

A Tall Candidate.
We give the following extract from a letter of the Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Herald for what it is worth, promising only that we have a similar intimation from one who professed to speak knowingly:
"Be not surprised, oh, ye intelligent readers of the Herald, however, if all the democrats in the field should be set aside and a new man taken up, say for example Gov. Shunk, of Pennsylvania. We know that there is a movement here going on for him; and he would be, from his position, and from the fact that he is a plain man of the people, one of the most formidable candidates that the democrats could appoint.—The nomination of Mr. Polk was laughed at in 1844. Look out that the same policy of a new man is not the ticket for 1848."

A Very Sensible Clergyman.
A few days previous to the election in Chicago, which resulted in the complete overthrow of locofocoism in that enterprising city, a Methodist minister, holding fourth in a school house in the suburbs, concluded the service of the day with the following very appropriate remarks:
"And now, O Lord, we ask of thee to protect our favored land, and keep it in the way of democracy—the good old democracy that protects the civil and religious rights of the people, and not that prairie wolf democracy which has so long cursed the benighted State of Illinois. We ask it for the Redeemer's sake—Amen."

Rev. WILLIAM G. BROWNLOW, of the Jonesborough (Tenn.) Whig, writes from New Orleans (where he is on a visit) to that paper, giving an account by no means flattering of the Crescent City. He devotes a page of the Whig to the description. We give a specimen:
"New Orleans is a 'head and shoulders taller' than any city I ever was in. Nay, it is 'a pole and compass' deeper in the sinks of iniquity than any city I ever was in. The devil operates here upon a large scale, and really has his barracks here, together with the most of his recruiting officers."
Rev. Dr. CLAPP, of this city, has delivered a sermon, in which it is made to appear that there is no hell in the next life in which to punish sinners! This is an important discovery, and revives the drooping spirits of thousands here, who know that, if the vulgar notion of a hell in the next life be true, they will have to pay for the roast. It is more important to the inhabitants of New Orleans to have the doctrine of hell fire and future punishment done away with than of any other city I was ever in!"

Humburgiana.
One of the city prints makes an effort to get up an "excitement," on the ground of John Jacob Astor never having been naturalized, and consequently his great estate must revert to the State. How foolish is all this! Every person who had settled or was an inhabitant of this country previous to the adoption of the Constitution of 1789, was a citizen by right. We are certain Albert Gallatin never has been naturalized, and he has held some of the highest offices in the government. If our view of the case be correct, the heirs of Mr. A. can "rest easy in their shoes," even if the public debt of New York remains unliquidated for lack of this anticipated escheat.—True Sun.

A Whopper.
A monster wolf was shot in Bedford county, Pa., a short time since. He had been prowling about the neighborhood for nine months, and during that period killed about three hundred sheep, and several cows and young cattle. He had been shot at about 100 times, but always escaped unharmed. This wolf is of the Missouri breed, entirely white and had a neck like a lion. It measured five feet six inches in length, and four feet high.

EARLY WHEAT.—A specimen of new wheat was left at the office of the Montgomery (Ala.) Journal on the 29th of April, fully ripe, to be harvested that week, if the weather was favourable.

A Strange Will.
An eccentric gentleman of Philadelphia lately deceased, left behind him an odd testament in the shape of a will from which the following is said to be an extract:
"Whereas my daughter refused me a night's lodging in her house when I had no place of abode, I therefore leave her one cent, and to her henpecked husband, half a cent, as a man who allows his wife to insult her father in his presence, is no man. To my other children I bequeath a per cent of the Fifth Commandment. To my mother-in-law I bequeath six cents, provided she buys therewith a halter to hang herself, for having swindled the Elect out of a gold watch she wears, under a pretence of benevolence and Christian conduct and behaviour."

Comfortable.
Whenever a French firm is in difficulties, the government declare their intention to take possession of the works, and carry on the business; giving the proprietor a certain share, and dividing the rest among his workmen! Thus, after paying wages, one-fourth is to go as interest for capital to the proprietor; one-fourth for a sick and aged fund; one-fourth to the workmen as a bonus; one-fourth to a reserved fund. The proprietors are to preserve their rights by having bonds given them, on the security of their own property!

