reaching the couch accom panied by Mayor Swift and John Struthers Esq, Mr. Clay bowed respectfully to the im nense multitude, and took his seat, greeted with deafening cheers. The carriage ther moved up Broad street preceded by hundred of horsemen, followed by citizens in carriages and on foot, to the number of many thousand--and passing through portions of Arch, Tenth

Death of Ex-President Adams.

It becomes our painful duty to announce to or readers, that the Sage of Quincy has fallen and best Patriots and Statesmen. The vener nesday of last week, full of years and full of est and best benefactor, and whose whole life ory will be forever cherished in the hearts of President but Henry Clay. he American people. The name of that great man will go down to posterity, surrounded with halo of glory.

Chesnut, Third, Walnut, and Spruce streets, From the National Intelligencer of the 24th ult. amid the smiles of the fair, the waving of ker chiefs, and the throng of persons who frequent- QUINCY ADAMS, expired at the Capitol last y blocked up the streets, and rent the air with evening a little after seven o'clock. He lin-gention in good part self-appointed, and not gered, to all appearance, insensible and uncon their shouts of welcome, it arrived at the residence of Mayor Swift, Tenth below Walnut. Scious from the period of his attack on Monday where Mr. Clay alighted to take up his abode until an hour after sunset last evening, when he erably steady Loco-Foco ; next Charles Shaluring his stay in the city. Here so great a gently breathed his last, and his "spirit returned gler, who has run very nearly such a round as crowd had jammed together in the street, that to God who gave it." It is not for us to prot was difficult for the distinguished guest to nounce the eulogy of one so eminent, and so each the steps of the mansion. He turned, shonorably and constantly associated with al and bowing gracefully to the multitude, swung that was exalted in the country's history, from -But our business is with the Whigs who one of the numerous boquets that had been the very foundation of the Government to the aided to get up and who figured in this Convention. We ask them to consider whether thrown to him, and skipped into the house, a spresent time. That task will be fittingly dis heir conduct is consistent with good faith tolively as a boy. charged by more competent and more approward their Whig brethren who have not ye

The disappointed crowd eagerly insisted priate hands. It will suffice for this brief no upon a speech ; and after some minutes con-Brice to say, that few men have filled a larger tinued calls, Mr. Clay appeared at a chamber space or acted a more important part in the great National party, whose Representatives in window, to excuse himself. Not satisfied, the great civil affairs of their country; that few crowd still demanded a speech, and another have commanded a higher admiration for abili-a National Convention. Are we not in some The following the National Intelligence un-rapology was offered without effect ; when the nies, or won a wider respect for unwavering in derstands, is the substance of the Treaty pro- Mayor came forward to address the crowd and tegrity and a rigid adherence to his views of remonstrate against their importunities, as Mr. duty. His domestic character was not less Convention? Yet here we see Whigs, uniting Clay was fatigued and exhausted by his day's bright than his public, and was truly above all

First. Peace between the United States travel without refreshment. But the Mayor praise and all reproach.

Military Commanders of the two countries dur- creased the clamor for Mr. Clay. Finding the There are 5.800 taverns in the State of New and views of their Whig brethren with a decent quiet uil long after Gen. TAYLOR, Mr. WEB-Tone of the markets of that city. STER, Gen. SCOTT, and even Judge McLEAN A Nation mourns the loss of one of her purest had been formally proposed for next President, vet we are frequently asked on this side and on able ex-President died at Washington, on Wed-Fihat, ' Why are you agitating the Presidential question? Why not lie still and await the action of the Whig National Convention ?honors. The grief of a Nation will hallow the We answer, If we Claymen keep still, the grave of one who has proved himself her great-friends of other candidates will not ; they began before us; they will persevere until the ques-time make a perfect cure of the most violent athas been spent in the service of his country. Stion is decided; they leave us but the alterna-tack, either of Rheumatism or Gout; at the samtive of speaking out or virtually conceding that time the blood and other fluids will be so com-JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, is no more, but his mem-like People are thinking of everybody else for

The Pennsylvania Operation.

But look at this latest development of Tay-Philanthropist, pure Patriot and eminent States. Slorism in a Penn-ylvania State Convention, called expressly as a Taylor Convention, regardless of all former party distinctions, presided over by J. Madison Porter, who was a National Republican up to 1832, then a violent Jackson man till '42; then a Tyler man and The venerable Patriot and Statesman, JOHN Cabinet Minister ; thence went back into Loco-Focoism, and now is a Taylor man. This Con-Frepresenting even thus more than two-thirds of he State, gravely nominates a Taylor Electoral Ticket, beginning with John C. Bucher, a tol-M. Porter; then Thos. D. Grover, a leading hat such a clumsy piece of mo-aic as this can hold together till November ?

