

Washington Coal Company.

Our readers are aware that this Company is constructing a railroad from Pottsville, on the Susquehanna river, (near Wilkesbarre), to the Lackawaxen, at the mouth of the Middle Creek. The distance between the two points is more than forty miles, and two tracks are contemplated after the manner of the road between this place and Carbondale. Consequently no locomotives will be employed, and the transportation will be accomplished with stationary engines and inclined planes. The Company is prosecuting the enterprise with remarkable energy, and expects to have the work completed and in operation in something more than a year.

At Middle Creek the Washington Railroad touches the canal of the Delaware and Hudson Company. An arrangement has been made between the two companies, whereby coal and other freight for the Washington Railroad will be transported to and from the North river on the Delaware and Hudson Canal. In accordance with this understanding, the building of a spacious basin, with docks, slides, and other necessary appurtenances, is now going forward. At the mouth of Middle Creek, too, the Washington Railroad Company has already erected an immense machine shop, for the manufacture of railroad cars and other implements. A number of dwelling houses have been put up, two or three stores have been opened, and a large hotel will be erected during the present season. To the incipient village has been given the name of Haylesburg, in honor of the President of the Washington Company. The compliment is no doubt merited, but the nomenclature is liable to objection. It is not euphonious. Paupack, or almost any other of the aboriginal names of that locality, is preferable. But Haylesburg is designed to be, and will speedily, a place of considerable importance. Upon the completion of the Railroad, hundreds of thousands of tons of coal will be required annually for shipment. The time is not distant more than ten years when Haylesburg, a few months ago without an inhabitant, will contain a thriving population of three or four thousand souls.

Haylesburg is situated ten miles below this place, and about the same distance above the confluence of the Lackawaxen and the Delaware river. On the Susquehanna the Washington Railroad touches the North Branch Canal, and will have an outlet to market in that direction. Honesdale Democrat.

A Pedestrian Feat.

A few days ago, a man in Newark, undertook to take up a hundred potatoes, placed in a line three feet apart, and deposit them in a basket at the beginning of the line, carrying one at a time, within an hour, for a wage of ten dollars. He failed in the task by several minutes. Another undertook the same task, and accomplished it in forty-eight minutes! Neither of them had been trained for the exercise. The distance performed, we understand, is about 6 1/2 miles, besides the exertion of stooping and picking up the potatoes.

SNORING.

"My uncle P— was an awfully snorer. He could be heard further than a blacksmith's forge but my aunt became so accustomed to it that it soothed her repose.— They were a very domestic couple, and never slept apart for many years. At length my uncle was required to attend a court, at some hundred miles distance. The first night after his departure my aunt never slept a wink; she snored the snoring. The second night passed away in the same manner, without sleep. She was getting into a very bad way, and would probably have died had it not been for the intervention of a servant girl; she took the coffee into my aunt's chamber, and ground her to sleep at once."

Playing the Devil.

We were a good deal amused at an anecdote we heard the other day, of a certain preacher whose calling confined him within the limits of old Kentucky. He had preached in his parish many years, and of course run short of the eloquence so much needed to keep his hearers awake and astonished. Let him preach ever so well now, it made no difference, they had got used to him and used to sleeping; and sleep they would to his great annoyance. At last he hit upon an expedient to bring 'em up standing, as the saying is. He procured a small tin whistle, which he took with him into the pulpit, and after taking his text and "blowing away" until his lungs were sore and his hearers all comfortably dozing and nodding approval to each other, he suddenly drew it forth and gave a shrill toot-a-toot. In an instant the whole congregation was awake and upon their feet, staring at the minister, at each other, and wondering what in the name of pickles and human nature, as Sam Slick says, was to come next. "You're a set of smart specimens of humanity, ain't you?" said the divine whistler, as he slowly gazed around on his astonished assemblage. "When I preach the Gospel to you, you all go to sleep; but the moment I go to playing the devil you're all wide awake, up and a coming like a rush of horsetails with a pole in their nest!"— Worcester Telegraph.

Gen. Cass, denies that he drew any money during the late session of the Senate. A certificate from the Secretary of the Senate, states that he did not.

FEVERS.

Fevers of all kinds are peculiarly under the control of Clickener's Sugar Coated Purgative Pills, owing to their unrivalled efficacy in purifying the chyle, and thus depriving of the nourishment that feeds its inflammation. The various Fevers are indicated by as various symptoms, but cold shiverings, succeeded by a dry heat, with pains in the head, bones and limbs, are features common to all.
Mrs. Ann Seymour, of Troy, permits us to state, that being far advanced in the first stage of the Typhus Fever, she had recourse to Clickener's Sugar Coated Purgative Pills, which completely expelled every symptom of the disease in a week. She adds that they are the only medicine she could ever get to remain on her stomach.
Miss H. Allison of 4 Orchard-st., New York, had a fever of 3 years' standing entirely broken up by Clickener's Sugar Coated Pills.

B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE.

A SURE REMEDY FOR WORMS.

The testimony in its favor is overwhelming. The proprietors are daily in receipt of letters and certificates, going to prove its remarkable efficiency to all cases of worms, both in children and adults. The relief given, and the immediate improvement of health which follows its use, has called the attention of physicians to this article; and they freely recommend and prescribe it in their practice.

The retail price is 25 cents per vial, which brings it within the means of all.
Brooklyn, L. I. January 16, 1847.

I do certify that I gave one bottle of B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge to my child, and in seven hours it passed 23 large worms. Any person doubting this may apply for further information at my residence corner of York and Jackson streets. JAMES McCAFFREY,
Poughkeepsie, N. Y. March 2, 1844.

I certify, that I took two vials of B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge, which I found to be the greatest cure for worms I have ever used. I have been troubled with tape worms for a number of years, and I have never found so good a medicine as B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge. I therefore recommend it. MARTHA CLIFT.

The public is cautioned against counterfeit and spurious articles, and to put no confidence in statements that "Rohmstock's" and "S. Fahnestock's" Vermifuge are the same or as good as the only genuine article, which is B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE.
