

ELECTION OF U. S. SENATOR BY THE PEOPLE.—The following Joint Resolution has passed the Senate of Wisconsin by a vote 12 to 3: JOINT RESOLUTION relative to a proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, concerning the election of Senators in Congress.

Whereas, It is more in accordance with our republican institutions to give to the people the power of electing all officers of government as far as practicable: therefore:

Resolved, That our Senators in Congress be instructed and our Representatives requested to propose in Congress an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to the effect that the People instead of the Legislature of the several States shall hereafter elect their Senators in Congress, by general ticket.

THE MORMONS.—These remarkable people are increasing in numbers both in this country and in England. The London Globe says that there is a large body of them in the neighboring districts who are preparing to emigrate and to colonize in California. They have chartered four or five vessels for their accommodation and intend to leave in the Spring.

The mormons, it is known, have a settlement in California, where they are successfully engaged in agriculture. Considerable numbers of them are on their way to the same region. A battalion of five hundred strong was formed from it.

The religious views of this people are peculiar, but we have no accurate knowledge of them. Their domestic polity is that of communism in some of its forms. Persecution has had its usual effect in multiplying the votaries of this strange faith. They appear to be industrious, and it is very certain that they exhibit an unusual degree of perseverance and endurance in the prosecution of their purposes.

Gen. Taylor's Benevolence.

A Washington letter-writer tells the following story of Gen. Taylor:—A venerable white-headed man, 105 years old, having tottered up to the White House, early in the morning, had the good fortune to meet the President, almost at the threshold. The centenarian introduced himself; told Gen. Taylor that he was feeble, and that his blood was almost dried up in his veins, for the snows of one hundred and five winters, and the effects of hard service in the wars of our country, had left him but a short remnant of the evening of his long and eventful life. Gen. Taylor, moved by the patriarchal years and voice, and simplicity of the man, took him warmly by the hand and said: "Well, grandfather, I am glad to see you. Have you been to breakfast?" The old man replied that he had not. "Well, then, you must come and take some breakfast with me." "No, your time is too precious. I desired only to pay you my respects; and I shall get a breakfast at the market house, for I am a stranger among these people, and an old man must be satisfied to do the best he can." "Well, then, you must come and breakfast with me." "No; your time is too valuable, and I will not trespass upon it; good morning, General, and may Providence guide you." "Well, if you will go," said Gen. Taylor, extending his hand and slipping into that of the old man three half eagles—"if you will go, God bless you; and see that you have a good cup of coffee for breakfast and come up and dine with me before you leave the city." And, leaning upon his staff, the old man, older than his republic of twenty millions of people, by thirty years, went, with a grateful heart, along his way.

A Novel Proposition.

Handbills are posted up in New York announcing that Messrs. Porter and Robjohn, are constructing a Mammoth steam Aerial Ship, which is intended for the transportation of passengers from New York to California. The machine is to be completed by the 15th of April next, and then make its first trip. It is to be propelled by a steam engine of ten or twelve horse power. The journey to California is to be made in five days, without traveling nights. Fare including board and wines, for the trip $50.

Such is the novel proposition of Messrs. Porter and Robjohn. What next? In this age of Wonders, to be incredulous is to fall behind the times, and we can only say to those who attend going to California, that its but a short time to the 15th of April, and as it costs nothing to remain non committal they had better postpone both judgment and journey until the 15th of April; for it would be most provoking to the weary adventurer, while plodding his way in the withering heat, over the prairies of the west to see this Steam Ship sail over him, full of passengers at $50 and found, and through five days! The proposition also announces that they will call for companies at places along the route. What next?

PLOUGHING WITH ELEPHANTS IN INDIA.—Hundreds of active young elephants can be recruited at the straits of Malacca at from $50 to $100 each; admirably suited for work of various kinds, but more especially for ploughing. One of these animals will plough a half acre of land in a day with the greatest ease to himself; and only requires to be attended by his keeper in addition to the ploughman. Any one visiting Singapore may see a small elephant, named "Hajah," working daily on the estate of J. Balesier, Esq., American Consul; and although the animal is only 6-12 years old, he will plough his acre of land in a day with ease. One man holds the plough, and another—the keeper—walks beside the animal and directs him in his duty. The docile little creature obeys every word that is said to him, and will plough all day between the cane rows without plucking a single cane.

REV. ROWLAND HILL.—Many amusing anecdotes of the eccentric, but pious and useful Rowland Hill, have been told; but the following, narrated to us by one of his parishioners is new to us.

It was Mr. Hill's habit to ride to church in an old family carriage, a practice to aristocratic, in the judgment of one of his flock, who determined to rebuke it.

It was customary in his chapel for notes to be sent to the pulpit, requesting prayers for various objects. One Sabbath; Mr. Hill was proceeding with the reading of these requests as usual, when he found himself in the midst of one of the following purport:

"Prayers are requested for Rev. Mr. Hill, that he may be made more humble and like his Divine Master, who, instead of riding in a carriage, was content to be borne on an ass."

Having read the notice, he lifted his spectacles to his forehead, & looking around the house, observed, that he was guilty of the fault alleged; but if the writer would step around to the vestry door after service, saddled and bridled, he would have no objection to try to ride home, after the Master's example, on the back of an ass.

MARVELOUS COINCIDENCES.

