PIANO FORTES
FOR SALE.

A copy of the report of the Judges of Musical Instruments at the late exhibition of the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia:

The Committee have awarded C. Meyer with a premium for the best seven octave Piano. The ground of this decision was the general excellence of the piano, and especially its power, brilliancy, and delicacy of touch. The judges did not give premiums for the best finished instruments, conceiving the best palpable tests of a piano to be its musical capabilities, and not its originality, its mechanical identity, or that elegance of finish, which effects neither the action nor the tone, and is only designed to please the eye and not to satisfy the ear.

Another copy of the report of the judges of musical instruments at the last exhibition at Boston:--The committee have selected No. 591 a seven octave piano made by C. Meyer, worthy of special commendation.

No. 591, is a very fine instrument, particularly commendable for its elastic and ready touch, in repeated trials by different hands. The keys never failed of certain repetitions in the shake. The tone throughout was even of great beauty and power from the lowest note to highest, and the damping was perfect in all cases.

The North American of Philadelphia, January 4, 1848, contains the following notice:

A Compliment to a Philadelphia Piano Manufacturer.--Our Boston neighbors know how well as we do to appreciate a good thing. The Massachusetts Charitable Mechanical Association, at their last Annual Fair,--that of the autumn of 1847--awarded to CONRAD MEYER, the celebrated Piano Manufacturer of this city, a diploma and silver medal, for the best seven octave piano--a compliment no other piano manufacturer of our city has received.

The subscriber keeps always on hand a supply of C. Meyer's Pianos, which he will dispose of, either for cash or in exchange for second hand instruments, at manufacturers prices.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills
In the City of Mexico!--Great success among the Volunteers!

Extract of a letter from the editor of the Greenville Mountaineer, S C

Dr. W. Wright--Dear Sir: * * * A week or two ago I sent you a Mountaineer, containing a letter from one of our Volunteers in the City of Mexico, in which he says Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, under all the circumstances, the highest need of praise I have ever known a medicine to receive. The Volunteer, William W. Goodlett, Esq., is a gentleman of fine standing--an accomplished and well educated man, and was recently

HIGH SHERIFF
Of this District. By one of your advertisements in a Charleston paper, I happened to notice the location of your office, and thought you might extract an article of some value in regard to your medicine, therefore I sent the paper

The following is an extract from the letter referred to above:

"My health is very fast improving. I procured, a few days ago, some of Dr. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, and they have acted on my system LIKE MAGIC!"

Thus it appears that the brave and patriotic Volunteers who have gone to Mexico, to defend the rights and honor of their country, already begin to realize the extraordinary value of this incomparable medicine. Long life to them!

HORRIBLE MISTAKES!!

Are sometimes made by confounding one medicine with another, and administering the wrong article. Equally horrible are those mistakes which are made in supposing that all Pills are alike, and that therefore, it is indifferent which are taken, and if one kind is bad all are bad together. This is a very great mistake. There is as much difference between Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills and other articles, as between midnight and noonday!--We do not wish any to take our word for this statement. Let any one, having other medicines, try this. Nothing more will be necessary.

Many persons have been led away by a coating of Sugar, as if they anticipated that it would remove the nausea of the medicine. But they are generally mistaken. Without the sugar those articles have nothing to recommend them, and would not be sold a single day. But with the sugar, and by giving the article a name similar to Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, they gain a temporary notoriety. Wolves they are, in sheep's clothing, to whom the public should steer sufficiently clear.

Let it be remembered that WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS are prepared with special reference to the laws governing the human body. Consequently, they are always good, always useful, always effective in rooting out disease. Every family should keep them at hand.

The following Agencies have been established for the sale of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, in