> been enlightened to see the beauties of Taylor sism. Here we are, members together of a Congress have resolved without dissent that sense bound, so long as we choose to be regarded as Whigs, to defer to the action of that with opponents of all shades in an uncondition ai nomination of one who declares that he will not be the candidate of any party nor identified in its principles. Is this treating the opinions frespect and forbearance ?

AN OLD WOMAN, 70 years of age, has been Although the friends of HENRY CLAY kept arrested in New York for picking pockets in

> OUT .- Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are I a certain cure for this painful malady ; because they purge from the body those morbid humors, which are the cause not only of Gout and Rheumatism, but of every ache and pain we suffer. From four to eight of said Indian Vegetable Pills taken every night on going to bed, or if the pain is severe, night and morning, will in a short pletely purified, that pain of every description will be literally driven from the body.

Beware of Sugar Coated Counterfeits .-- Remember, that the original and only genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the written signature of Will-LIAM WRIGHT on the top label of each box. For sale by George H. Miller, who is the only authorized agent for Stroudsburg ; see advertise. ment for other agencies in another column. Office and general depot, 169 Race st. Phil'a.

Administratrix Sale of

By virtue of an alias order of the Orphans' Court of the County of Pike, the subscriber. Administratrix of the estate of Lewis Cornelius, deceased, will offer for sale at public vendue. at the house of John Cornelius, in Milford, on Native, and so on. Does any man imagine Tuesday the 28th day of March next, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the following described property, to wit: All that certain farm situate in the township of Dingman, County of Pike, adjoining lands of Samuel S. Thrall and William Brink, containing 117 Acres and 51 Perches,

with allowances; of which SO acres are plough land, 15 MEADOW, and the remainder

WOOD-LAND. On the said premises are erected one wo large BARNS, and other convenent out buildings.

Upon the said farm are five never failing SPRINGS of WATER. Also a variety of choice cultivated Fruit Trees.

Said farm is pleasantly situated about a quarer of a mile from the Delaware River, and a mile and a half from the village of Milford, and about eight miles from the New York and Erie

"I trust you will all agree with me as to one Thirdly. In consideration of this large cession of Territory the United States are to pay thing," said Mr. Clay. [" Aye-aye"-cried 10 Mexico the sum of Fifteen Millions of Dol- thousands of voices --- giving their assent ]-lars, and to satisfy all just claims of citizens of "That is, that you had better go home and get the United States against the Government of your suppers, and let me get my dinner." Here Mr. Clay bowed respectfully and dis Mexico.

The Treaty is understood to contain many appeared ; and the people, feeling that he had provisions of detail; but does not, as we hear, fairly outwitted them, gave him rounds of en include any provision, as has been reported, for thusiastic cheers, and then quietly dispersed the maintenance of a Military force by the It was six o'clock ; and high time, certainly, for United States for a certain time in Mexico. dinner.

The Treaty makes its appearance in a ques- Of all displays of popular enthusiasm we tionable form ; being concluded by Mr. TRIST, have ever witnessed, this was by far the mos as with full powers, after those powers had glorious. Here was a private citizen, comin been withdrawn, or intended to be withdrawn, among the people, upon a professional visit by the Executive. It is understood, however, not as a conqueror, bedecked with the trophies that the Treaty, such as it is, will be submitted of an hundred victorious battles ; not as the ruby the President to the Senate for its consider-ler of a nation, with millions of patronage to ation. What will be its fate in that body we dispense ; but as a plain, simple citizen of a free country, whose brilliant talents, patriotic shall not undertake to predict. -

We can at least rejoice at one thing ; that civil services, and ennobling virtues as a many which the subject of repealing the license law for the present there is a cessation of hostilities and a statesman, have enshrined him in the of last session was referred, presented their rein Mexico. May it be perpetual !

The Hon. John J. Crittenden has been nominated by the Whigs of Kentucky, as their can didate for Governor.

IF The ' Village Record' of the 22d ult., says :- The Directors of the Chester County Bank on Tuesday last, burned $420,000 of the old issues of this institution. The balance of the old issues now in circulation is so small that it will render it difficult and dangerous for the robbers to pass their stolen notes.

The editor of the Newark Herald says he has been several times deliberately insulted of late, your strops, I'd quit it to-day." the last instance being the presentation of a keg of oysters! Thinking "discretion the better part ference between your lying and mine, is this : of valor," he swallowed the insult as deliberately My strops enable me to LIE in a good warm as it was offered. bed, while rum makes you LIE in the gutter."

