

Gen. Cass Catechised--The Questions and Replies.

The Louisville Journal has brought Gen. Cass to the form, and taken him through the political catechism. Here are the questions and here the replies. It must be admitted that the result makes Gen. Cass' principles "as clear as mud," whilst it leaves no doubt that he is in favor of all things and against all things--"all things to all men."

"Are you in favor of protection, General?"
"If you are a Northern man, I refer you to my letter to the Indiana convention in 1843, but, if you are a Southern man, you will find my opinions embodied in my recent votes and speeches in the Senate."

"Are you for or against the Wilmot Proviso, General?"

"If you are a Northern man, I refer you to the edition of my life just published in the Globe office for the North; but, if you are a Southern man you will find some very good reading in the edition of my life published in the same office for the South."

"Do you approve or disapprove the annexation of Texas, General?"

"If you are an anti-annexation man, I refer you to the Detroit Advertiser for proof that I opposed the project most warmly; but, if you are an annexation man, you will find my views very satisfactorily set forth in my votes and speeches in favor of that measure."

"Are you for or against the dynasty of Louis Philippe, General?"

"If you are a Louis Philippe man, you will be so good as to read my book on the French King and Court; but, if you are an anti-Louis Philippe man, I will send you a package of my late speeches in favor of the French revolution."

"Are you for or against the improvement of rivers and lake harbors, General?"

"The noise and confusion would prevent my answer from being heard if I were to tell you."

"Is Belmont and Harrison there will not be more than half a crop of Whigs this fall."

[Cincinnati Enq.]

If locofocoism fails to produce a good crop next year, it will not be for the want of deep planting. We shall put it six feet under ground in November.--[Louisville Journal.]

To prevent further trouble about the $750 worth of letters, let Congress pass a bill to set them up to the highest bidder.

[Democrat.]

Just as Gov. Cass's Michigan law proposed to do with white men and women for walking in the night, neglecting their work, spending their own money as they pleased, or seeming a little sullen and disrespectful towards those who claimed to be their superiors.--[Louisville Jour.]

Gen. Cass signed a law in Michigan for selling white men to the highest bidder. He ought to be punished under his own law.

[N. Y. Globe.]

He seems to think so too. He has sold himself to the highest bidder repeatedly. [Louis. Jour.]

It is calculated that the heat produced by respiration in twelve hours, in the lungs of a healthy person, is such as would melt about one hundred pounds of ice.

A Change Indeed.--"Honest George Kremer," of Union county, is an out and out Taylor man, and with him go a host of political associates. Mr. Kremer is an old, staunch locofoco of the Jackson school, and has long been a leading man of that party, and frequently named in connection with the office of Governor.

Signs of the Times.

The passengers on the outward and inward bound trains of cars, (says the Buffalo Express) on the Attica and Buffalo railroad, lately took a vote upon the question of the next Presidential election, which resulted as follows:--

Outward Bound. Inward Bound

Taylor,	62	36
Van Buren,	22	3
Cass,	7	6
Hale,	7	1
Webster,	1	0
Doubtful,	2	4
---	---	---
	101	50

The following is the result of a vote taken on board the steamer Shenandoah, on her late trip from St. Louis to Pittsburg:--

Ladies. Gentlemen.

Taylor	16	36
Cass	4	16
Van Buren	0	1
---	---	---
	20	53

Majority for Old Zack 31
The Cincinnati Atlas says, the vote on board the E. W. Stephens' cabin and deck passengers, stood--Taylor 71--Cass 19.

Subterranean Fire.

It is stated by the London Times, of a late date, that a subterranean fire is burned near Sheffield, England, which has been in existence in that vicinity for a century past, and which has, at various times, undermined the ground. Portions of the Sheffield streets have sunk years ago, exposing the fearful hollow beneath. Houses have been rendered untenable on account of black and choke damp, and cellars have been closed for years. Water drawn up from wells there is found perfectly hot. Many years ago, flames at times issued from fissures in the fields, and a farm house being undermined, was torn down. Some years after, a few cottages were erected upon its site, and they are tumbling down and have been abandoned.

The Epidemic--Michigan.

The Hon. John Novell, U. S. District Attorney and ex-U. S. Senator, Hon. Lansing B. Mizner, A. Wales, Esq. Hon. Alexander Davidson, and Isaac B. Smith, all leading locofocos, have commenced the publication of a campaign paper in Detroit, devoted to the election of Taylor. The Ann Harbor Democrat and Allegan Record have dropped Cass. The deserters are so numerous that too much of our space would be occupied to chronicle even the leading ones.

"Thus star by star declines,
Till all have passed away."

