

of harness, carriages, and appliances for livery stable and coach line, six horses and several dogs; estimated at over $3,000, which is not insured. His tavern stand is almost a wreck, and much of his furniture was destroyed. These losses, both of house and furniture, are covered by insurance. Mrs. Scott lost her barn, carriage, &c., about $300; not insured. Dr. Boyd lost a stable, valuable horse, cow, hogs, &c., about $500; not insured. A barn belonging to Judge Kidder, and occupied by Mr. John B. Wood, was burned; not insured. The Messrs. Davis, coachmakers, had about $100 worth of lumber destroyed. William Young, a pedlar from New York, lost from 12 to 1500 dollars, in horse, wagon, goods and money, which were in Mr. Paterbaugh's stable. It was with much difficulty that any of the many horses in the stables could be saved. The occupants of the various houses in the vicinity of the fire, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Overton, Dr. Boyd, Mrs. Garretson and others, suffered in various amounts from damage and loss of furniture. In connection with the occurrence of this fire, we may notice an incident which came very near extending the fire: the vest of Maj. Paterbaugh containing his pocket book and money, came into the possession of Henry Garner, a colored barber, who being very honestly anxious for its safety, deposited it in the office of J. J. Slocum, Esq.; a short time afterwards the office being opened to put in a trunk, the vest was found almost consumed, a spark having probably remained upon it when deposited.

Upon the next (Sunday) evening, while the rains of the fire we have just recorded were still smoking and flashing as fanned by the wind—when our citizens were seeking the repose rendered necessary by the exhausting labor of the preceding night, we were again startled by the city of fire. The stabling attached to the Black Horse Tavern, on the corner of the square, near the Jail, kept by A. R. Bacon, was burning on the back part, and again were the most strenuous exertions required to save that section of the town. The barn and stabling, with most of their contents, were destroyed. The brick residence of Mr. Joseph Slocum, was at one time in flames but was saved. The office of J. J. Slocum, Esq., was burned completely out, leaving but the brick walls standing; its loss, about $300, is covered by insurance. The frame buildings adjoining were burned to the ground: two of them were owned by Jno. G. Fell loss from $1,000 to 2,000; no insurance. The other by F. W. Hunt and Geo. Parrish, loss about $300; no insurance. The occupants were James C. Helme, cabinet maker, loss over $1,000; no insurance. Samuel Speece, blacksmith, loss small, and J. C. Frederick, tinsmith, loss about $250; no insurance. The tavern stand is nearly destroyed; it belonged to Gould and Charles Parrish, and with the stabling, was covered by an insurance of $1600. The loss of Mr. Bacon, the occupant of the tavern, in furniture, &c., was large, but it is also covered by insurance. The wood work upon the walls of the jail was partially burned, but no other damage resulted to that building. Mrs. Church, whose millinery shop is opposite the tavern, we are informed, suffered considerable loss in the removal and destruction of her goods.

Thus upon two successive nights has our village been exposed to the ravages of a fearful and destructive element. We think the actual loss cannot be less than $12,000—it will probably exceed that sum: the contingent distress and affliction is, of course, very great, we forbear any comments upon the origin of these fires. Much excitement exists, and there are a thousand conflicting and foolish rumors, to which we would ask our fellow citizens in the vicinity not to give undue credit. Several arrests have been made of persons suspected of the incendiarism and nine individuals are now in jail waiting the examination. In another column, will be seen the proceedings of the citizens of the borough in reference hereto.

In the latter, as in the case of the former fire, the wind which had been blowing strong all day, fell during the evening. Had it been otherwise, much more loss would have ensued.

CLICKENER'S SUGAR-COATED VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS.—For Liver Complaint, Affection of the Lungs, Palpitation of the Heart, Colic, Jaundice, and Worms. The Sugar-coated Pill of Dr. Clickener, is an infallible remedy. Thousands of certificates of the wonderful cures in the above complaints, through the agency of these Pills, may be seen at Dr. Clickener's office. The Pill is encased with sugar, so that the ingredients are not apparent to the taste. So skillfully is it compounded, that the patient is not subject to the distressing gripings which follow the use of almost all other medicines. Indeed, but for the thorough purging produced by the Pill, the patient would be ignorant of its invaluable properties. In all cases where the desired effect is not produced, if the Pills be taken according to the printed direction, the money will be returned. For sale at the Republican Office, by T. Schock, the only authorized agent for Stroudsburg.

SUMMER WEATHER.—It should be remembered that during the intense heat of summer, the process of digestion is performed with such extreme languor, that the food, instead of being dissolved and converted into nutriment, becomes spoiled, or putrefied in the stomach. Hence bad breath, disagreeable taste in the mouth, colic, pains, dysentery, cholera morbus and other disorders of the intestines. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a certain cure for the above dangerous complaints: because they cleanse the alimentary canal of those bilious and putrid humors, which are the cause, not only of all disorders of the bowels, but of every melancholy incident to man. Beware of Sugar Coated Counterfeits.—Remember, that the original and only genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the written signature of WRIGHT WRIGHT on the top label of each box. For sale by George H. Miller, who is the only authorized agent for Stroudsburg; see advertisement for other agencies in another column. Office and general depot, 169 Race st. Phil'a.
