Approved, For A. PLUMER,
ASA DIMOCK,
Treasury Department, Pa., August 17, 1848.

Auditor General's Office, Harrisburg, August 18, 1848.
[L. s.] I certify that the above and foregoing is a true copy of the original remaining on file in this department. Witness my hand and seal of office, the day and year aforesaid.
JOHN N. PURVIANCE, Auditor General of Monroe County, ss.
[L. s.]—I, James H. Stroud, Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas, in and for the county of Monroe, do certify that the above and foregoing is a true and full copy of the original certificate, as the same remains on file and of record in this Court. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, at Stroudsburg, the fourth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.
J. H. STROUD, Prothonotary.

STRENGTH OF THE DOG—A Novel Enterprise.—The Boston Journal says: "A team" arrived in Charlestown, last Saturday, from Salisbury, Me., 35 miles above Augusta, drawn by three small dogs. The team consisted of a small wagon, heavily laden with goods, besides containing the driver, a man of about 150 lbs. weight. He stated that they had drawn 800 lbs up hill without trouble, and that he had travelled 25 miles a day on an average.

Look Here!
We would call the attention of the people of Monroe and adjoining counties, to J. H. Melick's well selected assortment of watches, clocks, jewelry, music boxes, accordions, silver, german silver, plated and britannia spoons, thimbles, spectacles, pen knives, razors, scissors, rollers, flutes, toys, and a host of other pretty things which we could not name in a day. He has the prettiest assortment of goods in his line that was ever offered to the citizens of this County, and so cheap, that they come within the reach of all. Ladies, as well as Gentlemen, don't be behind the fashions when you can get these things at so trifling an expense. But few people visit Stroudsburg without giving him a call, and they are always sure to find something they are in want of. He makes no charge for showing his goods. If you see nothing you are in want of you are not compelled to buy, all he asks is a call to satisfy the people that he sells as cheap if not cheaper than can be had elsewhere.

To the Voters of Monroe county.

Fellow Citizens:—Not having been encouraged by any of my friends I offer myself as a candidate for the office of HIGH SHERIFF, at the ensuing election, of my own free will and accord. The principal inducement for so doing is the fear there will not be candidates enough in the field for the dear people to choose from: yet I will not have the least objection to being elected. Should that be the case, I will pledge myself to perform the duties of the office in the following manner, viz: First—If any process comes into my hands against any one I will catch him if I can, and keep him if I can until he is legally discharged by due course of law. 2d—Be cautious how you get into debt, for if an execution comes into my hands against any one in the County, and he has not the cash I will levy on his property if I can find any; and sell it to the best bidder, and after taking good care of my own fees I will pay over the balance where it honestly belongs.—3rd and last:—If any one should be convicted of a capital crime (which God forbid) and a death warrant unfortunately come into my hands I will hang him up by the neck until he be dead, dead, dead, and may the Lord have mercy on his soul. As to politics, I am a full blooded Rough and Ready Whig. Very respectfully, your humble servant.
PHILIP ABBOTT. Tobyhanna township, Aug. 17, 1848.

To the People of Monroe county.

Fellow-Citizens:—Encouraged by numerous friends I offer myself as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, at the approaching General election.
