One Thousand Cheers for Monroe!!!

Notwithstanding the unprecedented exertions of the Locofocos of this County, their private can-uses and nightly meetings in almost every school-house in the County—notwithstand the private letters "from Stroudsburg, to the different townships to guard the windows with good democrats, to challenge every Taylor vote, and crowd in all the Cass votes they could"; their majority in this County has been reduced 32 since the Governors election. Monroe gives Cass but 1312 majority—she gave Longstreth 1344. What has become of that "Blue Mountain avalanche of 1500 majority" that was claimed for Cass and Butler? What has become of the 250 votes for Cass in Stroud township? Instead of the 250 votes claimed, he received 201 and Taylor 197, leaving for Cass and Butler the paltry majority of 4 votes.... Schoonover, one of the Cass electors, had 6 less in this County than the rest of his ticket. Well done Stroud—Hurrah for Monroe.

Chester County Bank Robbery.

The villains who robbed Dr. Darlington, President of the Chester County Bank, seem likely to meet with justice. Numerous arrests of persons suspected of participating in the act, have taken place. On Friday week the Grand Jury of Philadelphia found true bills against the following persons: George Willims, alias Slappy, John Whitehouse, alias Old Duke, Robert White, alias Robert Pinkerton, and John Thompson, alias Tobacco Jack.

Thrilling Incident at the Menagerie
--Noble Gallantry of the Lion.

On Thursday of last week, during the heavy storm of wind and rain, while the extensive collection of wild beasts in the menagerie of Messrs. Raymond & Waring were in the village of Norwalk, a feature was introduced in the exhibition not previously announced in the bills. About four in the afternoon a violent gust of wind blew down the canvass which forms the large pavilion, completely enveloping the spectators and cages of animals in one common mass of confusion. The accident happened at the time when Miss Adeline, the Lion Queen as she is styled, was performing in the den of wild beasts, and as the fright of the animals rendered them seemingly uncontrollable, great fears were entertained for the safety of that interesting young lady. At this moment a scene of indescribable terror and confusion presented itself.

The roaring of the terrified beasts, the screams of women and children, and the "peltings of the pitiless storm" without, rendered the scene truly appalling. The panic, however, was but momentary as the prompt and energetic measures taken by the managers soon cleared the wreck, no person having received the slightest injury. But the most intensely interesting incident remains to be told. The uproar among the lions, tigers and leopards in the performing cage gave rise that they were devouring Miss Adeline. In the next instant the canvass was stripped from the cage, when a tableaux presented itself such as would defy either poet, painter or sculptor to portray with accuracy.

In the centre of the den, a young and beautiful lion, (the same recently presented to Gen. Cass by the Emperor of Morocco), in a rampant position, formed the strong feature of the picture; beneath one of his hind feet lay stretched the dead body of a leopard, and struggling within the invincible grasp of his fore paws were the tiger and surviving leopard. In the opposite end of the cage, transfixed as a statue of marble, with dauntless eye and majestic attitude, the same as when she commands the wild beasts to crouch at her feet, stood the Lion Queen, Miss Adeline. The young lady states that the two leopards and the tiger made a simultaneous spring for her at the moment the canvass was blown down, and were repulsed by the noble gallantry of the lion, who bounded between them, and protected her in the manner described. The presence of the keeper, Mr. Pierce, soon reduced the savage group to subjection, and the Lion Queen was happily relieved from a farther participation in this extra performance.—N. Y. True Sun.

Energy.

One of the most remarkable instances of the success which attends well applied energy and perseverance, is exhibited in the case of DAVID JAYNE, of Philadelphia, with whose advertisements the readers of the Register are familiar. The Doctor, after spending many years of his life in practice and a careful investigation of the origin and character of diseases, applied himself to the preparation of remedies, and the excellence of his compounds is attested by the grateful thanks of thousands, who have proved the benefits of his skill and scientific knowledge. His are not mere quack nostrums, but preparations resulting from long and careful study, and as they serve, in an eminent degree, the good purposes for which they were intended, success has followed the proprietor's enterprise and labors. His establishment is now one of the largest in the United States, and besides furnishing every city, town, and township in the country with his invaluable medicines, he ships, annually, immense quantities to foreign lands.

In the prosecution of his plans for bringing his specifics to the notice of the whole people, Dr. JAYNE has issued a Family Almanac, containing certificates and testimonials of the highest character. We see it stated in the Germantown Telegraph, that last year, one million of the Almanacs were published for 1848, and all distributed. This year, the demand for 1849 is so great, that two power presses, driven by steam, are running day and night, with a double set of hands, and unable to meet the demands of the public for the Almanacs. Indeed Messrs. STAVELY & McCALLA, who do the press-work, have found it necessary, to meet the wants of the publisher, to obtain a third power press! Two millions and a half copies will be required for 1849, consuming from twelve to fifteen thousand reams of paper and incurring an expense, at the very small rate of two cents each copy, and we cannot see how they can be furnished at so low a price—of fifty thousand dollars! This is wonderful, exhibiting, as it does, one of the most remarkable instances of enterprise on record.