One of those remarkable cases of presentiment, or "second-sight," that have occurred at intervals to the confusion of all human speculation in every age of the world, has just been brought to our knowledge in this city. The daughter of a highly respectable family, a child of some twelve years, who has been ill of fever for some days, told her parents, in a paroxysm of delirium on Monday evening, that her brother, who was on board the packet ship Devonshire, coming from London, was then within twenty miles of home, and had with him sundry presents for them, specifying among other things, five books with red covers, gilt edges, &c. The vessel arrived the next morning, and the return of the brother with the specified presents verified the truth of her marvellous impression. When the brother entered her chamber—she recognized him at once, and on the instant interrogated him concerning the presents which she said she had dreamed of; when he confirmed her prediction in every particular. She then immediately relapsed into delirium.—Newark Advertiser.

THE GRAIN TRADE.

Letters have been received at Oswego from England, stating that contracts to some extent had been made to deliver first qualities Danzic wheat at Liverpool on the earliest opening this spring of the Baltic navigation at forty shillings sterling per imperial quarter, which brings the price (if it was shipped from New York) equal to 85 cts. per bushel at New York. Danzic wheat, of the best quality, says the Oswego Times, may be compared to our very best Genesee wheat.

A YANKEE TRICK.

During the exhibition of a menagerie in a country village in Maine, a real live Yankee was on the ground, with a terrible itching to "see the elephant," but he hadn't the desiderated "quarter." Having made up his mind to go in "any how," he stationed himself near the entrance, and waited until the rush was over: Then assuming a patient, almost exhausted tone, and with the forefinger of his right hand placed on the right corner of his mouth, he exclaimed, "For God's sake, Mister, aint ye goin' to give me my change?" "Your change!" said the door-keeper, "Yases! my change!" I gin ye a dollar as much as half an hour ago, and haime got my change yet." The door-keeper handed over three quarters in change, and in walked the Yankee in fundz.

JEALOUSY AMONG THE LADIES.

The ladies are all jealous of Clickener's Sugar-coated Purgative Pills, for heretofore they (the ladies) flattered themselves that they were the only medicine in nature which was at the same time sweet to the lips and reviving to the heart. In fact it is a luxury to be sick now-a-days, the pleasure is so great of being made whole again by Clickener's Sugar-coated Purgative Pills, they being adapted to all Constitutions, and their operations unattended with nausea, pain or gripe. Silence

That dreadful cough! The Lungs are in danger! The work of the destroyer hath begun. The cough of consumption hath in it a sound of Death!

Are you a mother? Your darling child, your idol and earthly joy, is now perhaps, confined to her chamber by a dangerous cold, her pale cheeks, her thin shrunken fingers, tell the hold disease has already gained upon her, the sound of her sepulchral cough pierces your soul.

Young man, when just about to enter life, disease sends a hear-crushing blight over the fair prospects of the future, your hectic cough and feeble limbs tell of your loss of hope, but you need not despair. There is a balm which will heal the wounded lungs, it is

SHERMAN'S ALL-HEALING BALSAM.

Mrs. Attree, the wife of Wm. H. Attree, Esq., was given up by Dr. Sewall of Washington, Drs. Roe and McClellan of Philadelphia, Dr. Roe and Dr. Mott of New York. Her friends all thought she must die. She had every appearance of being in consumption, and was so pronounced by her physicians—Sherman's Balsam was given and it cured her.

Mrs. Garabrantz, of Bull's Ferry, was also cured of consumption by this Balsam when all other remedies failed to give relief—she was reduced to a skeleton. Dr. A. C. Castle, Dentist, 281 Broadway, has witnessed its effects in several cases where no other medicine afforded relief—also the Balsam operated like a charm. Dr. C. also witnessed its wonderful effects in curing Asthma, which it never fails of doing. Spitting Blood, alarming as it may be, is effectually cured by this Balsam. It heals the ruptured or wounded blood vessels, and makes the lungs sound again.

Rev. Henry Jones, 108 Eighth avenue, was cured of cough and catarrhal affection of 50 years standing. The first dose gave him more relief than all the other medicine he had ever taken. Dr. L. J. Beals, 19 Delancy-street, gave it to a sister-in-law who was laboring under Consumption, and to another sorely afflicted with the Asthma. In both cases its effects were immediate, soon restoring them to comfortable health.

Mrs. Lehetria Wells, 95 Christie-st. suffered from Asthma 42 years. Sherman's Balsam relieved her at once, and she is comparatively well, being enabled to subdue every attack by a timely use of this medicine. This indeed is the great remedy for Coughs, Colds, Spitting Blood, Liver Complaints, and all the affections of the throat, and even Asthma and Consumption.

B.A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE.

A SURE REMEDY FOR WORMS.

The testimony in its favor is overwhelming. The proprietors are daily in receipt of letters and certificates, going to prove its remarkable efficiency to all cases of worms, both in children and adults. The relief given, and the immediate improvement of health which follows its use, has called the attention of physicians to this article, and they freely recommend and prescribe it in their practice.

The retail price is 25 cents per vial, which brings it within the means of all.

Brooklyn, L. I. January 16, 1847.

I do certify that I gave one bottle of B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge to my child, and in seven hours it passed 23 large worms. Any person doubting this may apply for further information at my residence corner of York and Jackson streets. JAMES McCAFFREY.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y. March 2, 1844.

I certify, that I took two vials of B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge, which I found to be the greatest cure for worms I have ever used. I have been troubled with tape worms for a number of years, and I have never found so good a medicine as B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge. I therefore recommend it. MARTHA CLIFF.

The public is cautioned against counterfeit and spurious articles, and to put no confidence in statements that "Kalmstock's" and "S. Fahnestock's" Vermifuge are the same or as good as the only genuine article, which is B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE.
