The three persons mentioned by us in yesterav' paper as having the Cholera, were Mr. ohn Fowler, his wife and son. Mr. Fowler ad his son died about noon. Mrs. Fowler, selearn, is better this morning; and hopes are entertained that she will recover. Another of Mr. F. was attacked on Monday with darrhea, but took some medicine which checkel p for the time. Monday night the diarrhœa sturned upon him; failing to do anything to mest i, he was taken with the Cholera during restorday, and died last night. Seldom do we at of a family being more severely afflicted han has that of Mr. Fowler. But a few day and a daughter of Mr. Fowler died ; now we here to record the death of the father and two