But it must be remembered that this large sum, which is a fortune of itself, is entirely given away—the whole two millions and a half of Almanacs are gratuitously given to merchants, store-keepers, families and individuals, with a view to the general gratuitous distribution throughout the United States.

The position of Dr. JAYNE is an enviable one—achieved by his own unaided energy, industry, and enterprise—drawing largely from an extensive knowledge of medical jurisprudence—and he now stands at the head of the discoveries of medicines for "the million," which have not only been pronounced to be unequalled as remedies, for the diseases severally set apart by the proprietor, &c., but destined to confer upon this human family incalculable benefits in the form of restored health and prolonged existence.—Norristown Register.

Mail Robbers Caught.

In consequence of the numerous robberies of the mails during the present year, and the many petitions to the Postmaster General on the subject, a regular secret detective organization has been formed, by which all future robberies must be detected. So perfect is the system, that the culprit is detected when he least expects it, for neither postmasters, contractors, drivers, agents, or others, are permitted to know the workings of the plan. It is impossible, as we learn from high authority, for money to be taken—no matter how it is effected—and the thief not discovered. Several robbers have already been caught; the last was John Curry, stage owner and mail contractor between Pikesville, Georgia, and Columbus, Miss. He has robbed the mails of, it is supposed, many thousands of dollars, and among them the missing packages of St. John, Power & Co. This was effected very easily; as he and his confederates had obtained, in some way, keys of the patent brass locks, and could open the mails at pleasure. His detection and arrest was effected by great skill—he was almost taken in the very act, and was forced to disgorge the packages which he had purloined the night before. In some cases, Postmasters, who were deputed to send money, have been arrested, for embezzlement and violation of trust—they having kept the money instead of forwarding it to the parties for whom it was intended. It is a duty the department owes to the many thousands of honest and honorable postmasters and deputies, to ferret out the dishonest, and inflict upon them the direst punishment.

CHILD-BIRTH!

A valuable Scientific Work, upon the subject of Gestation and Child Birth, by R. G. GEISSNER, M. D. late of Paris, just published in New York by the Author.

Price Twenty-five Cents.

THIS WORK contains recently discovered information upon a subject of the highest importance to Married Persons, or those contemplating Marriage. It will be found of special value to those whose means, health or other circumstances, do not permit them to increase the number of their family, without great inconvenience, suffering, or perhaps risk of life. A method of avoiding these troubles and dangers, at will, (recently discovered by a celebrated French Physician,) is fully communicated in this work, so that any person may avail himself of it at once, without cost. The means of prevention here set forth are therefore within the reach of all. The process is new, safe, infallible, convenient, simple, and cannot injure the health of the most delicate.

CAUTION.

Almanacs! Almanacs!!

DOCTOR D. JAYNE would respectfully inform the public that he publishes annually for gratuitous distribution, by himself and all his Agents, an Almanac, called Jayne's Medical Almanac, And Guide to Health.

The calculations for this Almanac are made with great care and accuracy and for five different Latitudes and Longitudes, so as to make them equally useful as a Calendar in every part of the United States and British North America. They are printed on good paper, and with handsome new type, and are neatly bound, and besides being the neatest and most accurate Calendar printed in the United States, they contain a large amount of valuable information, suited to the wants of all, and of that kind too, which cannot be found in books.

HIS CATALOGUE OF DISEASES, with remarks and directions for their removal is really invaluable, and make them welcome visitors in every house they enter. Every family should possess at least one of these Annuals. His Almanacs for 1849 is now ready for distribution, of which he designs to publish at least TWO MILLIONS, and in order that they every family in the United States and British America, may be furnished with a copy, he hereby invites MERCHANTS AND STOREKEEPERS to forward their orders to him as early as possible, and they shall be supplied GRATUITOUSLY with as many copies as they may deem necessary to supply their various customers. They are also invited at the same time, to send a copy of their "BUSINESS CARD," which will be printed and placed on the cover of the Almanacs sent them, also without charge.

They are also requested to give all necessary directions how the Almanacs should be forwarded to them. By law they cannot be sent by mail unless the postage is first paid on them here.

Orders (post paid) directed to DR D JAYNE, Philadelphia, will meet with prompt attention.

FAMILIES can obtain these Almanacs gratis of JOHN MALVEN, Stroudsburg, November 10, 1848.-3t