Most Extraordinary Work!

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION.

BY DR. A. M. MAURICEAU, PROFESSOR OF DISEASES OF WOMAN. Sixth Edition. 18mo. pp. 250. Price $1.

25,000 Copies sold in Three Months!
Years of suffering, of physical and mental anguish to many an affectionate wife, and pecuniary difficulties to the husband, might have been spared by a timely possession of this work.

It is intended especially for the married, or those contemplating marriage, as it discloses important secrets which should be known to them particularly. Truly, knowledge is power. It is health, happiness, affluence.

The revelations contained in its pages have proved a blessing to thousands, as the innumerable letters received by the author will attest.

Here, also, every female—the wife, the mother, the one either budding into womanhood or the one in the decline of years in whom nature contemplates an important change—can discover the causes, symptoms, and the most efficient remedies, and most certain mode of cure, in every complaint to which her sex is subject.

Copies will be sent by mail free of postage to the purchaser.

Over ten thousand copies have been sent by mail within three months, with perfect safety and certainty.

On the receipt of One Dollar, the "Married Woman's Private Medical Companion" will be sent (mailed free) to any part of the United States. All letters must be post-paid (except those containing a remittance) and addressed to Dr. A. M. Mauriceau Box 1224, New-York City. Publishing Office, 129 Liberty-st., New-York.

RHEUMATISM AND GOUT.—Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a most extraordinary medicine for the cure of Rheumatism and Gout, because they not only cleanse the stomach and bowels of those morbid humors, which if taken into the circulation and thrown upon the membrane and muscle, are the cause of the above painful maladies; but they excite the absorbent vessels to take up that which is already deposited, and therefore are absolutely certain to make a perfect cure of Rheumatism and Gout. A single 25 cent box of said Indian Vegetable Pills will often give the most astonishing relief; and perseverance according to directions will be certain to drive pain of every description from the body.

Beware of Sugar Coated Counterfeits.—Remember, that the original and only genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the written signature of WILLIAM WRIGHT on the top label of each box. For sale by George H. Miller, who is the only authorized agent for Stroudsburg; see advertisement for other agencies in another column. Office and general depot, 169 Race st. Phil'a.

Look at this, no Humbug but Reality. PIANO FORTES FOR SALE.

A copy of the report of the Judges of Musical Instruments at the late exhibition of the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia:

The Committee have awarded C. Meyer with a premium for the best seven octave Piano.—The ground of this decision was the general excellence of the piano, and especially its power, brilliancy, and delicacy of touch. The judges did not give premiums for the best finished instruments, conceiving the best palpable tests of a piano to be its musical capabilities, and not its originality, its mechanical ingenuity, or that elegance of finish, which effects neither the action nor the tone, and is only designed to please the eye and not to satisfy the ear.

Another copy of the report of the judges of musical instruments at the last exhibition at Boston:—The committee have selected No. 591 a seven octave piano made by C. Meyer, worthy of special commendation.

No. 591, is a very fine instrument, particularly commendable for its elastic and ready touch, in repeated trials by different hands.—The keys never failed of certain repetitions in the shake. The tone throughout was even of great beauty and power from the lowest note to highest, and the damping was perfect in all cases.

The North American of Philadelphia, January 4, 1848, contains the following notice:

A Compliment to a Philadelphia Piano Manufacturer.—Our Boston neighbors know how as well as we do to appreciate a good thing. The Massachusetts Charitable Mechanical Association, at their last Annual Fair,—that of the autumn of 1847—awarded to CONRAD MEYER, the celebrated Piano Manufacturer of this city, a diploma and silver medal, for the best seven octave piano—a compliment no other piano manufacturer of our city has received.

The subscriber keeps always on hand a supply of C. Meyer's Pianos, which he will dispose of, either for cash or in exchange for second hand instruments, at manufacturers prices.