An exchange paper says -- "A Miss Brown preaches in England in a state of Somnambulism. In this country it is generally the re hearing the music of his voice, Mr. Clay came 000 manufacturers, 125,000 mechanics, 4,000 Secondly. Mexico agrees, in consideration, to the window and made his acknowledgements doctors, and 4,300 preachers.

A Jury Verdict.

A case was recently submitted to a jury in this county, which, for its novely and happy esult, deserves a place in "the reports."

It arose from the following circumstance:-Two men, hving near neighbors, had a fall-ng out about the cow of one of the parties frequently getting into the enclosure of the other. Hers ever more. But we do not believe they and which finally resulted in the death of the can succeed .- Tribune.

cow; she having been set on by dogs and chased till she ran against a stump and broke her neck.

The case was submitted to a jury of respect-was it used to be called, waited formally upon able farmers. After hearing related all the circumstances, the jury made up their minds that the owner of the cow could not afford to lose her, and that the owner of the dogs was not the following verdict : that the jury should pay the value of the cow, the magistrate treat the party, and the constable pay the costs.

The verdict was immediately ratified and satisfied to the great joy of the entire neighborhood.—Kentucky Democrat.

The License Law in New Jersey. The majority of the Special Committee to taneous, unbought homage of a free, intelligent. result of their deliberations: and virtuous people. What more glorious a-"After a careful investigation, and under a mong earthly honors! And who would not deep sense of the responsibilities they assume, rather be Henry Clay than President of the the Committee state that they believe the pub-United States ?--- Bucks County Intelligencer.

that licenses granted be so modified as to pro-Whoever undertakes to put a joke on the hibit the sale of liquor on the Sabbath. Razor Strop man" is sure to get floored in the long run. While selling his strops a short ROBBERY OF THE "STABLE AT BETHLEime since in Plymouth, and expatiating the HEM." The large silver star such in the place evils of rum drinking, a tipsy fellow cried out, supposed to have been the site of the manger " If rum made me lie as fast as you in selling where Christ was born has been stolen. The

" LOOKING AHEAD."-- The daughter of the sented its usual volume to the vision of the highest, and the damping was perfect in all a very anniable gentleman, but whose years un-galteration was easily perceptible, even to the The tipsy man sloped, evidently lying under fortunately numbered thirty-six while his in- naked eye! Its Form, too, is altered. Its lat- ary 4, 1848, contains the following notice: very great mistake in supposing that he could grended's only reached eighteen. 'I hough na-gitude has decreased while its longitude has been Sprolonged! turally of a cheerful disposition she had seemed

--We are not blind to the game these gentlemen are playing. They mean so to preoccupy the ground that they can plausibly urge, when the Convention meets, that Mr. Clay is out of the question--that we have only Hobson's choice, Taylor or nobody. They get up these resselated Conventions in order to use them a arguments against any nomination but that of Paylor --- to forestall and coerce the action of the Whig party. If they are allowed to succeed in this course, the party is at the mercy of a few scheming and unscrupulous wire-work-

Circumstantial evidence.

A good many years ago, two elderly maiden adies at Milford, who liver by Mystic Pond,

Justice W----, to enter a complaint against READY MADE CLOTHING, as Tanner's they thought abominable, and he it was that two respectable females could not able to pay for her; they therefore rendered look out of their windows of a morning without being shocked at his indecencies. If there was no law for such outrages, they were very sure there ought to be one. Such an example as John Turner's was enough to corrupt the city of London-they could tolerate it no longer. &c. With much difficulty, and a world of questioning the magistrate at last got from their virginal lips the specific nature of their grievance. It appeared that John Turner was in the habit of bathing every morning in the pond, on the opposite side to where the maidens hearts of his countrymen ... receiving the spon-port a few days since. The following is the me that the pond is at least half a mile wide, see how you could indentify John Turner at that distance--or indeed, how you could tell ished instruments, conceiving the best palpable whether it was a man or a beast in the water." tests of a piano to be its musical capabilities, lic good will be promoted by the repeal of the sters, ' we were in doubt more than a week, or that elegance of finish, which effects neither haw, and therefore recommend a repeal, and and at last Sarah happened to think of sending the action nor the tone, and is only designed to to borrow Capt. Dempsey's spyglass, and this nade all clear.'

Astronomical Phenomenon.

