CASE OF LIEUT. HUNTER .- Our readers will remember that during the Mexican war, LIEUT. HUNTER, belonging to Com. Perry's 137 Ford Standish Squadron, took the town of Alvarado, without 139 Graisburg Joseph any loss, on his "own responsibility." The 135 Glentworth James Commodore brought his case before the Pres- 136 Gibbons Isaac ident ; but he, it is stated has declined to di- 242 Gordon Gilbert rect any proceedings against Lieut. ### FIREMEN'S PARADE.

The members of the Humane Fire Company, of Stroudsburg, will have a parade in full equipments, in this borough, on Saturday the 30th inst. The line of procession will be formed about one 074 Nicholson William o'clock, when the company will parade through the streets of the town. The occurrence will no doubt be a highly interesting one, and it should be a pleasure to all our citizens, as it is clearly their duty, to do all in their power to encourage the members of the "Humane" in their praiseworthy and energetic efforts to establish a fire company