At a Cass ratification meeting and pole raising, in Branch county, Michigan, lately, there proved to be more Taylor and Van Buren men than Cassites. When the "raising" commenced, the ex-Editor of the Sentinel called out at the top of his voice for three cheers for Cass, which was responded to with cheers for Van Buren and Taylor. The rigging getting tangled, a man was sent up to adjust it, which he did, and then called for "three cheers for Old Zack," which were given with tremendous effect.--The Locos then scattered, and the pole fell down!--[North American.]

PILL TAKING MADE EASY.--We announce with great pleasure the important fact that a medicine has just made its appearance which, though a powerful purgative and an unrivaled purifier of the blood, neither gripes nor nauseates, and is administered in the form of a sugar plum. We, of course, allude to Clickener's Sugar-coated Purgative Pills, which we perceive, by our exchange papers, are every where the rage, and fast driving all the old-fashioned, griping, and nauseating popular compounds out of the market.

For sale at the Republican Office, by T. Schoch, the only authorized agent for Stroudsburg.

LIVER COMPLAINT is generally accompanied with pain in the right side, extending to the top of the shoulder; variable appetite, occasionally a disordered stomach, yellow tinge of the skin and eyes, and often a swelling over the region of the liver, together with other symptoms of a corrupt state of the blood.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills will be found one of the very best medicines in the world for the cure of all diseases of the Liver; because they expel from the body those morbid humors which, when deposited upon this important organ, are the cause of every variety of Liver Complaint. From three to six of the above named Pills, taken on going to bed, will, in a short time, give such manifest relief, that no persuasion will be necessary to induce a perseverance in their use, until the liver is restored to healthy action.

Beware of Sugar Coated Counterfeits.--Remember, that the original and only genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the written signature of WILLIAM WRIGHT on the top label of each box.

For sale by George H. Miller, who is the only authorized agent for Stroudsburg; see advertisement for other agencies in another column.

Raising Blood

And Consumption, pain in the side and night sweats. Asthma, Whooping Cough, palpitation of the heart, Liver complaint, Bronchitis, And all diseases of the throat, lungs and liver, cured by Sherman's All-Healing Balsam.

RAISING BLOOD AND CONSUMPTION

Mr. Milne, Builder, in Brookfyn, was attacked with raising blood, followed by a cough, pain in the side, and all the usual symptoms of consumption. He employed two of the best physicians; they did him no good, and told him he could not live.

Hearing of the wonderful cures performed by Sherman's Balsam, he sent at 10 o'clock at night to Mrs. Hayes, 136 Fulton street, and got a bottle; it operated like a charm, stopped the bleeding and cough! Before he had taken one bottle he was able to be about his work. It had saved his life. His daughter, residing at 127 Myrtle Avenue, can attest it.

Miss Ann Maston, of Williamsburg, living in Tenth, near South Fourth-street, says--That she had been troubled with a hacking cough, and pain in the chest, for a long time, which at last became so bad that she was obliged to give up her school for more than a year. She then commenced taking the All-Healing Balsam--which soon alleviated her symptoms. She is now fast recovering, and has resumed her laborious occupation as a teacher.

14 years Mr. John O'Neil, 10th avenue and 21st street, suffered with a cough, raising of phlegm, and pain in his side. He could get no relief till he tried the All-Healing Balsam, which drove the pain from his side, allayed the cough, and brought the disease upon the surface; and before he had taken three bottles, was entirely cured.

PLEURISY AND CONSUMPTION.

Mrs. Baggas, a lady upwards of 70, residing 88 Sheriff, has for years been subject to attacks of Pleurisy, Raising of Blood, severe Cough, Shortness of Breath, Pain in her Head and various parts of her body. To the Voters of Monroe county.

Fellow Citizens:--Not having been encouraged by any of my friends I offer myself as a candidate for the office of

at the ensuing election, of my own free will and accord. The principal inducement for so doing is the fear there will not be candidates enough in the field for the dear people to choose from: yet I will not have the least objection to being elected. Should that be the case, I will pledge myself to perform the duties of the office in the following manner, viz: First--If any process comes into my hands against any one I will catch him if I can, and keep him if I can until he is legally discharged by due course of law. 2nd--Be cautious how you get into debt, for in an execution comes into my hands against any one in the County, and he has not the cash I will levy on his property if I can find any, and sell it to the best bidder, and after taking good care of my own fees I will pay over the balance where it honestly belongs.--3rd and last--If any one should be convicted of a capital crime (which God forbid) and a death warrant unfortunately come into my hands I will hang him up by the neck until he be dead, dead, dead, and may the Lord have mercy on his soul.

As to politics, I am a full blooded Rough and Ready Whig.
