

Thomas Steer, a member of the Vigilant Engine Company, was very seriously injured by being crushed between the engine and falling bricks, James T. Pilly, Thomas Lower, John F. Rhodes, Samuel Ackelson, Peter G. Lewins, Margaret Davis, and the bodies of five unknown, had been recovered; and more are supposed to have perished. Two children of Mr. Bedell are missing. In addition to the above, the bodies of one man, two women, and four children were taken to the green house.

There is a long list of cases taken to the hospital, of fractured arms and other injuries, many of which will prove fatal.

On Water street, from Race to Vine, was a block of old fashioned dwellings, occupied generally by poor people, 20 to 30 families in some of the houses—their suffering can be imagined. It is reported, that in one of the houses a woman was found dead, and by her side her infant alive; and another woman and five children were found burned to death.

The loss is estimated at about two millions of dollars.

Great Fire in Brooklyn.

A tremendous fire occurred at Brooklyn, N. Y. on Sunday morning the 6th inst., in the Ware House of Mr. Thorn, in Forman st. The flames would have been subdued by the firemen, no doubt, had not an awful explosion taken place at the time, occasioned by a quantity of saltpetre in the building, which scattered the burning fragments in every direction. Nearly two blocks of buildings were destroyed, and the loss is estimated at over nine hundred thousand dollars.

Killed by Lightning.—On Tuesday evening last, a large Whopper will, lit upon the Telegraph Wires, near the Half-way House, between Bloomsburg and Berwick, just as the news of Gen. Taylor's Death were being communicated, and received such a shock from the effect of the Magnetic wires as to fell him helpless to the ground.

DISTINGUISHED STRANGERS.—The steamer Washington arrived at New York, on the fourth of July, having on board the brave Hungarian patriot of Kosseth, Gen. DEMBINSKI and his noble lady, and C. P. R. JAMES, Esq., the celebrated novelist. It was a fitting day for a Hero like Dembinski to set his foot on the free soil of the American Republic.