By recent discoveries at the National Observatory, Washington City, and other places, it has been ascertained that the Sun has decreased in volume nearly one-tenth !--- and this singular phenomenon has occurred entirely du-Latins and Greeks accuse each other of the ring the past month! The change took place suddenly, since, according to accurate obsservations, on the morning of the 18th ult, it pre-

Countess D., was about to marry in a few days spectator, yet as it arose on the next day, the Road. Terms of sale prescribed by the said Court are, one half cash and the balance in two equal annual payments with interest, secured by bond and mortgage on the premises.

ELIZABETH CORNELIUS, Administratrix.

Milford, March 2, 1848 --- 41

WHOLESALE CLOTHING WAREHOUSE, No 1524 MARKET STREET. (Between 4th and 5th.) PHILADELPHIA.

The subscriber respectfully solicits the atention of Country Merchants and Dealers' genrally to an examination of a one John Torner and others. Such conduct Which for extent, variety and workmanship, he flatters himself will give universal satisfaction. ought to be taken care of. It was a shame, so while his reduced scale of prices presents to purchasers inducements which cannot be surpassed by any other establishment in the United States. JACOB REED.

COMPLETE STOCK

Philadelphia, March 2, 1848 --- 3m.

Look at this, no Humbug but Reality. PIANO FORTES FOR SALE.

A copy of the report of the Judges of Masical Instruments at the late exhibition of the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia:

The Committee have awarded C. Meyer with premium for the best seven octave Piano .---. But ladies,' said the magistrate, 'it seems to The ground of this decision was the general excellence of the piano, and especially its powand you do not live very close to it. I do nother, brilliancy, and delicacy of touch. judges did not give premiums for the best fin-. No more we could, replied one of the spin-hand not its originality, its mechanical igenuity. please the eye and not to satisfy the ear.

Another copy of the report of the judges of nusical instruments at the last exhibition at Boston :-- The committee have selected No. 591 a seven octave piano made by C. Meyer, worthy of special commendation.

No. 591, is a very fine instrument, particularly commendable for its elastic and ready touch, in repeated trials by different hands .... The keys never failed of certain repetitions in the shake. The tone throughout was even of great beauty and power from the lowest note to cases.

The North American of Philadelphia, Janu-A Compliment to a Philadelphia Piano Manufacturer .--- Our Boston neighbors know how as well as we do to appreciate a good thing. The Massachusetts Charitable Mechanical Associa-The Easton Argus says that a nephew of the tion, at their last Annual Fair, -- that of the aulate Peter Miller, who died about a year ago, sumn of 1847-awarded to CONRAD MEYER, the with the intention of contesting the will, and if octave piano -- a compliment no other piano. The subscriber keeps always on hand a supthe finest and most valuable property in Easton. ond hand instruments, at manufacturers prices. A. ZUILCH, Agent for C. M. Easton, March 2, 1848, .- 6m get the upper hand of the "Razor Strop Man." sad for several days, which at last attracted the verse .-- the preacher is wide awake and the au-Will of the Late Peter Miller. A Big Leap. attention of the mother : " My dear child," said dience full of flees. the latter one evening, " how serious you look A horse belonging to a Mr. White, of Balij---what are you thinking about so deeply ?" more, made a lcap at Charlestown, Va., a few

" Very good," replied Smith, " The only dif- robbery.

Curious Fact.

A correspondent of one of the Cincinnati pa. days since, which is close kin to the famous sigh, "I am thinking that my future husband is pers states that the Buena Vista battle field is leap made by Putnam's horse, in revolutionary just double my age." times. Running off from fright, he encountered "That's true-but no matter-you don't think possible set it aside ; having employed counsel manufacturer of our city has received. sull covered with bones, coats, pants, shoes, knapsacks, &c. And what is most singular of a mill-race 12 feet in depth, which he attempted thim old at thirty-six ?" all is, that a few Mexicans who were left unto leap 10 feet from its edge, but striking the when I shall be fifty-' buried are still on the battle field entire. Neisopposite bank with his head, dislocated his " Well, what then ?" ther putrefaction nor the wolves prey upon neck, fell back and expired. The distance her them, but they are dried up like mummies. jumped is said to be twenty five feet ! Paner

A Quick Retort.

"Mamma," replied the Miss with a deep leaving a very queer kind of a will, has arrived celebrated Piano Manufacturer of this city, a at that place from Ohto, his place of residence, diploma and silver medal, for the best seven for that purpose. If he succeeds he will fall "No; it is not so bad now -- but just think their to an estate estimated at from three to four ply of C. Meyer's Planos, which he will dis hundred thousand dollars, embracing some of nose of, either for cash or in exchange for sec-"Why, then he'll be a hundred ?"--Foreign 1 is the opinion of many that he will accomplish his of ject. the meridial includes and