SAMUEL S. DREHER, Auditor January 17, 1850.

The undersigned respectfully informs the people of this county, that he will be at David Keller's Hotel, in Stroudsburg, till the last of February next-his attention will be given principally to all operations for preserving and beautifying the natural teeth. All persons having operations performed, will also receive advice in reference to the care of the teeth, the general health, and the cure of bad breath, from whatever cause arising. The great importance of the teeth for purposes of mastication and speech, contributing to the charms of beauty, and when lost detracting therefrom; and, to avoid that "hell o' a' diseases," should induce especially the young to have them attended to. 16 Benjamin Hanna, Jr., Middle Smithfield My practice in this county already speaks for itself. My prices are the lowest for which good service can be done-no variation, except gratis in case of the poor.
