Working-Men Ahoy!

It is high time working men of Pennsylvania—by which we mean farmers, manufacturers, merchants, mechanics, tradesmen, laborers,—every body in fact but rich or poor loafers, who won't work if they have a chance—to take active measures to have the doctrine of Protection to Home Industry re-incorporated in our Tariff Laws. It is getting to be clearer every day, that they must either put down the Tariff of '46 or be put down themselves. Both cannot stand together. Under the present system Great Britain is the workshop for America.— The money that should stay here to keep our people employed, is sent to England to enrich British manufacturers and working-men. The policy of the day is to import British iron and export American gold.

There is but one way to arrest the evil. It is to call meetings in every city, town and village, in favor of increased duties of the great staples of Pennsylvania—to pour petitions day after day into both Houses of Congress—to write letters to our representatives—and to show them that we are in earnest. It must come to that at last, and the sooner we begin the sooner can we hope to succeed.

We do not urge this as a party, but a Pennsylvania measure,—it concerns all—Whigs and Democrats.—The two parties have a sufficient number of exciting questions to discuss, without quarrelling about the propriety of a measure so vital to their interests, in regard to which they should be of one mind and one heart.

So says the Reading Journal, and we heartily endorse it.

To Keep a Stove as Bright as a Coach Body, by two applications a Year.—Make a weak alum water, and mix your "British Lustre" with it; put two spoonfulls to a gill of alum water; let the stove be cold, brush with the mixture, then take a dry brush and a dry lustre, and rub the stove till it is perfectly dry. Should any part, before polished, become so dry as to look grey, moisten it with a wet brush, and proceed as before.

The Somerville Railroad Co.

Several large and valuable tracts of coal land, situated in the Lackawanna and Wyoming valleys have lately been purchased for this company. From the fact that these purchases have been made, it is inferred that the company will soon construct its railroad.

This company is better known in this region as the Drinker company. By its charter it is authorized to make a road from the Lackawanna valley, at or near Harrison, through Cobb's Gap, to the Delaware river, a short distance above the Water Gap, at which point it is designed to intersect a railroad, for which a charter has been granted, to run across New Jersey and terminate in the vicinity of the city of New York.

At Harrison the Somersville railroad, when finished, will form a junction with the Leggett's Gap railroad, now constructing from that point, through Susquehanna county, to the line of the N. York & Erie railroad in the valley of the Susquehanna river. The Leggett's Gap company own the railroad between Owego and Ithaca, thereby furnishing a connecting link between the Susquehanna valley and Cayuga Lake. Of course the Company must connect their two roads, which can be done either by extending their main railroad from Great Bend to Owego, or by making an arrangement for the use of the New York and Erie railroad between the two places. In either case the company will have the advantage of an unbroken line from Harrison to Ithaca, and will be able to supply central New York either from Binghamton by way of the Chenango canal, or from Ithaca by way of Cayuga Lake.

When the railroad of which we have now spoken shall be completed they will furnish a continuous line from New York through the heart of the coal and iron region of this state to Cayuga Lake.—Houseside Democrat

Insuring Debts.

The Lafayette Insurance Company, of Indiana, have opened an office in New York, with the intention to guarantee or insure the payment of debts for a premium. With this view they lately offered one thousand shares of their stock to New York merchants, increasing their capital to $150,000, and it was promptly taken.

DEMOCRACY BOILED DOWN.—In a late number of the Holmes county, Ohio, Farmer, a Loco paper, published in the county of Holmes, where Locos grow "spontaneously," a writer advocates the adoption of the following sentiments in the Revised Constitution:

- 1st. No person shall own more than 400 acres of land lying in this State.
 - 2d. No banks and no incorporations whatever shall be granted.
 - 3d. No professor of religion shall hold any office except in the church.
- This is the last specimen of progressive democracy which has, as yet, come to the people's ears.

"What can a man do," asked a greenhorn, "when the Sheriff is seen coming up to him with a writ in his hand?" "Apply the remedy," said another, gruffly.—"Remedy! what kind of remedy?" "Heel-ing remedy, you goose; run like a quarter horse."
