

Arrival of the Steamer Caledonia.

The steam ship Caledonia arrived at Boston on Sunday. The news is of a very meagre character.

The friends of a permanent and peaceful republic in France, headed by Lamartine, carried a majority of the National Assembly by a decided vote, notwithstanding the utmost exertions of the ultra Republicans and Communists, who left neither fair nor foul means untried to effect a different result. Some fears are entertained by the timid of the violent of the minority resorting to ulterior measures in order to render the past proceedings, in the establishment of a republic, nugatory.

It is stated that the Provisional Government have determined to interfere in the affairs of Italy, against Austrian domination.

Liverpool Cotton Market.—A marked improvement has taken place in the Cotton Market since this day week, the principle improvement being in the low and middling quotations, which has been previously so much depressed. Both manufacturers and speculators have shown increased activity. The sales of the week ending last evening amounted to the unusually large number of 39,310 bales, of which 5000 were taken for export, and 1000 on speculation.

From the Fort Smith (Ark.) Herald of April 12th. Great Hail Storm in the Seminole Country.

Marcellus Duval, Esq., Seminole agent, arrived in this place, from the Seminole country, on Wednesday last. From him we learn that, on the 26th of March last, the valley of the Canadian, about one hundred and fifty miles west of this, was visited with one of the severest storms of hail that ever fell, the hail-stones being about the size of hens' eggs, and some even larger. Where Mr. Duval was the hail-stones were not so large, he being on a ridge, but on either side, on the river and in the prairie, the storm was terrific.

The wild geese and brants, a species of the wild goose, appeared to be on the wing that day, migrating in great numbers from south to north, and were killed by hundreds with the hail while flying. Thirty were counted in one place, lying dead, by some persons who passed the spot shortly after the storm. Some fell dead in the yard of a Seminole chief named Micoony, who picked them up, had them cooked, and ate them. He told the agent afterwards he thought the great Spirit had sent them to the Indians, knowing they were getting scarce of provisions. Some of the Indians were afraid to eat them, supposing the destruction of so great a quantity of these birds portended some evil to their country; others carried them home by horse loads. The agent says that he never heard of any thing of the like, before in his life, and when he left the Indians were still bringing in from the prairies wild geese and brants by horse loads. Several of the Indian cabins were blown down and others unroofed by the storm, but fortunately no person was killed.

From the New York Tribune. A New Game.

For the benefit of strangers who may visit this City, and all others who may be interested, I communicate the following which transpired this morning. Passing down Broadway on my way to Courtland-st. and when about to turn the corner to the ferry I was accosted by a rather respectable looking colored gentleman, who inquired if I had five dollars in bills to let him have for specie, as he wished to send the money away in a letter. I was about to accommodate him when another colored gentleman stepped up, who thought that ten dollars would be more convenient. I "smelt the rat" immediately but thought I would let them go on, and see the end of it. After a little talk the first named gentleman offered a man who happened to stand by, and myself, a dollar a piece if we would accompany him a little way down the street to decide a question pending somewhere. Of course, we all started off together down Broadway, and after darting around through several streets finally entered an alley at the lower end of Greenwich-st. Here one of the colored gentlemen took a pack of cards from his pocket, and selected two red-spotted ones, all there were in the pack, and then offered to bet the white gentleman fifteen dollars that these were more red ones in the pack. Of course the white gentleman deposited fifteen dollars in his pocket. The colored gentleman then wished me to hold stakes on another bet, and twenty dollars was put in my hand. The white man won. They then endeavored to get me to take a chance. I had seen the end, and then I broke out after the following manner. "My friends, you took me to be a green one, did you? You was a little bit mistaken. You have had all your trouble for nothing. I understood you from the first, and as you wanted my decision, I have decided that you all are fools as well as swindlers, and if I had the time I should get some other judge to decide a question for you. The meeting broke up instantly—the white man was no more to be seen—the colored gentlemen fled, muttering, "Why didn't you tell us you belonged to the Church?" J. K. MAGIE.

DIED.

At Two Rivers, Pike county, Pa., on the 13th inst. CHARLOTTE ELIZABETH, daughter of S. Z. and S. J. Lord, aged 6 months.

PAIN OR DISTRESS of any kind, whether of gout, rheumatism, headach, toothach, or any other kind of ache, is in all cases, caused by impure humors of the blood, which have lodged upon the parts, and which nothing save vegetable purging (purifying) can remove, because by no other means can impurity be driven from the body. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills have no superior, if indeed they have an equal, in removing every description of pain; because they carry off, by the stomach and bowels, all morbid and corrupt humors (the cause of disease) in any easy and natural manner. Four or five of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, taken on going to bed, will in a short time drive pain or distress of every kind from the system, and restore the body to a state of sound health.

Beware of Sugar Coated Counterfeits.—Remember, that the original and only genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the written signature of WILLIAM WRIGHT on the top label of each box. For sale by George H. Miller, who is the only authorized agent for Stroudsburg; see advertisement for other agencies in another column. Office and general depot, 169 Race st. Phil'a.
